REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

CENTENARY CONTINUATION AND ADVANCE

The vision of those who conceived the Centenary Movement found inspiring substance in the marvelous response of our Methodism. It has swept through two stages and now enters a third—the stage in which it will be justified by its fruits or condemned by decreasing momentum.

The Centenary found West Virginia Conference in the midst of two other connectional campaigns for a combined sum amounting to $900,000 neither of which bore any relation to the new project. Nevertheless, the Conference, with a Centenary quota of $1,887,531, secured and reported $1,449,354, leaving a deficiency of $438,177. The number of charges that failed to meet their quota was 140 and 19 self-supporting charges have made no return whatever. There are 10 Missions that have no quota.

The Centenary is not on trial but our Conference is. We can be acquitted only as we realize by faith and determination the goal of complete achievement. The hopes roused by this great movement have set the pulses of a needy world throbbing with new life. We must not lessen those hopes by failure.

Certain distinct objectives must be urged.

1—The world is still our parish. We must feed the multitude assigned to us in every land.

2—The organized church—our Sunday Schools, Epworth League Chapters and various missionary societies—must be brought to higher efficiency. The Official Board under pastoral direction should plan a definite program and do effective team-work.

3—The quota for each charge must be secured in full and collected on a one hundred per cent basis. To accomplish this five per cent at least of each congregation must pledge the tithe. Centenary pledges should be secured from new members, non-subscribing members and our entire constituency.

4—The fundamental need is a deepening of the spiritual life through Bible study, prayer and the home-altar. Our slogan should be the Centenary a certainty on every charge through service.

A Suggestive Outline.

October and November—

Organization period. Perfect Unit System in every church. The Official Board organized into a co-operative staff with the pastor who will submit a program for the year for discussion, revision and adoption.

EDUCATION

Your Committee on Education submits the following greport:—
W. Va. Wesleyan College.

The college halls are now crowded by a splendid group of ambitious young people seeking the best things in life. The Agnes Howard Hall for young women cannot care for more than fifty per cent of the out-of-town college girls. Many others must accept rooms in private homes in the town. Some parents being unwilling to have their daughters cared for thus we have been compelled to turn quite a number away, all the places in the Hall having been taken.

Within the last five years two financial campaigns have been put on. The "half million campaign" closed three years ago with the full amount subscribed. The "Victory Fund campaign" for an equal amount secured the $500,000 last spring. This gives to us something over a million dollars as our endowment. Payments have come in splendidly, some having paid the full amount in advance, making up for others who are behind in their payments.

The cost of getting money subscribed is five percent under the most favorable circumstances, our two campaigns costing us nearly fifty thousand dollars. The "half-million" fund campaign carried its own cost, and the "Victory Fund" must produce its twenty-five thousand likewise if we are to collect the hundred and twenty-five thousand of the Rockefeller money given on such condition. Its expense and its unavoidable shrinkage must be provided for. These facts show that there remains something more to be done than the Rockefeller gift may be realized. That this expense may be met and the unavoidable deficits until all endowment becomes productive will require at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars still. The President suggests as his plan for accomplishing this, the prevailing upon those of the "half-million" subscribers who did not subscribe to the "Victory Fund" to continue their annual amounts subscribed for three additional years after October, 1921, helping thus to meet all the needs of both periods and thus fulfill the dreams of the welfare of our West Virginia young people as well as honor God in the giving. All of this we heartily recommend.

Your committee recommends the re-election of the block of trustees whose terms expire with this year, namely, Rev. G. D. Smith, Archibald Moore, D. L. Ash, L. E. Ressegger, and Messrs. G. W. Atkinson, W. W. Hughes, U. G. Young, R. W. Hite, R. A. Reger, and Samuel T. Spears, for another four years. We recommend also the election of Bishop Francis J. McConnell as an ex-officio member in place of Bishop W. F. McDowell whose services call him to another territory.

We recommend as visitors for the coming year, Revs. J. B. Workman and S. B. Hart, and Hon. Geo. W. Bowers, of Mannington, W. Va.

Respectfully submitted,

H. D. CLARK, Chairman,

D. L. ASH, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE

Your committee on Epworth League submits the following report:

We ask first of all your confirmation of the Conference Epworth League officers duly elected at the meeting of the League representatives during the session of the Institute at Buckhannon, August 9—16, 1920:

President.....	J. Elbert Wells
First Vice-President.....	Roy McCuskey
Second Vice-President.....	Ralph C. Brown
Third Vice-President.....	Donald O. Blagg
Fourth Vice-President.....	Denver C. Pickens
Secretary.....	Miss Leah Ross
Treasurer.....	John W. Meredith
Junior Superintendent.....	Mrs. Anna Lewis Fitch

We also desire your confirmation of Edgar A. Lowther as Dean, Denver C. Pickens as Manager, and Mrs. Denver C. Pickens as Dean of Women of the West Virginia Conference Epworth League Institute for 1921.

We rejoice in the growing interest in, and the influence of, the Epworth League Institute. The 1920 Institute, the fourth of this Conference had 305 persons in attendance, and registered 79 life decisions. We would urge all our pastors to remind their young people of the 1921 Institute which will be held at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia, August 8—15, 1921 just following the close of the summer school.

We express to the West Virginia Wesleyan College authorities our appreciation for the use of the buildings and grounds and the many courtesies extended to the management and student body; also to the Pastor and members of First Church, Buckhannon for the use of the Church for certain of the services, the use of the Communion set for our Communion service, and for the many other kindnesses shown; and the Buckhannon Chapter of the Epworth League for the royal welcome given to the Instituters from all other chapters, for the splendid reception program under their management on Monday night, and for the innumerable acts of service. Congratulations are due the Central Church Charleston in securing through its delegation to the Institute the Banner for the highest number of points in the contest and to the Wheeling District Epworth League in securing the Banner for the highest number of points of all the Districts.

We deem it fitting to commend the work of Mr. Lynn Rohrbough, field Secretary of the Epworth League for the Pittsburgh Area, and bespeak for him the hearty co-operation of the entire Conference. Mr. Rohrbough is an excellent young man, and a product of our own Wesleyan College and of League work in our own Conference.

We recommend to all our Leaguers the adoption of the "Twenty-Four-Hour-Day League" plan for the finances of the Local Chapters and Area and general work.

We earnestly request a more serious consideration of the possibilities of Junior League organization and work and advise communication with the Conference Superintendent, Mrs. Anna Lewis Fitch of Huntington, West Va. for information and help.

We express our loyalty to the Central Office Epworth League and to Dr. Charles E. Guthrie, our general secretary. It is a matter of gratification that the General Conference has recognized the larger program of the Epworth League in the creating of the Epworth League Board and we feel especially honored in the Pittsburgh Area in that two of our number, Daniel L. Marsh of Pittsburgh and James W. Engle of this Conference are members of this Board.

The thanks of the Conference are due Dr. E. C. Wareing for his most excellent address at the Anniversary of the League on Sunday Night.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Elbert Wells, President.

Roy McCuskey, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

1. These are the days of triumph for the Temperance Cause. We have become so accustomed already to the new condition of affairs that we hardly realize that it is only since the last session of our Conference that Constitutional Prohibition has gone into effect. We rejoice greatly in the splendid victory thus consummated and in the marked improvement in various social and business conditions which are to be attributed to Prohibition. We also note with the deepest interest that other nations are closely watching the effects of Prohibition here and hope that America may be in this as in so many other things a leader in human advancement.

2. But we warn our people not to suppose that the battle is all over. The liquor interests refuse to accept their defeat and are still disposed to try all possible schemes for the defeat of the people's will and the return of the dominance of the saloon. Therefore there are certain things which we urge our people to do. 1st—They should continue their support of the Anti-Saloon League, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and other agencies and societies devoted to this work.

They should strive earnestly, in Sunday Schools and all other educational institutions, to educate children and young people with regard to the injurious effects of all intoxicating drinks. 3rd.—As voters they must strive to secure the election of proper persons to maintain, pass and execute good laws for the enforcement of Prohibition.

3. With regard to the present political campaign we urge all our pastors and people to familiarize themselves with the records and principles of all candidates for office and as far as possible to vote only for those who are in sympathy with the maintenance, enactment and enforcement of temperance laws. This particularly applies to legislators, both in Congress and for the states, and to executive officers such as sheriffs and constables, and to the judges and prosecuting attorneys of our courts.

4. We appreciate and approve the work of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. We indorse its movement to erect in the national capital a building worthy of our church. We urge our pastors and official boards to open their churches to the Board's representatives in this matter.

FRANK S. TOWNSEND, Chairman.

P. Z. MUSGRAVE, Secretary.

EDUCATION FOR NEGROES

Your committee on Education for Negroes submit the following report:

We recognize the fact that the Board for the Education of the Negroes has done and is now doing a great work, and the responsibility and task of the Board has been greatly increased because of the World War and the reconstruction following and also because of the migration of vast numbers of the colored people from the South to other sections of the country.

We therefore pledge to this Board our loyal support and most hearty co-operation in its great work.

D. S. HAMMOND, Chairman.

W. M. STEPHENS, Secretary.

THE ATTITUDE OF LABOR.

On motion of C. E. Allen the sentiment of the following resolutions of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly was endorsed, and the appointment of a committee of three members of the West Virginia Conference authorized to act in conjunction with similar committees of other bodies to consider the extended application of the resolutions.

"First, Be it hereby resolved, that we, the duly elected delegates representing all of the organized crafts of the Wheeling District, do hereby unanimously declare it to be our belief that the teachings of Christ constitute a platform upon which all men can agree.

"Secondly, That we believe they can be applied to modern industrial problems.

"Thirdly, That we will co-operate with those who will join with us in an earnest endeavor to apply his teachings in the Wheeling District.

"Fourthly, As further evidence of our sincerity we have duly appointed a committee of three to confer and decide what method shall be pursued."

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In view of the splendid developments of our Centenary program, the unusual opportunities of the foreign field, and likewise our increasing responsibilities, we your Committee on Foreign Missions recommend:

1—That our pastors faithfully present the cause of the world field of their people, in the hope that many young people may seriously consider the call of the Master to this work.

2—That we urge the organization of foreign Missionary Auxiliaries in all churches not having such societies.

3—That we endeavor to increase the circulation of the "World Outlook," and other missionary publications, which are designed to increase the knowledge of world needs in the minds of the people.

C. A. SNIDER, Chairman.

P. Y. DeBOLT, Secretary.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE

We your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture, beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the increasing number of parsonages and we most earnestly urge the pastors on such charges as have no parsonage to get their people to secure them.

We further advise that as far as possible that all parsonages in the conference be furnished with such essentials as will both make a comfortable home for the pastor and save the constant and increasing cost of moving expenses to the charge.

GREGORY BLEAKLY, Chairman.

C. E. LEATHERBY, Secretary.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR RETIRED MINISTERS.

Since it has come to the attention of several members of this Conference that some of our beloved aged brethren of the retired ranks hesitate to come and some are prohibited from attending the sessions of our Annual Conference because of the increased financial burden such attendance imposes upon their already slender resources and

WHEREAS, the Conference needs the benefit of the experience and wisdom of these retired ministers who have grown grey in the service of their Master and ours; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That we earnestly request the authorities of the entertaining Conferences to provide for the free entertainment of all retired ministers, including their meals, while attending the sessions of the Annual Conference.

BIBLE CAUSE

The Bible being the revelation of God through Christ, and the rock upon which any lasting civilization must stand; Therefore we earnestly urge:

1. That the Pastors diligently enjoin both by example and by word the study of the Bible in the home, the Sunday Schools, the Epworth League Study Classes, and in all similar ways.

2. That we advise most earnestly, extended and reverent study of the Bible in all our Colleges, and a more general reading of it in all our schools.

3. That we co-operate with the American Bible Society in their excellent work.

4. That we commend the good work of the Gideons in placing copies of the Bible in Hotels and public places.

The brethren have co-operated with me beautifully and our thanks go out to the brethren and our praise to God for what ever of lasting good we have been able to accomplish in His Name.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE.

The Fortieth Anniversary of the organization of the Women's Home Missionary Society was celebrated on June 8th throughout all Methodism. Soon after the organization, our first National President Mrs. Lucy Webb Hays, in her address to the Women of the National Meeting, this foremost lady of the land and of Methodism, uttered words as true today as then, viz: "Our conviction, our faith is, that the surest hope of mankind is in America. Within our limits, within our reach, are gathered representatives of all the races of mankind.

If, by reason of our neglect of home work the stream of unchristian tendencies from abroad, and the flood of indifference and vice in our own land shall overwhelm our cherished institutions, all missionary work at home and abroad will suffer alike by the common calamity.

Other women within our own West Virginia Conference caught the spirit of this busy national woman and on March 2nd, 1897 in Fourth St. Church, Wheeling organized the first auxiliary.

As a special Fortieth Anniversary gift of love we are able to report Forty Four new organizations, with a net gain of auxiliary members of 1,423. In our young peoples department 453; in our children's department 242, a total net gain of 2,218, giving the Conference Home Missionary Society a total membership of 4938. Our special "Love Gift" is $1,400.00. 46 new perpetual members were gained whose membership payments brings to the Society nearly $1,400.00.)

A District meeting was held in each of the seven Districts. Mrs. E. W. Mathews National Secretary of Stewardship, ably assisted and instructed in these meetings.

The Holloway Deaconess home continues to send out its force of consecrated workers doing Missionary, Settlement and Travelers Aid Work at Bellaire, Martins Ferry, Wheeling and vicinity.

Miss Mary Lois Barnes continues to do splendid Settlement Work at Richwood.

The Mary Kacmar Mission in Wheeling, Miss Emma Vanek, Superintendent, The Fairmont Mission, Miss Ethol Vanek, Superintendent, The Clarksburg Mission, Miss Louise Vanck, Superintendent were all successfully engaged in doing good work in industrial training and evangelism in their respective localities among the foreign speaking people.

The Interdenominational School of Missions held at Mt. Lake Park, Md., was most helpful and our West Virginia Women are urged to be loyal to this school.

The supply Secretary, Miss Laura Wincher, reports $1,787.48 disbursed to needy ministers and among our own schools, this is $572.47 more than was expended for these same causes last year.

Our faithful Treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Sivert, reports all pledges paid and the total yearly receipts are ($16,074.96) a gain of $7,392.46.

With joy and thanksgiving we report two of our young women having given themselves to the Home Missionary work: Miss Zena Gulnac, formerly of Parsons, went from the West Virginia Society and has been accepted by the Board, and will teach in one of our Mission Schools; Miss Sarah Nay of Wheeling, daughter of our beloved President, Mrs. R. B. Nay of our West Virginia Womans Home Missionary Society, has taken up her duties as Superintendent of Girls in Bennett Academy, Mathiston, Miss.

The women of this Society are deeply grateful to the District Superintendents and pastors of the Conference for their co-operation in helping the women of West Virginia Methodism make this wonderful Fortieth Anniversary year the greatest of all years in every department of W. H. M. S. work.

May I close this excellent report with the words of one of our fallen leaders, Mrs. Delia L. Williams: "The future demands more self-denial, more work, more faith, more prayer, more personal consecration—a full life as unto the Lord."

COMMITTEE ON RESPECTS.

Time always works changes. In the great system of the Methodist itinerary it is inevitable that men come and go, and yet because we have known and loved one another awhile, separations are always marked with sadness and regret.

Your committee, on behalf of the Conference, is called upon to say good-bye to some who transfer into other fields of labor. Their work in the widening fields is to be practically the same, only they are to labor beyond the bounds of this Conference, and because we have come to know these departing brethren are "workers who needeth not to be ashamed," and because out from their lives which they have lived in our presence shines much of the Christlikeness, we regret to say to them good-bye; but with all the fervency of love we add the Good bless you wherever you go. Those that depart to other Conferences are: J. W. Holliday, W. W. Beckley, J. B. Carder, J. L. Norris.

In like spirit also do we extend the hand of welcome to those who come to us from other Conferences, and assure them of our love as laborers together in the Master's work; M. W. Castle, and A. H. Rapping, H. E. Sumner.

Then there are some who must lay down the more active duties of the itinerant ministry, and are changing their Conference relations from effective to a less laborious form of service, either in the retired ranks or the supernumerary class, or they are choosing the year of sabbatic rest. Upon all these brethren we invoke that rest which brings restoration of impaired body and mind, and pray for them that peace of God which passeth all understanding. The ones taking the retired relation are: A. J. Hiatt, H. D. Clark, A. M. Grimes, and A. M. Hammond.

S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Chairman.

J. C. BUCKLEY, Secretary.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas the seventy-fourth session of the West Virginia Conference has been adequately provided for by the pastors and people of Moundsville, be it therefore RESOLVED: 1. That we are under a debt of gratitude to our General Conference and to the board of Bishops for the presence and service of Bishop Francis J. McConnell, D. D. LL. D., who has already sealed the wisdom of his assignment among us.

2. That we record our appreciation for the untiring labors of our Methodist Pastors for the thorough preparation for the convenience and comfort of this Conference and especially to the host, Dr. C. G. Stater for his unfailing courtesy to all during this session.

3. That we thank the people who have so generously opened their homes and made us to enjoy their abounding hospitality.

4. That we gratefully recognize the service and efficiency of the choir, under the leadership of that long-time friend and helper of the church, Mrs. Emma Moore Scott.

5. That we assure the other denominations of our thanks for the use of their churches for necessary meetings and that we likewise appreciate the use of banks, the courtesy of railroad lines and the excellent service of the papers of the city.

6. That we shall gratefully remember the service of the faithful women who served two meals a day in the church building. We shall continue to say these ladies know how to cook and serve.

7. That we tender our thanks to our secretaries, treasurer, statisticians, board of stewards and board of examiners and various committees for all their indispensable, unrequited toil.

8. That by rising vote we record our unanimous approval of the presidency of Bishop McConnell. His thorough, fair and able administration, his thoughtful, helpful addresses and sermon have bound us to him as our resident bishop. We recognize in him a leader worthy of our confidence and with him we will loyally strive to build the Kingdom in this part of his area. We trust that his presidency may be ours for all the sessions of this quadrennium.

DANIEL WESTFALL,

G. D. SMITH,

J. W. ENGLE,

Committee.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

When we took up the work of the W. F. M. S. of the West Virginia Conference a year ago, we did so with great reluctance. We knew only too well the human tendency to relax after a jubilation. The women of West Virginia had accomplished wonderful things during the five years of jubilee under the very efficient leadership of Mrs. C. Edmund Neil. Then we realized some one must carry on the work during the crisis. So with a willing heart and a prayer on our lips for Divine guidance we put our shoulders to the task.

Although the women did relax just a little after the jubilee, when they realized the tremendous responsibility that was before them, they rallied and went to work with great courage and determination.

We have made a net gain in auxiliaries of more than ten percent, and in members of almost twenty-five percent. Our financial obligation was $13,000. $1000 more than the greatest year of the jubilee. We have raised more than $21,000. Also over a thousand dollars worth of bandages and supplies have gone to our hospital in Kolar, India.

We want to thank all the pastors who have so loyally stood by and encouraged us this year and helped to make the work a success.

With increased knowledge and understanding of the work, we, the women of West Virginia, hope and expect, with the help of God, to do more to relieve the suffering and to encourage the women and children of other lands.

MRS. C. FRED ANDERSON,
Conference Secretary.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

In pursuance of a resolution passed at the last session of the Annual Conference, held at Moundsville, W. Va., September 22, 27th, 1920, adopting the alternative plan for raising the District Superintendents Claim and apportioning the Conference Claimants and Episcopal Fund, see Discipline of 1916, Paragraph, 328.

We your Commission on Finance in session at First Church, Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 14th, 1920, in answer to a call made by W. C. Hartinger, Chairman of the Commission have passed and adopted the following resolutions.

RESOLVED, 1. That the salary of each District Superintendent be fixed at Four Thousand ($4,000.00) dollars per year.

RESOLVED, 2. That each District Superintendent shall apportion an amount in dollars to each charge equal to nine (9%) per cent of the amount fixed for this years salary.

RESOLVED, 3. That there shall be appointed a Treasurer to whom all apportionments, and all moneys, and all vouchers for money, received by the District Superintendents, or Local Treasurers shall be sent to him and he shall make settlement according to Paragraph 328, section 5 of the Discipline of 1916.

RESOLVED, 4. That each District Superintendent shall furnish the general Treasurer with a list of the names of all the charges of his district and the names of the pastors supplying them and the amount fixed for the support of the District Superintendent for that charge. He shall also make a report at the end of each quarter, or oftener if he desires, to the General Treasurer of the amount received from each charge.

When he has received the whole amount due him as fixed by this Commission, if the whole amount apportioned to his district has not been paid over to him, he shall continue to receive and send to the general Treasurer, or direct that said amounts be sent to him.

RESOLVED, 5. That when the salaries of each District Superintendent will have been paid, and the expenses of the Commission met, the residue shall be left in the hands of the Treasurer with which to pay deficits, or reduce the percentage for the subsequent year.

RESOLVED, 6. That each District Superintendent shall use whatever methods he may think advisable in the collection of said fund and if Local or District Treasurers are employed he shall furnish the general Treasurer with the names and addresses of the same.

W. C. HARTINGER, Chairman.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE CLAIMANT'S PERMANENT FUND.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:—

One year ago your Secretary reported hopefully that through the medium of the Interchurch World Movement a clear way seemed to be opened up to increase the Permanent Fund to $600,000.00. For reasons which need not be discussed here that splendidly conceived plan of interchurch co-operation failed utterly to bring the relief hoped for. While there has been some small gains made in securing new subscribers to the fund, yet these gains have been fully off-set by the losses which have come through death and removal without the Conference, so that the total amount of the Permanent Fund in cash and subscription stands at $347,415.13. Of this amount $180,329.10 is in cash and securities. These figures are as of Sept. 30, 1920. A small proportion of the securities, perhaps some $8,000.00 (the Treasurer's Books give the exact figures) is non-productive to this Fund, a part of this $8,000.00 being in unimproved lots and a part in commercial notes and Bonds which are under annuity and which annuity practically consumes the accruing interest. The treasurer's report will show that the accrued interest from the Permanent Fund for this year will amount to over $7,000.00, the largest amount ever received from this source, and it is gratifying to pause for a moment and cheer ourselves with the thought that this golden stream will continue to flow into the hands of our Conference Stewards, to be distributed by them to the worthy persons on our Conference Claimants roll as long as West Virginia Methodism endures, which your writer firmly believes, will be as long as time endures.

It has been estimated that in order to pay our Conference Claimants one hundred per cent of the amount due the Board of Stewards must have a yearly income of approximately $32,000.00, so it will be readily comprehended that at as early a date as feasible we must press on until our total endowment measures up, at least to $600,000.00.

Although we shall not be able to meet the full quota of the Conference Claimants this year through the income derived from the Endowment Fund, yet you will also recall that at the Morgantown Conference, a year ago, the apportionment to the charges for the Annual Conference collection was fixed at ten per cent of the pastor's salary, if this collection reaches seventy per cent of the amount it should bring in, then the Conference Stewards shall, for the first time in our Conference history, be enabled to meet the Conference Claimants' amounts in full.

Throughout the past year the activities of the Secretary have been given to office work and to stimulating collections. A number of subscribers, and some of our preachers, have been confused by the multiplicity of subscriptions which seem to fall due with great regularity. This confusion has been increased in some quarters by a statement which was current in the days when subscriptions for the Centenary offering were being secured to the effect that a subscription to the Centenary would cover all benevolences for five years to come. And because in too many places the Conference Claimants collections, in practice at least, several subscribers to both the Centenary and to the Permanent Fund have argued that when they subscribed to the Centenary it was their understanding that this subscription released, or cancelled, all other subscriptions they had previously made to the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund. This erroneous conclusion only goes to emphasize the necessity that all efforts made from the office of the Secretary should be closely backed up and supplemented by the efforts of the local church Finance Committee in order the best results in collecting in the amounts pledged may be obtained.

Brethren. We must do our utmost in standing by the Conference Claimants' Fund, and not relax our efforts until the last dollar promised has been secured and this we must do not for the sake of the worthy veterans of the Cross and their dependents, not even for the sake of having our people keep the pledges they have made in subscribing to so good a cause, but also for the sake of encouraging our sons and daughters to give themselves to the Christian ministry, the generous treatment accorded to the retired minister should always stand as an assurance to those entering upon their life's work as ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, that after they too have toiled and spent the years of their activity and old age and infirmities have overtaken them, a grateful church will not neglect to care for their comfort so long as they linger in the years of their retirement. Such an assurance in the form of an adequate Endowment Fund on the part of the Annual Conferences will go a long way to successfully solve the vexed problem of how to get our best young men to enter the ministry. When our noble youth, feeling the call to become an ambassador for Jesus Christ and in an holy abandon of ardor devotes his very life to preaching the gospel of Jesus, every law of fairness demands that in his old age he shall neither be forgotten or forsaken by those to whom he has ministered.

At the Spring Meeting of the Executive and Investing Commission, upon motion of the Secretary, it was ordered that an expert accountant be employed to go over the books of the Secretary and Treasurer and audit the same. In compliance with that order Mr. James G. Fullerton, a son of one of our retired ministers, was secured for this service and the results of his examination and audit are herewith submitted as a part of this report.

IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH B. FEATHER

Rev. J. B. Feather, the subject of this sketch was born Nov. 3rd, 1833 and departed this life Aug. 15th, 1920, age 86 years, nine months and twelve days. He was married in 1857 to Mary Atkinson of Charleston, W. Va. and to this union six children were born, two died in infancy, and Mrs. E. B. Woodruff died in 1918; three children by this marriage remain, Jennie Elmer, and Frank. In 1881 Brother Feather followed this good woman to her resting place. Brother Feather was again married in 1884 to Mary Lou Mercer, and to them was born one child, Dana W. M. Feather, a promising son, who following in the steps of his father, joined the West Virginia Conference in 1911, and after three years of faithful service in 1914 God called him to the richer life, and he was not for God took him. Again in 1919 Brother Feather was bereaved, when after months of severe suffering his faithful companion went to be with God.

Brother Feather was converted when he was seventeen, and entered the ministry when but nineteen years old and at that age joined the conference in 1854, and for forty-six years rendered faithful service to the church. In 1900 he was superannuated, and lived to bless his fellow pastors until Aug. 15, 1920.

It was brother Feather with a company of men such as Gideon Martin, D. H. K. Dix, James L. Clark, James M. Warden, and men of this type that blazed the way through the forests and planted Methodism in West Virginia. We who labor in this field have entered into a rich heritage, the reward of their labors.

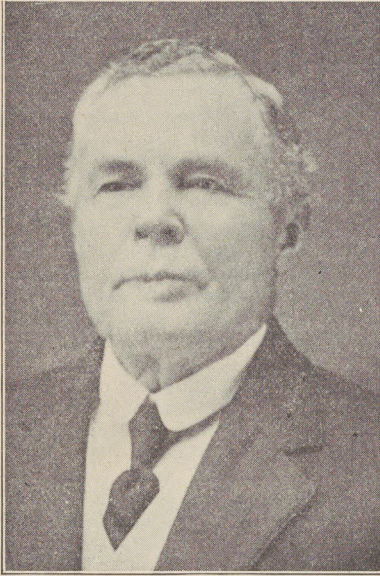

Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past
The battles fought the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.

The funeral services were in charge of District Superintendent, Dr. Archibald Moore, assisted by the writer, Rev. Harry Flanagan, Rev. T. R. Falkner, and other neighboring pastors.

W. M. SCHULTZ.

SAMUEL E. JONES

The Rev. Samuel E. Jones was born in 1840, Washington, Guernsey County, Ohio. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church from his early youth. Early in life he responded to the call to the ministry and for twenty-seven years rendered faithful service to Methodism and humanity in the State of West Virginia. In 1912 owing to advanced years and ill health he retired from the active ministry and came to the city of Parkersburg where he resided at his death.

In Parkersburg he affiliated with the St. Andrews Church, where for a number of years he rendered faithful service by teaching in the Sunday School, and co-operating with the pastor in whatever way opened to him. This church felt the value of his life, and it was a sense of a great loss that they received the news of his death.

Miss Betty Jones, his daughter, a Deaconess of our church, kindly resigned her work to care for her father in his closing years. Her task was faithfully performed; she must have heard the Master say "Well done."

West Virginia Methodism is the monument to our dear brother, and by it his life becomes immortal.

JAMES E. SCOTT.

WALTER SINCLAIR

Walter Sinclair was born in Preston Co., W. Va., June 11th, 1873, died in West Milford, W. Va., February 23rd, 1920. In young manhood he was converted and united with the United Brethren church and later entered the ministry in that church serving four years as pastor of Evansville Circuit—his home charge. He then became pastor of the United Brethren church in Weston, W. Va., where he had a most successful pastorate of two years at the close of which he decided to enter the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church. His first charge with us was Jarvisville circuit where his success was marked from the beginning. At the end of his second year he was transferred to the West Milford charge, where he died in the midst of his sixth and most successful year of his pastorate.

the Master's presence.

Walter Sinclair had but a brief ministry of fourteen years, but they were years of fruitful service and he has not gone empty handed into

As a preacher he was strong, tender, inspirational, always moving his hearers toward the higher walks of life.

As a pastor he was diligent, wise, tactful and kind-always held in highest esteem by the people whom he served.

As a husband and father he was thoughtful, gentle, affectionate and wise, "ruling well his own household."

Walter Sinclair was a brother beloved, and this Conference has sustained a distinct loss in his early home-going.

The funeral service was conducted by his District Superintendent at the West Milford Church, February 25th, 1920.

Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past!
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou are crowned at last.

J. B. WORKMAN.

JANE MILLER McNEMAR

On the evening of April 1, 1920 as the sun was going down beyond the western horizon the death angel entered the home of L. A. McNemar, Pastor of Highland Avenue Church, Fairmont, West Virginia, and removed the faithful companion and devoted mother, leaving the home all dark and gloomy.

She was a daughter of James and Elizabeth Miller of Cass District, Monongahela County, and was a descendent of William Miller of England who came to America in 1646, and settled at North Hampton, Massachusetts, where much of his time was spent fighting the Indians. The deceased was a member of the seventh generation.

She had been in failing health for several years, and for the last three years, she had been a great sufferer, and the last two months her suffering was almost beyond human endurance. While she was anxious to be free from all suffering and depart and be with Christ, yet she frequently said, "I do not want to murmur—God's will be done, and if I can do any good by my suffering I am willing to suffer on."

Her christian experience began early in life, and as she grew older, her faith in Christ grew stronger, and her experience brighter. She loved the house of God and greatly enjoyed all the services, especially the Sunday School, and the old fashioned prayer and class meeting. She was purely unselfish. Her physical strength, mental abilities and spiritual attainments were living sacrifices freely offered for her loved ones, the church, and the glory of God.

For more than 28 years, she shared the joys and sorrows of a ministerial life, and she proved herself indeed a true help-mate, and wherever she went her services were fruitful of much good.

By her gentle manner, sweet disposition, and christian influence, she not only won a host of friends, but was the effectual means in the salvation of many souls.

JOHN J. WHITE

Rev. John J. White was born August 22, 1848, in Kanawha County, Va., and died October 4, 1918, at his home in Loop, W. Va. He enlisted in the Union Army at the age of 14 years, and saw over two years of service in the War, being a member of 13th Regiment, Co. I, holding the rank of Corporal.

In 1865 he was united in marriage with Mary S. Hayes. In the year 1867 he was converted and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was soon licensed as a local preacher and began doing supply work under the direction of the Presiding Elder. In 1886 he was admitted on trial in the West Virginia Conference, and continued in the active work for about twenty years.

The Sunday preceding his death he preached a sermon in his home church.

J. B. FISHER.

MRS. JANE PARRIOTT

Mrs. Jane C. Parriott, widow of Rev. G. W. Parriott, who died Oct. 7, 1883, was born May 23rd 1840 and died May 2, 1920. While yet a child she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. On the charges where she was remembered as the pastor's wife she was held in the highest esteem. Mrs. Parriott was a resident of Moundsville for seven years previous to which she lived at Cameron. To the close of her life she was under all circumstances loyal to her church and the friend of her pastor. Endowed with more than ordinary strength of intellect she manifested great interest in the world program of her church and the great reform movements. During the closing years of her life the influence which she exerted was a heavenly benediction to her city. Mrs. Parriott was the mother of six children, five of whom are living. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor C. G. Stater assisted by the following named ministers: John Beddow, W. E. Pierce, C. E. Leatherby, H. B. Workman.

C. A. STATER.

MARY E. BRYAN

Mrs. Mary E. Bryan, wife of Rev. L. D. Bryan, an honored member of the West Virginia Conference, passed from this earthly life on the morning of January 30, 1920, at her home in Fort Gay, Wayne Co., W. Va.

Mrs. Bryan was a daughter of James and Elizabeth Bartram of Fort Gay. She was born September 11, 1862. Born and reared in a Christian home she publicly confessed Christ as her Saviour when she was eleven years of age, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church.

On November 20, 1882 she was united in marriage to Rev. L. D. Bryan. One son, Bertie A. came to brighten and bless the home for 12 short years, and then crossed the narrow stream to await the coming of the loved ones, when the Master should say "well done."

Mrs. Bryan was a rare and beautiful spirit. The life she constantly lived in the home and the church, where she and her husband served as guides in spiritual things, bore the unmistakable evidence of the abiding presence of her Lord. A living experience begun in childhood had become through the years a part of her very being.

When the husband's health failed and he took the retired relation, they returned to their home town, but not to be idle. The beautiful church at Fort Gay owes its very existence to the untiring energy and christian devotion of Mrs. Bryan. She not only raised funds for the completion of the building, but she gave herself to the Superintending the Sunday School, and the spiritual uplift of the young people of the community.

For several years Mrs. Bryan has been in failing health. Uncomplainingly denying herself of all sweets, strictly following the diet ordered by the family physician. On Monday, January 26, she was stricken with influenza, which was followed within 24 hours by pneumonia. Her already weakened condition made it impossible for her to withstand the severe disease. On Friday morning she passed from the shadows of earth, through the gates of pearl into the land where the Sun has no setting. She is survived by a devoted husband, three brothers and three sisters.

The funeral service was held in the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon, Rev. G. E. Richardson of Huntington, conducting the service assisted by the Rev. Wadsworth, pastor of the church.

The interment was in the family lot in Frashiers Cemetery.

REV. JOHN WRISTON.

MRS. MARCELLUS KNOTTS

Mary Elizabeth Knotts, whose death was announced some time since in the "Advocate," was the daughter of Laundey and Permelia Squires, of Barbour Co., W. Va. November 10, 1870, she was married to the Rev. Marcellus Knotts, to which union six children were born—all of whom survive the mother.

Early in life she made a profession of religion and joined the Methodist Church, and for half a century was true to her profession, during which time she served and ministered not only to her family, but as a pastor's wife to the parish where they were assigned.

She was in her seventieth year, and next fall would have celebrated her golden wedding anniversary. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, a good neighbor, a true Christian.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor and the people of Andrews Church, March 8, at her home on Lincoln street, Grafton, W. Va. Her body was laid to rest in Blue-mont, under the fragrance of the flowers, typical of her motherly and Christian life that bloomed for so many years. The sympathy of the city and the good wishes of the brethren of the West Virginia Conference are extended to Brother Knotts as he sits in the evening of life waiting for the coming of the horseman and the chariot to overtake the companion just a little later.

A. D. CRAIG.

MRS. MARY S. WHITE

Mary S. White, widow of Rev. J. J. White, deceased member of the W. Va. Conference, and daughter of William M. Hays and wife, was born in Kanawha Co., Va. now W. Va., Aug. 7, 1845, and departed this life, October 19, 1919.

She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in early life, and was a consistent member of the same for more than a half century.

She was united in marriage to Rev. J. J. White on August 22, 1865 and was a faithful and loyal wife, patient and devoted mother.

Sister White shared the joys, labors and hardships of the wife of an itinerant Methodist pastor for more than one fourth of a Century, always doing her full share in the work of the Master.

She leaves two brothers, two sisters and at least one son to mourn her going.

She rests from her labors and her works do follow her.

REBECCA WORKMAN

Rebecca Workman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Workman, was born Sept. 7, 1901, and died March 15, 1920. She had been a member of the church since childhood. She seemed to possess a native instinct for things religious. She was active in all young people's work of the church, being at the time of her death one of the instructors in the Junior League. During the pastor's absence attending our last Conference, and no appointed leader being present, she took the initiative and led the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. She was finishing some back subjects in her senior High School year, and was also enrolled as a freshman in Wesleyan College, and looking forward to the larger and richer things of life. Though early called, let us feel that it was an early promotion to that higher school where Christ himself doth rule.

Funeral services were conducted from the home of her parents, and were participated in by Dr. W. B. Fleming, President of West Virginia Wesleyan College; G. D. Smith, her pastor, J. W. Engle, and John O. Bolton. Her body was laid to rest in the Buckhannon Cemetery.

G. D. SMITH.

OFFICIAL MINUTES

Thirteenth Annual Session of the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference Held in First Christian Church at Moundsville, W. Va., September 24th, 1920

OFFICIAL JOURNAL

Moundsville, W. Va., September 24, 1920.

The Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference convened in its Thirteenth Annual Session in the First Christian Church at Moundsville, W. Va., with President Charles W. Evans, presiding.

A brief devotional period was conducted by the president.

The Vice Presidents reported as follows:

S. L. Richards reported verbally, stressing the splendid condition of, and the close co-operation in the Buckhannon District.

Peter Silman reported for the Charleston District as follows: Officers and Brethren: I here submit a summary report for Charleston District for the Conference year just closing:

Total membership first of Conference year.....	6500
New members added during the year, about.....	1500
Number of conversions reported for the year....	1930
Increase in Pastor's salaries, 17 charges.....	$4400

New Churches and other improvements:

Central M. E. Church has just bought a lot adjoining the Church property, on which to erect a suitable building to take care of the young people. Cost of lot, $6000.00. Funds for which have been provided.

Sixth Street Church has built a new $10,000.00 brick parsonage.

Lawrence Church has built a new $10,000.00 brick parsonage, and contracted for a $60,000.00 brick Church, and provided part of the funds.

South Charleston Church is planning to build a $65,000.00 Church.

St. Albans Church has just completed a splendid new parsonage, costing $5,000.00.

Snow Hill Church has built and dedicated a new Church, costing $4,500.00.

Osborne Mills has sold its old parsonage and built a new one.

In addition to the above, a new Church is being planned at Nitro, the late Government Powder Plant, 15 miles below Charleston, on the Kanawha River. New Churches are in contemplation and are needed at other points in the District.

In a material way, our District is closing a fairly prosperous year, but the spiritual interest has not been what we had hoped for. The World War spirit has had a pressing influence on the spiritual condition of our people, which is just the reverse of what we had hoped and expected; even among the fathers and mothers whose sons went into the war and returned home again, there does not seem to be the proper spirit of gratitude and thankfulness that there should be.

John Raine, of Elkins District, was not present but sent the following report:

On Board R. M. S. "Aquitania," August 31, 1920. Officers and Brethren: I am indeed sorry that I cannot be with you on the 24th of the coming month in annual session, but will be detained in Europe until after that date.

I am unable to give you the full details of the various evangelistic campaigns in the District, but will have to refer you to the District Superintendent for these. I am sure these reports will be inspiring and reflect serious activity in this work.

The extent of the District and the travel difficulties have prevented personal visitations of your Vice President and the group meetings that should have been held. Therefore, we have had to depend largely on the personal initiative of pastors and devoted local laymen.

We have heard some very cheering reports, and must mention in particular the work of Unification at Roncerverte. Personal acquaintance with some of these brethren in the Southern Church there, and years of discussion with them of this very matter, brings home to me with renewed force, that in the very nature of things this is what was bound to happen. Their purpose to forget denominational differences and to unite with one purpose; that is, the winning of souls and the service, religiously, of the community, has borne fruit in the varied religious activity and in unusual growth, such as both bodies had not theretofore known. It is indeed gratifying that this realization of an ideal, that both Churches have been holding up before them and that has not been consummated in the Churches at large, has been made divinely real within the bounds of the Elkins District. We offer sincere congratulations to our worthy Superintendent, Dr. Ressegger, for the large part he played in this union. It is our prayer and hope that wherever possible this same experiment be carried out in the local Churches until general unification shall be made real.

Our laity have responded quite well in all appeals for financial help in our work and we believe that they too will respond in all other matters that are asked of them, if only they are presented to them in proper manner and with persistence. We confess to some disappointment in our own efforts at organization, but blame the man and the methods more than the brethren in the work. I feel that they are ready for the most advanced methods provided that they are properly approached and led.

It is my hope that a man may be found, and put in the van of leadership in this District, who will command ready and earnest cooperation. This must be a man, too, who will command the full and necessary aid of the Pastors and District Superintendent. Leadership is the crying need. I trust that such a man will be commandeered and to him entrusted the work—work which we all so much desire to see acceptably performed.

It is my hope that our Association may be the means of awakening a livelier interest among laymen as to the varied activities of the Church; of bringing them in larger numbers to the sessions of the Annual Conference, and thereby the better preparing them for active participation not only in its sessions, but in the sessions of the General Conference; where, we are convinced, are needed the most enlightened and trained men.

Again, I express regret that I cannot be with you, and pray that the blessings of God and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit may be upon you and remain with you all.

For the Huntington District, W. P. McAboy reported as follows: This conference has never expected very much from the Huntington District, but I am glad to report that our District is coming to the front under the leadership of our District Superintendent.

While we have a few good Churches, we have a great many very poor appointments.

We subscribed our allotment to the Centenary and we are paying it, and so far as we are concerned, we are holding our Centenary Organization together and are ready for anything the Church has to do.

Huntington District has 44 charges, four of which have been coupled with others this year.

Revivals have been held in practically every Church with about two thousand conversions reported and about one thousand accessions.

Three new parsonages have been secured this year. One at Branchland; large double lot and seven room house, worth about $2,000 to $2,500. This is a new charge in a small town with no other Church—a promising field among fine people. One thousand dollars from the Centenary made this purchase possible.

One at Dry Creek. The old parsonage was sold and a nice seven room house, with all necessary out buildings, a fine orchard of 150 to 200 trees ready to bear, a fine garden, and about four acres of meadow—seventeen acres altogether. A fine place for a farmer preacher in the midst of a fine community and a rapidly developing coal field. The property is well worth $3,500. One thousand dollars from the Centenary helped to secure this.

One at Leon, where we have had a charge for many years, but no place for the preacher to live. A nice five room house, with small lot has been secured, worth about $1,000 to $1,200. $300 only is expected from the Centenary.

Three new Churches have been under way this year. The one at Jefferson Avenue, Huntington, will be ready for dedication immediately after Conference. A fine, well equipped Church, with all modern requirements, which provides for an important part of this fast growing city.

The Church at Highlawn it is hoped will be finished before cold weather. Work has been very much hindered by adverse conditions, but everything is now hopeful and work again will soon be begun. Without Centenary help these would not have been possible.

A new Church has been built on Ashford charge. The building was begun and completed this year and is ready for dedication.

A new Church will be begun at Kenova in the early part of the new Conference year.

The revival spirit and new interest in Sunday School work permeates the District.

An increase of 101% in Ministerial Support and 324% in Benevolences marks the work of the District for the past four years. A very much more proportionate increase is expected this year when the reports are all in.

John R. Cole reported verbally for the Morgantown District and pointed out that conditions during the past year were the best in history of the District.

E. M. McKown, of Parkersburg District, was unable to be present and no report was received.

J. M. Scott reported as follows for the Wheeling District:

Mr. President and Brethren. Fearing that circumstances uncontrollable may keep me from being present on Friday to make my report and be with you in person, I am mailing it.

The past year's work, so far as I am personally concerned, has been very disappointing because I have not been permitted to visit the District men as often as I would like, and of necessity, have had to use the mail to reach part of my District. As you know, with about 1,200 miles of B. & O. railroad to look after, I am out of the Wheeling District most of the time. I have, however, in the Prayer Meetings and Church services in the towns I happen to be in, extending from Richwood to Wheeling, Huntington to Grafton, and Charleston to Elkins, during the year, brought to our Laymen the message of service.

Early in the Conference year, after discussing the situation with Superintendent Anderson, Dr. Allen, of Fourth Street Church, Wheeling and Mr. W. L. Miller, President of the Minute Men, Wheeling District, we decided to use one organization all of whom were laymen, under the direction of Mr. Miller, and Gospel Teams were asked for. About forty men enlisted and these men have been available as teams or individuals for service and have been used by the several Churches often, at times to take over an entire service, at others to assist, and I am sure great good has come to the Laymen so used and to the Churches using their services. Special attention has been given to Prayer Service and Bible Class attendance and with fine results. Early in 1920, the one million soul campaign was put on and our Laymen have shown themselves real workers in the vineyard.

I suggest for the coming year that in West Virginia the Laymen specialize on three things—

First—Get the men of the Church into the Bible Class and their friends who do not attend any Bible Class into the same Bible Class.

Second—Go to Prayer Service and take someone with us.

Third—See that our own children are in Sunday School and Church and get other children who are not attending any Sunday School into our Sunday School and our Church.

I am an officer in two associations—this year that I really am proud to be connected with—the Laymen's Association and the Ohio County Sunday School Association, but in justice to both Associations, and for one reason only, namely, I am away from home so much, I must ask for the good of the cause at this time, that a new man be named for Vice President of the Wheeling District, and that man may be sure that I will do all I can to help during the coming year.

S. L. Richards spoke of the Victory Fund for Wesleyan College. He reminded the Association that the whole State was indebted to those who put forth such vigorous efforts to make this Fund possible. He especially referred to the untiring efforts of Dr. Fleming. This matter was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

On motion the President was authorized to appoint a Committee on Resolutions and a Committee on Nominations, each Committee to consist of one layman from each District. The following laymen were chosen to serve on these two Committees:

Committee on Resolutions—P. J. Berry, S. A. Carney, S. N. Miller, G. H. Trainor, Prof. Joseph Rosier, G. N. Day, E. C. Burkham and S. L. Richards.

Committee on Nominations—Alf. Walker, Peter Silman, W. J. Wiseman, W. H. Newcomb, Dr. F. B. Trotter, H. W. Smith and G. B. Games.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 o'clock

The President called meeting to order and introduced Miss Helen Smith, who sang a selection in a most pleasing manner.

The Relation of City Churches to Near-By Rural Churches, was the subject next for consideration. Prof. S. S. Jacobs, Superintendent Triadelphia Schools, Wheeling, and Prof. Joseph Rosier, President Fairmont State Normal School spoke on this subject in a most enlightening way from the City Church standpoint.

John W. Travis, of Moundsville, spoke in a forceful manner from the Near-By Rural Church view.

The discussion most certainly challenged us to a closer co-operation of City and Near-By Rural Churches.

Hon. Samuel V. Woods, of Philippi, gave a fine inspiring address on "The Call to the Ministry—A Modern Interpretation."

Dr. Appleton Bash brought to the Conference some interesting facts concerning the Centenary.

EVENING SESSION

7:30 o'clock

Owing to a great number of the Laymen attending the evening session of the Annual Conference instead of being present at the Laymen's meeting, a discussion arose as to whether or not it would be possible to arrange for sessions of both Conferences so that there would be no conflict. This resulted in the following motion: That the President of the Laymen's Association be instructed to arrange, if possible, with the Annual Conference for the one evening, or for a joint meeting, in future conferences. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Nominations was read by the Secretary, as follows:

For President—Charles W. Evans, Fairmont.

For Secretary-Treasurer—J. H. Bowen, Gassaway.

Buckhannon District—S. L. Richards, Weston.

Charleston District—S. A. Carney, Charleston.

Elkins District, John Raine, Rainelle.

Huntington District—W. P. McAbey, Huntington.

Morgantown District—John R. Cole, Grafton.

Parkersburg District—Charles Scholl, Spencer.

Wheeling District—J. M. Scott, Wheeling.

On motion the report was received and the nominees declared elected.

Mr. Evans spoke briefly on his acceptance of the Presidency.

Judge C. W. Lynch commented on the interesting program for the day's sessions, and stated that it touched upon vital questions not only to the laity but to the ministry. He thought that the success of the present year a recompense for the efforts put forth.

Judge C. W. Lynch, Dr. F. B. Trotter and Dr. Wallace D. Fleming brought interesting messages from the General Conference and presented some interesting facts in connection with some of the legislation that were enlightening and profitable to every layman present.

Owing to the fact that the report of the Committee on Resolutions seemed somewhat incomplete, and because it was not possible to refer it back to the Committee, it was moved and carried that it be laid on the table until the next Annual Session.

A special report from the Committee on Resolutions on the Victory Fund Campaign of the West Virginia Wesleyan College was read as follows:

Until West Virginia Wesleyan began to offer work of full college grade, large numbers of young people from our Methodist homes were seeking their college education in schools outside of our State, and many of these young people never returned to us. In this way, West Virginia Methodism was losing a large proportion of her finest young manhood and womanhood.

The development of the high schools of our State relieved our college of the necessity of caring for the secondary education of her young people, but greatly increased the demand for standard college work.

The high grade college work required make it necessary to employ a largely increased teaching staff, and a teaching staff of highly trained experts. These facts necessitated the building up of a large endowment.

The Half Million Campaign which reached success on June 6, 1917, was the first great step to meet this need.

Last year, we again pledged co-operation with the trustees in the Victory Fund Campaign. With gratitude to God, we now record the success of that campaign.

This morning the Annual Conference adopted a plan which will appear in the Conference Minutes in President Fleming's report. It provides that when the last payment on the Half Million Fund shall have fallen due in October of 1921, the Half Million Fund subscribers shall be asked to continue their annual contributions to the College. We approve the plan and pledge our hearty co-operation.

We believe that the College ought to lay out a plan looking forward for a period of years. We, therefore, urge the trustees to be ready after the pledges of the Half Million and the Victory Million have fallen due, to undertake the raising of at least a million dollars additional in order to provide the new buildings which we believe will be imperatively needed within the next ten years.

On motion this special report from Committee on Resolutions was adopted.

It was moved and carried that we extend a vote of thanks to the First Christian Church for the use of their Church for the Conference Sessions during the day.

Motion that we express our appreciation to the delegates from the General Conference for their courtesy and their helpful reports to the Laymen's Association. Carried.

The Secretary-Treasurer submitted the following report:

GREETINGS FROM DR. WILDING

Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, of the Newark Conference, read the following greeting from Dr. George C. Wilding, a former member of the West Virginia Conference:

To The Members of the West Virginia Conference:

My dear brothers:—As this session of your Conference draws near, I have longed with a great longing to be with you. But this is not to be. I can simply think of you, and pray for you, at this distance in my Jersey home.

It will be fifty years next Spring since I went to my first circuit in your Conference. That circuit up in the mountains of Nicholas county! My, Oh me! What a year I had up there among those good, big hearted people. How they helped me over the hard places. And what a preparation and equipment I had for preaching! Of theology I knew absolutely nothing—fortunately. I had but four little, slender, feeble sermon sketches—that somebody called "dried tongue." A very fitting title. I had not even learned to ride a horse. Think of a circuit rider who knew little more about a horse than he did about a giraffe. He had seen both. That was all. That ride up the Kanawha river, a day with a former pastor, Rev. D. H. K. Dix in Charleston, a visit with "Wes" Atkinson, our first acquaintance, that boat ride up to the Falls of the Kanawha—how vividly it all comes to me today after all these years have rolled away. From the Falls of the Kanawha, I walked beside Mike Rader, who was driving his team, hitched to a heavily loaded wagon, up into the heart of my circuit, some thirty miles away. What a romantic walk that was. That year in the mountains of West Virginia was the green, flower-clad spot of my life.

At my first Conference session, held in the little town of Guyandotte, almost a half century ago, I was deeply impressed with one incident that occurred. One of the heroes of the Conference, who had been a major in the United States Army, had passed over and up to his coronation during the time of the Conference session. His triumphant dying message to the Conference produced a thrill among those devoted men: "Saved by the omnipotence of grace!" Edgar B. Blundon. By a peculiar coincidence, it comes to pass that my old friend, Rev. Dr. Winfield C. Snodgrass, who is at this time visiting your Conference, is a guest in the home of the daughter of that sainted man, now Mrs. William Burdette Matthews. And Dr. Snodgrass was junior preacher under Brother Blundon.

What a wonderful thing to a boy preacher is his first Conference session. I have often wished that I could feel in Conference now as I did then. What a feeling of awe came over me as I drank it all in. And how closely I listened to those great men of that day—many of them I had never seen before. There were John L. Irwin, T. H. Monroe, Moses Titchenel, James L. Clark, Gideon Martin, Alexander Martin, D. H. K. Dix, Spencer King, Franklin Ball, J. W. W. Bolton, and a host of others. What heroes they seemed to me. How I revered them all. And there was my first real live Bishop! And I was actually allowed to look at him! And to hear him! It was Bishop Andrews, who had just been elected a few months before. He was comparatively a young man, and very attractive and winsome. I went home from that session of Conference feeling that if we all pulled together, the World ought to be converted that year!

It was a real joy to me that I was permitted to collect from the Pumphrey estate the sum of $1825 for the beginning of the pension fund for our veterans, while I was the pastor of Point Pleasant Circuit.

At the 1875 session of the Conference I was roughly shocked at the feverishness of some of the brothers to be elected delegates to the General Conference. It was such a contrast to that first session of Conference. It was my first sight of Conference politics. I wonder if it has grown much among you since that time. But how we come to change our views—or back-slide, which is it? A few years later I was quite pleased, and felt highly honored to be chosen as one of your delegates to the General Conference of 1884. And what a school was that Conference to me. And I was a very apt pupil.

I was greatly frightened when I was assigned to my first city station, old "North street," Wheeling. And my promotion to the Presiding Eldership was a red letter day in my humble ministry. My sense of responsibility oppressed and appalled me. And yet the work was a rare joy to me. I rejoice that I had a part in starting Mountain Lake Park and your splendid Wesleyan College. Two big things. At the request of our Bishops, Bishop Hartzell is writing a history of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southern States from the Division of the Church in 1884 to the close of the Civil War in the Sixties. I have just completed the chapter on our West Virginia Methodism for this book.

What a great Conference you have grown to be! More than 90,000 church members and 300 preachers. What superb churches you are building. I am very proud of you. I have wandered a good deal, in Illinois, Pacific Coast and Jersey, but I often think of you. My heart is with you. Were I to sit by the side of Bishop McConnell today and look out upon the Conference, I would recognize but few faces. 140 of your preachers have gone up to receive their crowns since I went up to my mountain circuit in the Spring of 1872. As I close my eyes I see the faces of many of them. May God abundantly bless you all.

Your brother,

George Cleaton Wilding.

This year the attempt is to be renewed. The tentative date is the latter part of July and a good appropriation for expenses has been secured from the Commission on Course of Study. Therefore Be It Resolved:

1. The West Virginia Conference most heartily endorses the plan and urges all of the conference students to attend. We also wish to express to the Pittsburgh and Baltimore Conferences our earnest wish that they will unite with us in this school.

2. In order to secure the attendance of the members of the Classes of the Four Years at this school the Conference hereby orders that they shall not receive mid-year examinations elsewhere, except as hereafter provided.

3. Because of the importance of the School for Rural Pastors, which is usually held at Buckhannon, the privilege of mid-year examinations is given to the regularly enrolled students of that school, but not to mere visitors.

4. Examinations for local preachers and for candidates for admission on trial may be held at convenient times and places.

On motion of S. P. Crummett the journal was made the official record of the Conference.

EXAMINERS APPOINTED—On motion of F. S. Townsend the Bishop appointed C. G. Stater, W. E. Lowther, S. P. Crummett and J. W. Dawson on the Board of Examiners.

TRANSFERS ANNOUNCED—The Bishop announced the transfer of W. C. Hartinger from the West Virginia Conference to the Ohio Conference, and C. R. Havighurst from the Ohio to the West Virginia Conference.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED—The Secretary read the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted by a rising vote:

Your Committee on Resolutions beg to submit the following report:

RESOLVED, That we express our gratitude to Bishop McConnell, who has so ably presided over the sessions of our Conference—for his faithful and wise administration; for his extraordinary sermon on Sunday morning, and his equally excellent morning addresses. We express our appreciation likewise of his faithful oversight and manifest interest in the demands our Conference necessarily lays upon him throughout the intervening months during his residence in our area.

RESOLVED, That we express our appreciation of the visit to our conference of the Reverend W. C. Snodgrass and his helpful memorial address in honor of our dead; likewise of the reading of the fraternal letter he bore of the Reverend George C. Wilding. We appreciate the fraternal spirit of these two former members of our body, and invoke the blessings of the Giver of every perfect gift upon them in their years of retirement in the Newark Conference.

That we express our deep gratitude to the Methodist pastors of this city for their untiring effort and complete success in providing for our convenience and comfort and may the lion's share be given to the Rev. Dr. W. C. Hartinger, our host, for his continuous courtesies.

That we declare our appreciation to the good people who have opened their homes and purses to provide for our entertainment.

That we assure the other denominations of our thanks for the use of their churches and all other courtesies extended to us while in their midst.

That we thank the Citizens National Bank and the other banks, railroads, newspapers and all others who have contributed to our comfort.

That we recognize with gratitude the secretaries, treasurer, statistician, board of stewards, board of examiners, and all committees for their unrequited toil.

Respectfully submitted,

H. D. CLARK,
R. O. PHILLIPS,
H. C. HOWARD.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION—The report of the Committee on Home Missions and Church Extension was read by D. L. Ash and on motion it was adopted. (See report.)

XI. Committee Reports

Commission On Conservation and Advance

The Macedonian cry still rings across a hungry needy world. Methodism stands face to face with a tremendous task. In fields occupied by our church the opportunity is unprecedented. The non-Christian peoples are throwing down their idols and are crying for the light. They are thronging about the workers yonder, asking for a place in the Christian church. This great fact is being given to us by those who have tarried in the presence of these great needs and then have come to us with their burning message. We have read it in the Advocates. The stereopticon has permitted us to see it. What is Methodism going to do about it?

We began the task of meeting our responsibility in a most daring and courageous manner. The church did a thing that caused the world to look on with wonder and amazement. Our great church heard the clarion call of her leaders and moved like a mighty army to a glorious achievement. Nothing like it has ever happened in the history of the Christian Church.

With this great task before us, what is Methodism going to do about it? Shall we move to the task in a half-hearted manner? Shall our accomplishments for Christ and the church fall below our vows and pledges? We are told that the church paid last year seventy-two per cent of pledges made. The spring Conferences of this year showed a deficit of three hundred thousand dollars and over. Twelve fall Conferences show a twenty-five per cent deficit over last year.

What does this mean? If this is not corrected, it means that many a worthy project will have to be abandoned. It means that buildings under construction will have to be set aside. It means that certain fields will have to do without the gospel story as told by the Missionary of the Cross. Methodism has set her hands to the plow of a world-wide endeavor and must not turn back. She must not travel in a narrow circle. She must wing her way to the needs of a staggering, stumbling, sinning world. And we believe that the church will not be recreant to her trust.

In view of the call that comes to the churches, and in view of the deficits that stare us in the face, your commission on conservation and advance wishes to present some suggestions to you, and through you to the church relative to our tasks:

1. We urge that ministers of this Conference go back to their charges and wherever there are unpaid pledges, secure the payment of these, if possible by the first of November. It is necessary that this be done because of the deficits named above and the unfinished tasks before the church.
2. We urge that there be a reorganization of the work along the lines of the unit system where this system has broken down.

3. We suggest that every pastor put on at some time during the year a campaign of stewardship, giving emphasis to the stewardship of possessions. Let each pastor strive for a greater company in his church who recognize the ownership of God. We think it very important that the preachers return to the old custom of preaching on the benevolences of the church, from which custom we have to a very great extent departed.

4. As members of your commission, we feel that there is a very great need of a trained membership. We suggest that the preachers of this Conference, for the coming year, shall give special emphasis to this training in order that we have more intelligent Methodists and Christians. We recommend that each pastor shall arrange for church training nights, at which times the different organizations of the church shall meet for consultation and instruction.

5. We urge upon our ministers the acceptance of the proposition of our alert and efficient Area Secretary, Dr. Appleton Bash, that he furnish periodically to the members of the Conference an incident, a story, an achievement, which, when used as an illustration in sermon, will bring to the people the splendid work done by the Centenary.

6. We would call to your attention the national Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be held in Detroit November 15-17. Call upon your people to pray for this great gathering.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. BUCKLEY

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

General Board

We rejoice in the unprecedented progress of the work of our General Board of Education. Reports show that during the Quadrennium ending 1920 the Children's Day Offering increased from $84,660 to $148,611, the Centenary Guarantee has raised the Public Educational collection to $750,000.00. Student loans returned have increased from $60,570 to $149,396.

The need for loans to young people is increasing rapidly owing to the growing numbers of students and the multiplied demands of Life Service Recruits. Therefore we urge all our ministers to do everything possible to increase the offerings for the Children's Fund.

We pledge our loyalty to the Board and our hearty cooperation in all its work.

Theological Institutions

We commend to students preparing to enter the ministry of our church, the theological schools of Methodism such as Garrett's Biblical Institute, Drew Theological Seminary and Boston University School of Theology. We are pleased to note that at the present time over a dozen of the student preachers of this conference are in one or other of these schools.

Wesleyan College

The influence of Wesleyan College is extending in ever widening circles. The attendance is larger than ever before at so early a period in the year. Twelve states and several foreign countries are represented in the student body, China and Japan included in the number. Alumni are going "to the needs of the earth." Miss Dona B. Dorsey goes to Japan and Professor Andrews and bride to Kora, while Miss Georgia Westfall is under appointment to go to India next month.

The college is ready to launch the Continuation Canvass authorized by the Conference a year ago. The last payment on the Half Million Dollar Fund subscriptions fell due on the first day of the present October. The five thousand givers to that fund will be asked to continue their annual gifts for the three remaining years of the Victory Fund. The canvas can be completed before the approaching Christmas if we ministers give hearty cooperation. The result will be $150,00 added to the resources of the college.

We pledge to President Fleming and the Board of Trustees our enthusiastic cooperation in this canvas.

We recommend as trustees of West Virginia College:

For four years—Rev. J. B. Workman, Rev. Roy McCluskey, James M. Scott, James D. Parriott, Olandus West, Andrew S. Thomas, P. J. Berry, John Raine, Judge C. W. Lynch and H. Roy Waugh.

For three years—Luther C. Anderson in place of W. W. Hughes, deceased.

As Visitors to the College—John Beddow, Arthur Lazenby, George W. Bowers and Herbert L. Smith.

Nominations for Conference Board of Education:

Three Years—W. B. King, Denver C. Pickens, C. E. Goodwin, U. G. Young, J. S. Withers and Harvey W. Harmer.

One Year—C. H. King in place of E. A. Lowther, removed.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. ENGLE, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

We are just closing one of the most interesting sessions of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We have met to deliberate concerning the work of God in our beloved Mountain State. In a large way we have felt the responsibility upon us. We trust our thought has been directed by the Master of Assemblies.

The Church of today is facing issues inferior to that of no preceding time. We recognize the turbulent condition of the world about us, and that it can only be stilled by Him who commands earth and sea. We are deeply conscious that it is His custom to call to His service and direction men consecrated to this work.

The light of Revelation has shone for twenty centuries, yet we confess that there still remains much darkness in the world. Nations and men continue to look upon each other with suspicion. Selfishness continues to exist in an appalling way. War has left us its fruitage of crime and the standard of morality has been lowered to a degree that is no less than alarming. It is the duty of the Church of Christ to gather up the fragments that remain and weave them into a mantle of protection for future generations.

We are in the midst of a hungry world, yet there is plenty to feed it, if only the supply can be put within reach of the outstretched hand.

Be it said of our own denomination that we have lead in response to the call of need. Our work is not finished, but only begun. The only physician for the malady of the world is the "Great Physician," and the only remedy for its ills is the teaching of our Blessed Lord. Were the Golden Rule adopted and practiced, peace and good will and prosperity would everywhere prevail.

One if not the most urgent call, of the day is for more laborers into the vineyard of the Lord. Methodism in her infancy, did not lack for preachers. In fact, all Methodists were preachers. If they were not ecclesiastically authorized, they preached without such authority for they were moved by the Holy Ghost, and their religion was a force within them, and they were impelled to become Fishers of Men. The preacher is a soul with a message. God calls men to The Christian ministry, but in so many instances men are too distant from God, or the confusion of the world has so deadened the sound of His voice that it is not heard.

Why should we wail and lament over what we know to exist, if we cannot find a remedy and adopt a course that will lead us to future victory. Let us call back, and re-establish the family altar. Let our shibboleth be an altar in every home, regular prayer meetings around every fireside.

Let us appeal to the heroism of our youth. The call of the Church, if properly emphasized, will appeal to the young manhood of America with a force surpassing that of the alarm of war. Let the voice of the Church urge a systematic study of the Word of God, that our people may have an intelligent conviction of God and the fundamentals of our faith. Let us emphasize the real essentials of Christianity, and thus fortify against the various cults and modern methods that have been introduced to satisfy the yearnings of the soul, but when embraced give no permanent peace. Persons, ignorant of the word of God become the easy victims for the religious specialists who parade under the guise of religious leadership. They employ disconnected sentences from the Word of God, and impose them upon the public as the foundation of religious ethics.

God's early call to Methodism was to spread the doctrine of holiness over the world. Methodism has a place that is peculiarly its own. We believe that we are sufficiently doctrinal to maintain the real essentials of Christianity but broad enough to welcome to our fellowship every person who is in real touch and fellowship with the Christ.

Since God has elevated us to our prominence among Protestant denominations, may we not be faithless to our task, but devote ourselves with a consecration that will win the world for our Christ.

JOHN BEDDOW, Chairman.
R. O. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

In view of the evident opinion among some of our preachers and people that the Centenary Movement is a great success and that therefore little more need be done, your Committee on Foreign Missions would urge upon pastors frequent sermons on missions, thus keeping the emphasis before the church.

We stress also the important need of instructing the children and youths on the missionary enterprise. This may be accomplished easily by reason of the unparalleled romance and heroism incident to missionary experience. Over this avenue the hearts of most children and youth may be approached.

We desire to emphasize Stewardship as the only adequate and permanent basis for the raising of money and that development of the spiritual life of which the giving of money is a natural expression.

CLARENCE E. ALLEN, Chairman.
JAMES R. BASKET, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE

Your committee on Epworth League submits the following report:

We ask first of all for your confirmation of the Conference Epworth League officers duly elected at the meeting of the League representatives during the session of the Institute at Buckhannon, August 8th to 15th, 1921:

President—J. Elbert Wells.
First Vice President—Roy McCuskey.
Second Vice President—Ralph C. Brown.
Third Vice President—Don O. Blagg.
Fourth Vice President—Denver C. Pickens.
Secretary—Miss Leah Ross.
Treasurer—Thomas W. Haught.
Junior Superintendent—Mrs. Anna Lewis Fitch.

We also desire your confirmation of Claude E. Goodwin as Dean, Denver C. Pickens as Manager, and Mrs. Denver C. Pickens as Dean of Women of the West Virginia Conference Epworth League Institute for 1922.

We rejoice in the growing interest in, and influence of the Epworth League Institute. The Institute of 1921, August 8th to the 15th, was the 5th of this Conference and had 406 persons in attendance, with 65 registered decisions for Life Service. We urge the pastors of the Conference to give the Institute their attention and support and to remind their young people of the 1922 Institute which will be held at Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, W. Va., the second week in August, immediately following the close of the summer school.

We express to the West Virginia Wesleyan College authorities our appreciation for the use of the buildings and grounds and the many courtesies extended to the management and students during the Institute, also to the pastors, Dr. Smith and members of the First Church, Buckhannon, for the use of the church for certain services, the use of the communion set for our communion service, for the loan of chairs, and many other kindnesses shown, and to the Buckhannon Chapter of the Epworth League for the royal welcome given to the delegates who were at Institute from other chapters, for the splendid reception program under their management on Monday night, and for innumerable acts of service. Congratulations are due to the Central Church, Charleston, in securing through its delegation to the Institute the banner for the highest number of points in the contest, and to the Morgantown District Epworth League in securing the banner for the highest number of points in all the Districts of the Conference.

We express our appreciation of the work of the Pittsburgh Area Epworth League, especially in the organization of several new chapters and the enrollment of a large number of the Leaguers in the "24-Hour-Day" plan throughout the Area. We further endorse the Pittsburgh Area Epworth League program as worked out by the Area organization in conjunction with the Central Office of the Epworth League and pledge ourselves to its support.

We recommend to all our Leaguers the adoption of the "24-Hour-Day League" plan for the finances of the local chapters and Area and general work. We suggest to the pastors that they investigate the merits of the plan and give it their hearty support.

We express our appreciation of the efficiency of the conference District Epworth League organizations, six of the seven districts being organized, with the hope that the other district may be organized in the immediate future. We suggest the holding of district rallies and sub-district meetings to stimulate interest and enthusiasm in the work of the Epworth League.

We express our loyalty to the Central Office of the Epworth League and to Dr. Charles E. Guthrie, the General Secretary.

We appreciate the presence of Chaplain Francis M. McCoy, Assistant to the Chief of Chaplains of the United States Army, and his very helpful and inspiring address at the anniversary of the Epworth League Sunday evening of Conference week.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL C. JONES, Chairman.

WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMITTEE

Whereas, the facilities of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Morgantown are inadequate to meet the present and future need and opportunity of ministering to the social and spiritual requirements of our Methodist students attending the West Virginia State University, therefore be it resolved:

That we, the members of the West Virginia M. E. Conference, do hereby endorse the work of the Methodist University Pastor, and the project of establishing a Wesley Foundation, which shall have for its supreme motive the conservation of our Methodist resources in the life and service of our Methodist sons and daughters.

J. T. KEENAN,
C. H. KING,
C. E. ALLEN,
D. C. PICKENS,

Committee.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

We have waged a long, hard battle against the forces of intemperance. We thank God that we have lived to see the day of victory, when the liquor traffic stands convicted by every tribunal and is now an outlaw in the land. Nevertheless, "eternal vigilance" is still "the price of liberty." The weapons of our warfare must not in the day of victory be dropped from our hands. The liquor interests are alert and active. We, therefore, emphasize the imperative necessity for renewed activity and constant vigilance on the part of the friends of the prohibition in State and Nation in order to resist the efforts of the liquor interests to defeat prohibition either through the repeal of the prohibition laws, or through their nullification by lax enforcement.

It seems providential that the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of our Church has its headquarters at the Nation's Capital, and that it has been able to secure at so nominal a figure the magnificent building site fronting the doors of the Capitol, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there has been no purchase of property of such a strategic character and so full of hope and promise for the Church as the purchase of by odds the most fortunate purchase ever made between the two oceans." The contemplated building on these lots will make our Church visible and multiply its power at this world's enter. We concur with the Board of Bishops in their resolution endorsing the building enterprise and urge the largest liberality towards this purpose until the funds required are fully reached.

In cooperation with the Board of Foreign Missions and our Bishops stationed abroad, the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals is accepting the greater part of the burden of carrying the gospel of freedom from alcohol and drugs to foreign lands. Enormous quantities of literature have been circulated throughout Europe. The foreign press is carefully watched and false statements are corrected. The Board's work in France is already of large proportions. From Switzerland, as a center, an international effort is being financed by the Board which, in a very short time, will be larger than all the other temperance work being done in Europe. A representative is being placed in Central Europe and in India. Another man is being financed in Mexico. In South America the work, under the local direction of Rev. Paul Barnhart, in charge of the Board's office in Santiago, Chili, has been so phenomenally successful that Chile seems to be on the verge of prohibition. In the near future the work will be extended to China, Italy and the Philippines.

We recognize the power and influence of the motion picture upon the life and thought of the people and we earnestly protest against its use for poisoning the public mind by a fascinating display of crime and licentiousness.

We deplore the efforts of certain lawless and un-Christian elements of our population to break down the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath by unnecessary work or business. We will resist with all the power at our command, the forces that would destroy a fundamental part of our birthright by turning our American Christian Sabbath into a day of business, dissipation and commercialized recreation.

We urge hearty support of legislation which will check the fearful scourge and curse of gambling, which, to an increasing degree, is now afflicting the country.

It has been unquestionably demonstrated by the rigid test of science that the use of tobacco, and especially cigarettes, brings serious injuries to the body, mind and morals of our youth, we pledge ourselves to discourage vigorously this destructive habit and will do our utmost to secure the enactment of laws to suppress its use on the part of minors.

We rejoice in enfranchisement of womanhood whose vote will help make the operation of good government increasingly popular and effective.

1st We express our confidence in the leadership and activities of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals in the work of reform, and pledge our support to it in its ever widening activities.

2nd That we request those in authority to see that those entrusted with the enforcement of the Law—Federal, State and county, to cooperate with each other, in every effort to faithfully enforce the Law.

3rd That we urge every Pastor to keep before his people, their duty as American citizens in supporting the officers in the enforcement of the law and order.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. BEDFORD, Chairman.

W. L. GEARHART, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON RESPECTS

We your Committee on Respects beg to report that the following members of this conference have taken the retired relation:

John H. Howard, A. E. Barnes, C. E. Meredith, C. E. Bissell, W. G. Smith, J. D. Dickey, H. G. Ross, J. M. Grose and Eugene Weaver.

We are glad to report that this honorable relation has been worthily attained by faithful and excellent service for the church. The results of their labors will live and be a blessing to the church long after these brethren have received their transfer to the church triumphant. We extend to them a cordial welcome and invitation to participate in the business of this body as opportunities are presented and as their strength will permit.

We also find that H. A. Coffman and H. M. Willis have been transferred to North East Ohio Conference; G. B. Hammer, Illinois Conference; Glen W. Butcher, California Conference; and while we regret their going we trust that their future field of labor will be greatly blessed by their services.

W. C. Hartinger, D. D., has been transferred to the Ohio Conference and stationed at First Church Columbus. Dr. Hartinger came to us from the Ohio Conference nine years ago. He served four years at Thompson church, Wheeling, and five years at First Church, Charleston. He has done excellent work in this Conference and has had phenomenal success during the five years at First Church, Charleston. While we regret his transfer from our Conference we know that our loss is Ohio's gain.

This change of Conference relations shall not interfere with our fraternal relations, for love and friendship are eternal. Our best wishes and prayers shall go with these brothers.

C. B. GRAHAM, Chairman.
PERRY ROBINSON, Secretary.
H. W. FLANAGAN.

COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

We reaffirm our belief in the Bible as the expressed will of God to His people; that it is the best companion in the homes of the poor, and the best classic for the theologian and the scholar.

We, therefore, rejoice in the rapidly increasing demand for the Bible in all lands, and exult in the thought that the whole world shall some glad day hasten to accept the religion of the Bible.

We urge upon every pastor the importance of organizing Bible-study classes and in every possible way stressing the need of our own people for the study of the Bible.

Inasmuch as we have an increasing number of foreigners from various parts of the world within the borders of our Conference, we recommend that our pastors collaborate with the American Bible Society in giving all these people copies of the Bible in their own language.

We note with pleasure the emphasis that is being placed in the colleges and universities of our land on the study of the Bible.

We heartily commend the work of our pastors who have contributed their efforts in securing Bible-study courses in the High Schools of our State, and recommend that wherever practicable we shall labor to the end that along with the classics of Greece and Rome and Babylon may be placed that classic in which is the grandest poetry, the sublimest heroism, the most beautiful imagery, the deepest pathos, the most awful tragedy, and the word of God.

BERNARD GIBBS, Chairman.
J. S. THORNBURG, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

Since the press of our country is flooding our homes with literature, much of which is unworthy, and since literature plays such a large part in determining the character of people, it is therefore highly important that we use great care in assisting our people to select for their reading only literature of the highest character, and, since our own Methodist Book Concern handles only literature of the highest order, we commend its excellent products to all our people.

Our Pittsburgh Christian Advocate has long held a place as one of the best of church papers. We congratulate the editor, Dr. J. J. Wallace, for his straight thinking and Christian statesmanlike utterances through his editorials in these days of so great unrest and so many "isms."

We also congratulate the general manager, Dr. Daniel Westfall, for his able management of this paper. Every family in our territory should take and read the Advocate.

After carefully examining the "Budget Plan" for the circulation of the "Advocate, and its record for the present year, we heartily endorse and recommend the same for our pastors.

We recommend that the minimum circulation for the Advocate be one subscription for each five members of our charges. We further recommend that a report of our Advocate circulation, by charges, be given in the statistical tables of our Conference Minutes after the fashion of the Pittsburgh Conference, upon information furnished by the Advocate office. We regard this highly important for our information and as a stimulus for increased circulation.

Respectfully submitted,

O. L. HAWKINS,
Secretary.

H. M. RIDDLE,
Chairman.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE

We, your Committee on Parsonage and Furniture beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the increasing number of parsonages and we strongly urge that at least heavy furniture be supplied the parsonage.

We further recommend that the parsonage be so constructed as to provide a suitable pastor's study room.

We urge that as far as possible, the parsonages be supplied with adequate water supply and be equipped with bath and lavatory.

We further recommend that our pastors be urged to look after the up-keep of the parsonages and equipment, that they may be kept in good condition.

In accordance with our Discipline, we urge that where there is no parsonage, that one be provided by the congregation as soon as possible and that such parsonage be well located and that its construction and equipment be in keeping with the other homes of the community.

Faithfully submitted,

A. L. IRELAND,
Secretary.

W. R. ESKEW,
Chairman.

Our remuneration has been $1700.

Hundreds of Christians have been forward for deeper experiences in the Christian life. 200 young people have consecrated themselves for Life Service this year. I have received for my work $3,686.

EDWARD D. FELLERS,

V. A. NANNA,
Evangelist.

We have also examined the report of S. K. Arbuthnot, Secretary of Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund for 1921 and find them correct.

The account of the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards was found correct.

The Missionary accounts of the Districts have been examined and approved.

WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

When the women of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the West Virginia Conference heard of the needs of the work for 1920-21, and realized their goals, they went to work with a grim determination to win. Neither the mud nor the dust deterred them in their work. Some of our secretaries walked for miles in the mud, others trudged through the broiling sun in the dust to carry the message to some of our most rural communities. Mrs. Johnson, Branch secretary; Miss Beck, from India; Miss Baker, from China, the Conference Secretary, the district secretaries and some interested friends traveled more than 9500 miles in interest of the work of the W. F. M. S. In all these miles of travel these women were not only permitted to enjoy nature as God has given it to us, but were permitted to enable many women to get a vision of God as never before. As a result we have made a very substantial gain in magazine subscriptions and membership.

Three of our most difficult districts in which to work have more than doubled their money and members. We are happy to report that our members number almost 8,000. When we took the apportionment this year of $15,000 and we did it with some hesitancy. But realizing the great need, and the promise of Divine help, we went to work with the grim determination to win. How we worked, watched and prayed during the year. How anxiously we listened to hear the results at the end of each quarter. Can you blame us for shouting at the end of the fourth quarter, when we received the grand total of $24,515.62?

We realize our great blessings of the year make our responsibilities for the coming year all the greater. We hope and pray with the help of God to accomplish greater and higher things for the kingdom the coming year.

MRS. C. FRED ANDERSON,

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

With the words of the motto of the Woman's Home Missionary Society to inspire us: "Not by might nor power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of hosts," the work has moved steadily onward in the West Virginia Conference.

After the zeal of pushing the fortieth anniversary goals, the Society is moving with a regular upward movement; and we gladly report twenty-three new organizations, with a total gain in membership of 1,602, making a total membership in the Conference of about 6,200.

The District Meetings are growing in strength and interest. Mrs. E. W. Matthews, National Secretary of Stewardship, again ably assisted in a number of the District meetings.

Our house of love, the Holloway Deaconess Home, continues its work sending out its consecrated workers to Bellaire, Martins Ferry, Wheeling and vicinity.

Our missionaries among the foreign speaking peoples, Misses Emma and Louise Vanek, have successfully carried on the work of the "Mary Kacmar Mission," South Wheeling, and have also a flourishing work in Triadelphia. Miss Ethel Vanek has successfully carried on a mission among the foreign peoples in Fairmont and vicinity and has demonstrated the need of a community house, which shall be made the center of this important work. Miss Bertha Wood made a survey of the possibilities of the foreign work in Clarksburg and vicinity and has developed the imperative need of a community house there from which effective work may be prosecuted.

The Interdenominational School of Missions, Mountain Lake Park, Md., was very instructive and helpful to those who attended. Great things are being planned by this school for next season.

Miss Laura Wincher, supply secretary, reports the largest contributions and gains of any year in the work to be that of the year now closing.

Owing to the serious and protracted illness of her husband, our beloved and faithful treasurer, Mr. J. E. Sivert has been compelled to tender her resignation, and Mrs. Walter Furbee, Mannington, W. Va., has been elected to this office.

The retiring treasurer reports all pledges paid and the total yearly receipts are $18,801.76 a gain of $2726.80 over the year before.

Not only is the Conference Society trying to fulfill its mission in West Virginia but it also seeks to inspire its young people with the spirit of service in other home mission fields. Miss Grace Matheny of Buckhannon is the third member from the West Virginia Society to become a teacher in the Bennett Academy, Matheson, Miss., where she joins Miss Sarah Nay and Miss Zena Gulnac who are starting upon the second year of service in that successful school of the W. H. M. S.

The Women of the W. Va. Society are grateful to the District Superintendents and Pastors for their cooperation in carrying on the important work of their organization.

With thankful hearts to our Heavenly Father, we are entering the coming year's work with new courage, new faith and more earnest and united prayer, realizing our task is greater than ever before but also realizing that all power is promised if we do our Master's will.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. B. NAY, President.

MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Secretary.

XIII. PERMANENT TRUST FUND

Secretary's Report, West Virginia Conference Claimant's Permanent Fund

Dear Bishop and fellow Conference members:

It is by no means strange that an echo of the unrest and confusion which exists in all human relationships at the present time should manifest itself in terms of uncertainty and bewilderment in Church circles and particularly in the realms of Church finance. Since all parts of society contributed their quota to the carrying on of the recent stupendous war in which 40,000,000 combatants were engaged and in which war it is reported that 10,000,000 of the choicest youths paid the supreme sacrifice, now that we come to finish paying the price and engage in the greater task of reconstruction, it likewise follows that all must share in the privations and unsettled conditions which are bound to prevail.

In "gearing down" our pace from "war time" to "peace time" gait even as it affects our Church finance there is a great change. The "big subscription" which in many cases seemed to be made with so much ease and willingness and with every prospect, from the "war standpoint" of paying the pledge when it should fall due now seems "bigger than ever" to the subscriber and many declare they know not from whence the money is to come to pay the "big pledge" their generous hearts prompted them to give in the prosperous days.

While the past year has been devoted almost entirely to making collections yet it has been the privilege of your Secretary to be in several different pulpits and attend the various District Conferences, ever urging united and concentrated effort upon the part of all in gathering in all payments due for the Permanent Fund. I am happy to be able to state that about 75% has been achieved in our collections.

The amount received this year is $24,578.84. This amount is somewhat less than the amount reported a year ago. Undoubtedly two elements at least enter in and point to the reason why of the lesser amount this year. The sluggishness—in some places we might say the stagnation—of business and the constantly increasing distance in time from when the subscriptions were made carry their own suggestion. Keeping this last item mentioned in mind, it should stir us all up to renewed diligence that we see to it that the last payment due the Permanent Fund shall complete the subscription and shall be in full of the pledge given.

Inasmuch as all subscriptions made in favor of the Conference Claimants Permanent Fund are due and payable Jan. 1, 1922, we, as a Conference should take such action as may seem best to conserve and increase the Permanent Fund until the income derived therefrom combined with the sums derived from Conference Collections and other sources shall be sufficient to meet the full Disciplinary quota to which each retired minister is entitled and also pay in full the claims of widows and orphans of deceased ministers. Until, however, sufficient income is available from the Permanent Fund your Secretary strongly recommends that the present standard of assessment, 10% of the pastor's cash salary be continued.

Since last year the funds reached up to such an encouraging amount it is hoped this year may be the glad time for our Claimants and the proud hour for us all when as a Conference we shall "go over the top" for the Retired Ministers of the West Virginia Conference.

It is very certain that to reach and to continue paying the veteran's claim in full it will be very necessary to bring up the Permanent Fund to $600,000.00. The interest at .06% derived from this sum would produce an annual income of $36,000.00. With $5,000.00 or more per annum added from Conference collections and other usual sources the combined sum would be sufficient to meet in full all legitimate claims. But while we have this splendid vision to spur us on we must not forget "a labor of love" we owe to the faithful and devout local preachers who serve, for the most part, upon the difficult, hard circuits. Surely in the not very distant future we shall gladly stretch out a helping hand to the steadfast supply who has toiled year after year with all the zeal and success of the itinerant, where work was heavy and salary "so-called" was light. A grateful church would prove itself to be full of gross ingratitude should it permit these worthy "supplies" who grow grey in her service to come to penury and want in their old age.

In order that the present campaign shall be brought to a successful close your Secretary recommends:

1st. That the District Superintendents shall specifically bring before each First Quarterly Conference the fact that the last payment to the Conference Claimants Permanent Fund is due and all arrearages to that Fund must be paid by January 1st, 1922. The necessity for each church to meet its full obligation and complete an honorable record should be duly emphasized.

2nd. That all ministers of the Conference shall concentrate their energies on behalf of the Permanent Fund from the present time until the close of the calendar year, repeatedly urging with all loving insistence upon their members that all obligations to this worthy cause must be fully met on or before the first of the year.

3rd. That after the work incident to properly recording the receipts coming in the first part of the new year the Secretary shall actively continue the work of collections by correspondence and by personal visitations and make his final report to the next session of the Annual Conference at which time the Campaign shall be officially declared closed and such disposition shall be made of uncollected subscriptions (if any such remain at that time) as the Conference shall deem best to conserve the interests of the Permanent Fund.

In closing may I urge the brethren, particularly the ones who have joined the Conference by transfer after the subscriptions were taken for the Permanent Fund, to unite with us in maintaining the standard set and reached by the ministers of the Conference but now in jeopardy. I refer to the Preachers' $25,000.00 Goal. Several ministers after making their pledges to the $25,000.00 Goal have been transferred. In many cases part payments have been made, but in several instances no payments whatever had been made upon pledges. Of course a transfer works automatically in cancelling the pledge given, so unless the brother coming into the Conference, taking the place of the transferring brother, also assumes his pledge it is inevitable but that there shall be an awkward unfulfilled gap between promise and performance. Since all our records of preachers and people are published in our Book of Minutes each minister can easily ascertain his own state and standing as regards the Permanent Fund.

The following tables show the progress made by each contributing charge of the Conference:

XVI. IN MEMORIAM

GEORGE H. WILLIAMS

The Rev. George H. Williams was born Aug. 19, 1844, in Giles County, Virginia, and died in Sutton, West Va., Jan. 18, 1921. He fought in the Civil War as a Confederate soldier, joining the ranks on his eighteenth birthday, and serving through the remainder of the war. On January 14, 1866 he married Mary Elizabeth Scott, with whom he lived happily for more than fifty years. She entered into rest July 8, 1918. Six children were born to this union, five of whom are living, Fernando D., Charles, Ivra E., Mrs. Sallie Cavendish and Mrs. India Sutton. He began preaching in 1872 and for more than forty-five years was a member of the West Va. Annual Conference. For about thirty-five years he was in the active ranks, and even his period of retirement was full of service, for he not only responded to the calls of his brethren but also found opportunity to preach in many communities where there was no regular pastor.

Rev. Williams was a man of great physical strength, hardly knowing his power. Nor was he niggardly with it, but gave it in a holy abandon to the Master's work. No day was ever inclement enough to make him miss an appointment. He possessed a brilliant intellect.

He was a student of books and a student of life. He was a man among men, mingling freely with them and yet always holding their respect and confidence by his good judgment and sound sense. He had a fine sense of humor—quaint and original—which scintillated in both conversation and sermon. His sermons, while easily understood, were full of sound doctrine and knowledge of the Bible. The flock did not go hungry under the care of this shepherd. He was a man of real courage; no man ever was truer to his convictions; he hated compromise as he hated sin. He was "one who never turned his back but marched breast forward." Yet with all his courage and strength he was a modest and unassuming man, never seeking a place and even shrinking from places to which he had been invited and was well qualified to fill with honor and distinction. When one recalls the virtues needed for the work in pioneer days, he will find these abounding in him who has gone. What an inspiration to the present day pastor is the life of heroes of the faith like Brother Williams, of whom the world was not worthy.

His funeral was conducted in the Sutton church, of which he had been pastor twice, by Dr. J. B. Workman, assisted by Rev. Harvey of the Baptist church and the pastor, and his remains were laid to rest in the Sutton cemetery, beside those of his wife and infant child. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. They rest from their labors and their works follow with them.

R. C. BROWN.

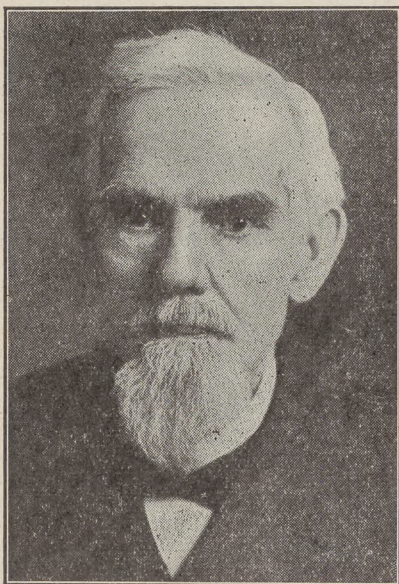

FREDERICK G. W. FORD

At Grafton, in the home of his daughter, on Sunday morning, February 27th, 1921, when the Rev. Frederick George Washington Ford was 88 years and 25 days old, his soul passed in to the beautiful day of eternal sunshine and brightness.

He first saw the light of the natural sun in Hardy County, Virginia, February 3rd, 1833 and with his parents, Frederick and Nancy Williams Ford, moved to the territory of West Virginia in 1839. On April 10th, 1855, he was united in marriage to Jemima Elizabeth Hebb, and to this union were born three sons and two daughters; and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Jacob Yates, of Grafton, West Virginia; and three sons, Reuben H. W., of New Concord, Ohio, James L., of Hamilton, West Virginia, and Captain George M., State Superintendent of Schools of this State. As a volunteer, he spent nearly three years in the Union Army, and served as first and second lieutenant and was promoted to Captain of Company F of the Fifteenth West Virginia Volunteer Infantry. He was in many of the most important battles of the war and was in the final victorious engagement at the Appomattox Court House, April 9, 1865, and what is remarkable, and seemingly almost miraculous, he came out without a single wound.

When twenty years of age, he gave himself to the Lord and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, and on February 28th, 1860, was given license to preach; was ordained local deacon by Bishop Thomson, March 14, 1870; and ordained Elder 1877 by Bishop Ames. He never interviewed a Bishop or worried a presiding elder about his appointment. He meekly received his appointment without a murmur, and never felt afflicted if his work was a hard one, or exalted if he were given a rich field of labor, believing that either was good enough for an angel. After he had faithfully and successfully served ten different charges during a period of thirty-five years, when he was 66 years old he was retired on the account of the health of his companion.

Brother Ford was a man of positive convictions. His firmness and courage for the right knew no bounds. He was bold as a lion and gentle as a lamb, kind and devoted to his family, loyal to his country, and true to his church and God.

After appropriate and impressive funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church by Doctor Archibald Moore, assisted by T. M. Zumbunnen, Clemmer Warman, T. G. Meredith, C. E. Bissell, C. E. Hamrick and D. S. Hammond, his body was laid to rest in the National Cemetery at Grafton.

The Church has lost an honored member, and the Conference a true servant of Jesus Christ, but we are comforted in the assurance that the number and glory of heaven have been increased.

ARCHIBALD MOORE.

CHARLES ELLIOTT HAMRICK

Charles Elliott Hamrick was born July 3, 1875, and died March 15, 1921. His parents, William G. and Elizabeth Hamrick, were of Scotch-Irish descent and gave to their children an inheritance of frugality, sturdy purpose and earnest desire to serve their fellow men.

Having obtained his early education in the public schools of Webster county, West Virginia, he answered the call to the gospel ministry and entered the West Virginia Conference Seminary (now West Virginia Wesleyan College) in the spring of 1899, became a member of the Benjamin F. Martin Class, of which the writer of this tribute was also a member, and was graduated in 1903. In the same year he was received into the West Virginia Conference.

On October 19, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Iva B. Bender, daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Bender, of Chapel, W. Va. Three children came to bless their home—Hayward, Randall and Ruth.

He served the following charges: East Buckhannon Circuit, Buckhannon Circuit, Adamston, Fairview, Williamstown, North Street, Wheeling and Andrews, Grafton. He was sent to Grafton following the Conference of 1920, and though he served this church but 127 days he had captured the hearts of the people. In the midst of successful revival services he was stricken with double pneumonia, and after an illness of but ten days, "was not for God took him."

Funeral services were held at the church, in charge of District Superintendent Archibald Moore, in the presence of a large concourse of people, many of whom were former parishioners. The Reverends O. D. King, C. F. Anderson, C. E. Bissell, C. H. King, W. D. Reed and the writer assisted in the services, the first three making addresses. Interment was at the Bluemont Cemetery, Grafton, where Doctor Moore conducted the full ritual service assisted by nearly thirty ministers.

It would be difficult to pronounce an extravagant eulogy upon this "good minister of Jesus Christ." Quiet, unassuming, studious, thorough, systematic, faithful, loyal, brotherly, lovable, are words that describe him. He was both a pastor-preacher and a pastor-evangelist. All his work throughout both his school and his ministerial life was characterized by painstaking thoroughness. He was a thinker. He did not allow his congregation to hug the shoreline, but led them out into the deeps of God's Word. In him was that unusual combination of great preacher and splendid pastor. With him nothing was slighted. He cared for the affairs of his charge with the systematic thoroughness that the head of a great concern applies to his business. The belief was strong in him that God had called him to lead men to the feet of his Master. He was usually, if not always, his own evangelist and was more than ordinarily successful. He did his work faithfully, but seldom commented upon it. His work seemed always to be a work of love—it afforded him happiness. He loved his family and was anxious to give his children every possible advantage. His presence in the home contributed its full share to the beautiful home life that he and his loved ones enjoyed for more than sixteen years. Second only to the love he bore to his wife and children was his love for his church family. He was, indeed, a religious leader and counselor.

PARIS L. BENT

Paris L. Bent was born near Troy, Gilmer Co., W. Va., July 16, 1857, and died at Weston, Sept. 24, 1921, in his sixty-fifth year. He secured a little more than a common school education having attended the Glenville Normal a few terms. For several years he taught in the public schools of Gilmer county.

The trend of his life was always toward the religious. He was converted and joined the church at the age of sixteen. He united with the West Virginia Conference at Fairmont in 1888, and for thirty-three years preached continuously under the authority of the church. He went willingly to all charges assigned him. His unselfish ministry and spirit of loyalty was of the type that makes our itinerant system possible. He served eleven charges, one of them a second time, as follows:

Sutton Circuit, assistant pastor, two years; Freemansburg, two years; Webster Springs, four years; Buckhannon Circuit, one year; Camden, two years; Frenchton, four years; Glenville, four years; Bridgeport, three years; West Milford, four years; Kinkaide, one year; Beverly, four years; Smithfield, one year, and Webster Springs, where early in the past year his health failed and he was compelled to resign his work.

Brother Bent's work touched all sides of our ministry. He depended on no one phase of the gospel. He was highly evangelistic, was a good shepherd of the flock, a good business administrator of the affairs of his charge. No interest of the church suffered through his neglect. He built and repaired churches, gave strict attention to our church periodicals and benevolences and guarded well the policy and discipline of the church.

Brother Bent was one of the sincerest of men. He was scrupulously honest, not only in his dealings with men, but in his convictions. He was not the best diplomat. He was not graceful in compromise and concessions where he felt that principle and righteousness were at stake. He was positively charged, rather strenuous in his views. He preached a high grade gospel and expected high grade living. His preaching was pungent and heart-searching, laying bare people's sins and inconsistencies.

He was a hard worker. He knew no moderation. If he had he would probably have been with us yet in the active ranks. While pastor at Beverly during the memorable scourge of influenza he gave himself to his people without reserve. He went from house to house among the sick not shunning the contagion, but ministering in every possible way to those who needed him most. He began his last year's ministry by holding special meetings in the mountains of Webster county. He related to the writer, how in his last meeting on the top of a mountain, where no ray of the sun was seen in a whole week, he literally lived in the clouds. This together with his decreased vitality due to a seige of the influenza to which he had so unselfishly exposed himself, overloaded him with gloom from which he could never quite emerge.

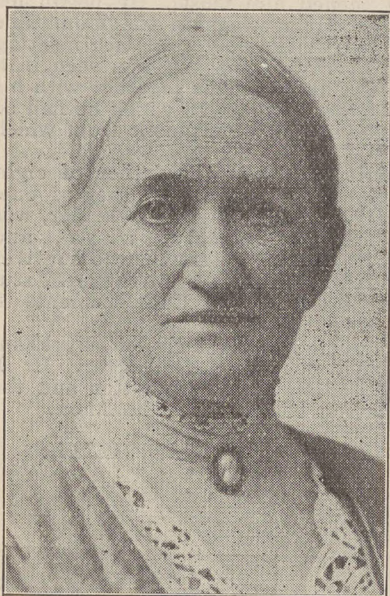

Brother Bent was thrice married and was the father of eight children. His first wife, Victoria Osbern, was the mother of one, Dr. Pearl Bent, of Benton, Wis. His second wife, Mary Bender, was the mother of two, Mrs. Leo Stutzman, of Sherrard, W. Va., and Guy L., of Akron, O. His third wife, Monia Peterson, who survives him, is the mother of five, one dead and Frank and Rudyard, students in West Virginia Wesleyan and Rose and Ruth, students in Buckhannon High School.

The funeral services were conducted in First church, Buckhannon, the following ministers participating: L. E. Ressegger, H. D. Clark, Richard Aspinall, John O. Bolton, T. W. Chidester and the writer. His body rests in the Heavner cemetery, Buckhannon.

SARAH FRANCES BLUNDON

Mrs. Sarah Frances Blundon was born February 4, 1842, in the Blue Creek region of Kanawha county, and was married to Maj. Edgar B. Blundon on September 29, 1863, while he was serving as an officer in the United States Army in the Civil War. Major Blundon was licensed as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church and joined the West Virginia Conference of that denomination. He was stationed at Malden, Middlebourne and Burning Springs, where he died March 6, 1873 in the thirty-seventh year of his age.

Mrs. Blundon then removed to Charleston where she has resided ever since. She has been exceedingly active in women's work for the community good. She was a vice president of the first W. C. T. U. ever organized in Charleston, early became a member of the Good Templars, and was a life long worker in the Methodist Church having served as an officer in a number of the women's organizations of that church. At the time of her death she was an honorary vice president of the Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E. Church, a member of the Blundon Woman's Relief Corps, of the Union Mission Woman's Settlement Association, of the Women's Club, a director of the hospital association and engaged in the activities of other literary and charitable organizations.

Mrs. Blundon was an omnivorous reader, and took the course of reading prescribed by the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Woodson T. Wills, of Edgewood Drive and Mrs. Wm. Burdette Mathews of 1501 Quarrier Street, where she made her home and where she died, December 14, 1920.

A brother, B. L. Young, resides in Huntington. Their father was Capt. John Valley Young, who was a grandson of John Young, one of the pioneers of this valley and one of the first trustees of Charleston.

The obsequies were in charge of Rev. Dr. W. C. Hartinger and were solemnized Thursday December 16, 1920.

MRS. W. H. SHAW

Almira E. Baker was born May 8th, 1832, in Woodsfield, Monroe county, Ohio. She was educated at Marietta, Washington county, Ohio.

Miss Baker was married to Rev. W. H. Shaw on October 6th, 1857. Of this union was born three sons: Alfred R. Shaw, a railway mail clerk, residing in Columbus, Ohio; Revs. Charles E., and George C. Shaw, both of whom are Protestant Episcopal clergymen, in active service at Geneva, Ohio, and Mt. Savage, Maryland, respectively.

Mrs. Shaw fell asleep in Jesus, Monday morning, March 14th, 1921, aged 89 years, five months and six days.

Besides her three sons she is survived by one sister, viz., Mrs. Loretta Knight, now residing in Point Pleasant, West Virginia, a number of grand children and great grand children.

Her husband preceded her to the home of the soul, prepared by the Master for the faithful, several years ago.

Mrs. Shaw had been a member of Trinity M. E. Church for a number of years, and being at the time of her falling asleep, the oldest member.

Her husband was pastor of Trinity Church, 1867-1868, during which time she was his helpmate, and was faithful and diligent as the wife of a pastor, in all places where they were assigned in the Master's work, meeting all the requirements made upon the pastor's wife as far as she was able, by the grace of God.

She was an humble, diligent, consistent Christian, a devoted wife, a good mother, a true church member and a loyal friend.

The writer had been her pastor for the past three years, but during this time Mrs. Shaw had been, because of her infirmities of age, unable to attend church. The writer visiting her in her home, found her ever interested in Trinity, making inquiry as to the progress of the work in general, and the Sunday school and mid-week services in particular. She was much delighted to hear of the prosperity of the church, and the advancement of the work.

Upon a recent visit I found her more profoundly interested in the work of the Master than upon any former visit. There seemed to be more of that rich, ripe, unctuous, religious consciousness of the inner abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, producing that peace of God, and peace with God, that passeth all understanding, reminding one of what Isaiah says: "The work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever."

It occurred to the writer that she had received some premonition of the nearness of the end. There was a calm, serene expression upon her face that the writer had not seen before. During the prayer we offered at that time, her responses and Amens were more frequent and fervent. The occasion was one of great blessing to the writer's soul, giving him the blessed assurance that all is well with Sister Shaw.

A Christian in this world is but gold in the ore; at death the pure gold is melted out and separated, and the dross cast away and consumed.

"So when life's sweet journey ends,
Soul and body part like friends—
No quarrels, no murmurs, no delay;
A kiss, a sigh, and so away."

"Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age, like a shock of corn cometh in his season."

"The course of my long life hath reached at last,
In fragile bark o'er tempestuous sea,
The common harbor, where must redere be
The account of all the actions past."

"There is no prison for the soul
That dwells within God's boundless peace:
And sickness builds no dungeon walls
For one who knoweth sin's surcease;
He soars on tireless pinions high.
And lives beneath the open sky."

"So when the iron portals shut behind us,
And life forgets us in its noise and whirl;
Visions that shunned the glaring noon day find us,
And glimmering starlight shows the gates of pearl."

The day of the death of the aged Christian is better indeed, than the day of their birth, for rich with all treasures of spiritual knowledge and experience—the growth of the whole lifetime of discipline—they come to their last hour like the mellow fruit that gathers into itself all the life of the tree, and all the dew and sunshine of the summer, and at last bends and breaks the branch from which it hangs.

Death to the believer is not like the evening star sinking into darkness, but like the morning star lost in the brightness of day.

IRA F. RICKETT.

MRS. S. J. COTTON

Florence Parks Cotton, daughter of Mrs. Martha J. Parks, was born at Kingwood, W. Va., March 4, 1864, and died in the hospital at Glendale, W. Va., February 26, 1921.

She virtually grew up in the Church, having been converted at ten years of age and uniting with the Methodist Episcopal Church in the town of her nativity. She was active in all departments of the work, being a member of the choir, a teacher in the Sunday school, and an earnest worker in the Epworth League.

She was married to the Rev. S. J. Cotton, of the West Virginia Conference, February 22, 1899, and served with him the following charges: Morgantown District; Terra Alta; Seventh Avenue, Huntington; Wallace; McMechen and Glendale.

Her last illness was of long duration. She was a great sufferer, but very patient. She possessed that triumphant faith at life's close that had been hers through the years. She has entered into the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

She leaves, besides her husband, four sisters and one brother to mourn their loss.

Her body was laid to rest by the side of that of her mother in the family plot in

P. L. FLANAGAN.

MRS. T. W. HAYES.

Icie L. (Ozier) Hayes, wife of the Rev. T. W. Hayes, pastor of Cairo charge, West Virginia Conference, was born June 28, 1887, and departed this life May 18, 1921, following a brief illness. She was married to Brother Hayes, September 16, 1904. To this union six children were born. Thelma, Gladys, Fisher, Hughes and Dale, with the husband survive her. Her life was one of sacrifice and service. She loved her family and through her work of devotion to both family and church she greatly enhanced the success of her husband's ministry. Funeral services were held in the presence of a large congregation in the Cairo church, and were in charge of the writer, assisted by the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and J. W. Idleman, of Petroleum charge. Her remains were taken to her former home, near Clendennin where services were held in the Jordan church, to which she belonged in her earlier life. Interment was in Falling Lock cemetery. A faithful, earnest, loving and devoted wife and mother has slipped away for a time.

H. K. RIFFE.

MRS. C. M. NEFF

Mrs. Mattie Jane Neff, wife of Rev. C. M. Neff, died at her home near Bellepoint, April 3rd, 1921, at 8 o'clock p. m. She had been in declining health for a number of years, but on last Christmas she contracted a severe cold which developed into mastoiditis and other complications. Her condition, however, was gradually improving until early Saturday morning when she took suddenly and fatally worse. If she had lived until the 16th of May, she would have been 78 years of age and the 26th of April would have been her 61st wedding anniversary.

She is survived by her husband, Rev. C. M. Neff, and two daughters, Mrs. Esta Morrison, of Charleston, and Mrs. Emma Williams, of near Bellepoint, and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She was an ideal preacher's wife and an ideal woman. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church in early youth and had always lived a consistent and exemplary Christian life. She was one of the most scrupulous, patient and unselfish of women. She endured suffering with patience and optimism, never murmuring or complaining. She had prayed to God to take her to rest from her suffering and affliction and when God gave the call, she went as tranquilly as a new born babe.

XX. LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION

OFFICIAL MINUTES

Fourteenth Annual Session of the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference, Held in the First Presbyterian Church, at Charleston, W. Va.,
October 7th and 8th, 1921

OFFICIAL JOURNAL

Charleston, W. Va., October 7th, 1921.

The Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference convened in its Fourteenth annual session, in the First Presbyterian Church, at Charleston, W. Va., at 2:15 o'clock p. m., with President Charles W. Evans presidinig.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Clyde O. Law.

Reports of the Vice Presidents were as follows:

Charletson District—The District Vice President, S. A. Carney, presented his report as follows:

Charleston, W. Va.

Oct. 7, 1921.

Layman's Association, M. E. Church West Virginia Conference:

Dear Brethren:—I want to submit a short report of the financial and spiritual conditions of Charleston District, as I have gleaned them from the report of our District Superintendent, Brother E. J. Westfall. There are 38 charges in this district, 30 of which lay mostly in the coal fields of southern West Virginia, and owing to the great depression in the coal business, with its labor troubles and almost civil war, it has interfered very much with the work and finances of this district.

The financial support of the ministers was increased over last year $7,890, six new churches have been built, and three or four others are under way and others in contemplation. Some three or four new parsonages have been built or bought, including one for the District Superintendent. Five new charges have been organized; also many new Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues.

The Superintendent reports that notwithstanding the depression and trouble in the coal fields the majority of the preachers' salaries have been paid in full.

Our Superintendent reports that our preachers have been faithful and that the spiritual side of the work is making advance.

There were reported 2600 conversions, with more than 1500 accessions to the churches. It is a fact that our district needs more qualified Conference preachers. Of the 38 pastors more than one-half are supply preachers, with not much educational qualifications. These men no doubt do the best they can, but in our industrial communities and coal fields it seems that men must have special training and be adapted to that kind of work. What can be done to turn the minds of more of our bright young men to take up the work of the ministry and qualify themselves to deal with the great problem that confronts the church in reaching and training the rising generation in our coal fields and industrial centers for useful Christian citizenship?

I realize that the preacher can not do this alone but must be helped by the layman. If we can all get the vision and work hand in hand maybe we can help many of these much neglected communities.

S. A. CARNEY,
Vice President.

Elkins District

Mr. President and Brethren:

I beg to submit my report of the Elkins District for the Conference year last past.

Spiritual Activities. I am glad to report that this has been a year of active evangelistic effort and the good work done is reflected in a report of 2,413 conversions; 1362 accessions and a net gain in membership of 1,143.

Sunday Schools. Our Sunday Schools are prospering and in gain in attendance, conversion of members and accessions to the church through the Sunday School, this has been the outstanding year of the District's history.

Ministerial Support. There has been a splendid advance, in all parts of the district, in ministerial support, totalling $7,649.00. Last year showed also a $6,000.00 advance over the previous year. Laymen are showing a willingness to decently support the pastorate and we expect to see this movement reflected in more young men entering the ministry; better preparation on their part for their life work; a better ministry—a better church.

Centenary Offerings. All figures are not available, but we are assured that payments will go beyond last year.

Church Buildings. Many churches have been active in making repairs and in paying off outstanding obligations. $8,640.95 has been so expended. Our society at Richwood suffered the loss by fire of the church and parsonage. Plans have already been determined upon for the building of a model and modern church plant.

Episcopal Residence Fund. At this date $487.27 has been paid in on this fund and we hope that soon the total one thousand asked for will be in hand to devote to this necessary enterprise.

Stewardship. The above financial reports show that in a year of unusual depression in this industrial and agricultural field we have done quite well, but have in no way touched our possibilities. Our Centenary subscription should be paid in full. This can only be accomplished through the constant pressing upon our membership of the obligations of Stewardship. Every member a tither would solve all of our financial problems and usher in a day of "new and intensive enthusiasm for the church."

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN RAINE.

Grafton, W. Va., Oct. 3, 1921.

Mr. Chas. W. Evans,

Dear Sir:—I thought it best to drop you a line to express my regrets that I will not be able to attend the Lay Association meeting at Charleston on the 7th and 8th of this month. This is the second time in fourteen years that I have failed to be present at the annual meeting.

My information concerning the conditions in Morgantown District enables me to say that the district is in the best shape it has ever been.

The largest salaries ever paid pastors, and nearly all in full; church parsonages are in good condition and no indebtedness; the largest benevolent offerings ever made on the district; largest increase ever made in church membership; the largest Sunday School enrollment and attendance in the history of the district, and a general good condition spiritually. I feel that we have had a very prosperous year with all parts of the work moving nicely. I very much regret not being able to be present at this session of the Conference, but feel sure you will have a good time.

Yours truly

JOHN R. COLE.

Wheeling District

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 7, 1921.

Mr. President and Brethren:

At this meeting it is my duty as Vice President of the Laymen's Association, representing the Wheeling District, to make a report, and I am glad our worthy President is a man who lives in the present and has confidence for the future. He asks what is the prospect for the coming year and that we name things that we believe should be done to help.

Methodism in the Wheeling District during the past twelve months has moved on according to God's plan, but has been slowed down I fear, by the small per cent of time actually devoted to the work by its Laymen, and I speak with authority being a Laymen from that District myself, and being a Layman I am privileged without fear of losing my appointment or having the official Board to decline to grant a much needed increase in salary because of hurt feelings, to speak concerning the work of Laymen.

I imagine that the majority of men in this service are not only members of some Methodist Church but are connected with the Church in some official capacity, and the question I ask today is—During the past twelve months have we, as professed followers of the Master, done our best. If not, is this not the time and the place to resolve by His help and guidance, to make the coming year the best yet for ourselves and all who know us, that we will actually follow in the footsteps of the Master, doing good, rendering real service and helping humanity and in so doing be greatly helped ourselves.

During the past year I have found it convenient to attend the mid-week service in many towns other than my home town and I have found four of our Christian women in attendance to one man. Why should this be if the men of our Churches are actually in earnest in the matter of saving the world. We glory in the Christian spirit and work of our good women but are they not entitled to the help of our men. The real trouble with the Layman of the Methodist Church is this:—His business, store, shop, farm, coal mine, steel mill, law practice, railroad or any other business he may be in, has the absolute right of way, the main track as it were, to the exclusion of all else, and he throws himself head long into this business all week, all day and part of the night, missing prayer service, possibly getting to the Sunday morning service where he wrestles with a few problems that were not solved on Saturday and in that way actually misses the real help he should get from the service, and all the time he forgets that it was not by accident that he had health during the week just ended, that his family and friends loved him, that fire or flood had not taken his all, but that God himself had taken care of him and permitted him to live through the week hoping that he would see the light and render real service.

Personally, my opinion of Christianity is that it will help a man more than any other thing in his business. It will help him control his temper, help him treat not only those in authority over him with respect and fairness but will actually cause him to remember those under him in kindness and decency and cause him to treat them in a way that will actually help employer and employed. It will certainly not detract from the efficiency of the man either as a workman or an officer because the Christian man or woman necessarily believes in fair dealing, actually rendering service. Therefore, if our hearts and minds are free from hatred, envy, strife and other evil thoughts we are free to think and act fairly and with good judgment and better qualified to render efficient service for ourselves or the people who employ us to render service. Christianity helps us now, it helps the people we come in contact with and it gives the hope for eternity. Are we doing our best. Are we living it every day and every hour? Do we mix it with our business? Are we willing at any and all times to acknowledge the Master? Do we talk of the Master to our friends? Do we attend prayer services and testify? Do we go into God's house in prayer, asking His blessing for every part of the service and to help us lay aside business and secure a real blessing? Are we much concerned about the world's salvation and do we ask God earnestly to actually use us in the great plan?

We could not progress without our preachers, we get our inspiration from them, their very lives and friendship, their sermons of gospel truth, their prayers and Christian ministry in sickness and death. God bless our preachers but they can't do it all. The Laymen of Methodism and other Churches must accept their responsibility and be real living, thinkin, acting, working every day Christians or the preachers cannot hope to work out God's plan for saving the world.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. BOWEN, Secretary-Treasurer.

Mr. Evans stated that Hon. M. P. Shawkey, of Bluefield, had been assigned the subject, "Religious Education," but did not accept his place on the program. Also, that Hon. Samuel V. Woods had been assigned the subject, "How To Meet Demands For More Preachers," but was unable to be present, and that Mr. J. M. Scott had consented to take his place on the program at the evening session.

The Secretary read a communication from Mr. H. B. Martin, advising that he could not be present to speak on the subject assigned, "Stewardship and Church Finance."

President Evans introduced Mr. Ronald F. Moist, of Charleston, who delivered a most excellent address on "Church Membership."

EXTRACTS FROM MR. MOIST'S ADDRESS

If I were to ask you individually, what are the qualifications for a good church member, the replies would probably be anything but uniform. I feel safe in presuming that at least some of you would tell me that the church discipline lays down the code which at least approaches perfection more nearly than any other. This is probably true, and it is not in my province to gainsay such a suggestion. But can we not determine on some fundamental qualification; which, if it is present in the make-up of a church member, To my mind it is A SENSE OF NEEDS.

You will note that I state it in the plural, namely, "NEEDS." Now, let us dissect our basic qualification. There may be subdivisions which will prove more logical, more responsive to human experience and relationships, but I am firm in my conviction that the one I have included are thoroughly essential therefore right.

Our real church member must have first, A SENSE OF THE NEED OF RELIGION; and, when I say religion, I mean God as revealed by His Son, Jesus Christ. Can you imagine a person who will reverence God, who will really embrace religion, who will be impressed with Christ's gospel, who will be an enthusiastic and result-producing church member, if he does not first realize that to leave God out of his life is to make life incomplete, empty and unavailing.

So, I repeat it, that in my opinion almost everyone at some time or other feels the need of God; but, when I say that a church member must have a sense of this need, I mean an ever-present feeling, not one arising only when he is in distress.

This brings us to the second quality of our basic qualification. He must have A SENSE OF THE NEED OF THE CHURCH AS THE DIVINELY APPOINTED MEDIUM BETWEEN GOD AND MAN. We would not have so many empty pews in our churches this day if our people felt that the church is the place to satisfy their spiritual nature. Too many of our people, altho they feel the need of God, do not grasp the significance of the church as God's will, organized and at work here on earth; they do not feel on entering a church building, that it is truly God's House, having been dedicated to Him.

There remains one more quality. He must have A SENSE OF GOD'S NEED OF HIM. It is this sense which might be termed the call to action. This will cause the passive member to become an active member. Such a member will not only be spiritual as to himself, and reverential as to the church, but willing and eager to put into effect Christ's principles, anxious to tell the story of God's love to others quick to see the field of Christian duty and immediately responsive to the demands made evident.

When our churches are filled with men and women who have a sense of these fundamental needs, then will the Christian Church, with its missions, hospitals, relief stations, universities, publishing houses and newspapers, be felt as a power in the homes, in the lives and in the institutions of the people not only of the United States but of the World.

A recess was declared at this time for the purpose of holding a special Lay Electoral Conference.

Upon resuming the session, Mr. Evans appointed the following Committee on Resolutions: Hon. W. B. Mathews, Hon. E. T. England and Hon. U. G. Young.

Friday Night, 7:30 O'clock

(In accordance with the action of the Laymen's Association last year, this joint session of the Annual Conference and the Laymen's Association was planned to be held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church.)

In opening the session, the Church choir rendered a very fine selection and Miss Pawley sang a beautiful solo.

Opening prayer, Mr. S. L. Richards.

Mr. J. M. Scott was introduced by President Evans and spoke on the subject, "How to Meet Demands for More Preachers." Mr. Scott spoke in his usual forceful manner and brought a message that was well worth while.

The President next introduced Governor E. F. Morgan, who addressed the conference on "The Church and Law Enforcement." His discussion of this subject, in which he brought out many important points, was most inspiring.

EXTRACTS FROM GOVERNOR E. F. MORGAN'S ADDRESS

"We are told that the world is looking to America for spiritual leadership, and at the same time we are advised from Washington that criminal indictments against more than 100,000 persons are now awaiting trial in Federal Courts. Criminal cases pending in State Courts are mounting in proportion approximately three times as fast as in Federal Courts. Crime is on an increase throughout the entire United States at a rate never before equalled"

"Under conditions of this character, it would appear that the right of this country to assume or claim that leadership has not yet arrived."

"It behooves us then to take an inventory of ourselves and ascertain, if possible, what should be done to correct the evils that are threatening to engulf us. Someone has said that 'Not until America has a new baptism of righteousness, until professing Christians of the land realize their own shortcomings and consecrate their lives, their time, their talents of brain and money to the service of God and man; until politicians and business men, employers and employee, producers and consumers alike, give full heed to the Divine command to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself, and do unto others as they would that they should do unto them, there will be no righteousness of a nation fit to lead the spiritual forces of the world to higher ground.'"

"That it is the duty of the Church to aid in the enforcement of the law is too clear to need argument. No man can be a good Christian, unless he is a good citizen, and it is the duty of every citizen to assist in the enforcement of the law."

"The ministry never stood so high in this country as it stands today. We do not appreciate the great debt of gratitude that we owe to those who blazed the way in the wilderness—the real pioneers of our civilization."

"I would rather be a Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and feel that I was worthy of that honor, than to be King of England or President of the United States."

The Governor also spoke at some length on the dangerous doctrine of "Communism" that is being disseminated throughout our country, which advocates making a direct assault upon our Constitution and seeks to overthrow by revolution our government.

Saturday Morning, 9:30 O'clock

Opening prayer.

The President presented to the conference Mr. L. F. Bower, Director of Lay Activities of the Committee on Conservation, Chicago, Illinois, who spoke on "The Larger Field For Lay Organizations." Mr. Bower's discussion was very timely and he made many suggestions, which if put into practice would increase the usefulness of the laymen of our Church many fold.

The matter of the election of Vice Presidents for the coming year was suggested by Mr. Evans—whether or not we elect them, or refer the matter to the various districts. After a brief discussion, it was moved and carried that we elect three Vice Presidents at this session.

Motion by Mr. Richards that we proceed to elect a President before taking up the matter of Vice Presidents.

Mr. Charles W. Evans was nominated, and on motion elected President for the ensuing year.

The conference resolved itself into districts for the purpose of selecting nominees for the office of Vice Presidents.

Upon resuming the session, the President called on the various Districts, which resulted in the following nominations:

Buckhannon District, S. L. Richards.
Charleston District, Ronald F. Moist.
Elkins District, Samuel T. Spears.
Morgantown District, To be chosen.
Parkersburg District, Herbert L. Smith.
Wheeling District, E. C. Burkham.

No representatives being present from Huntington District, it was moved that the President authorize the District Superintendent of that District to make the selection.

The nominees for Vice Presidents were duly elected.

J. H. Bowen was placed in nomination for Secretary-Treasurer, and on motion elected.

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by Mr. William B. Mathews. These were adopted as read.

Charleston, W. Va.

To the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference:

Your Committee on Resolutions begs to submit the following report:

Organized Extension

Resolved, That this association approves of a program of larger Christian activities to be participated in by the association and authorizes the officers to cooperate in the preparation and carrying out of such a program.

Resolved, That this association approves of the formation of District Associations whose Presidents shall become vice-presidents of the Conference Association. That these associations through meetings in cooperation with the District Superintendents and pastors shall carry out a program of activities suited to the needs and problems of the District and the communities therein.

Resolved, That this association approves of the formation of an Area Laymen's Association, if possible with a Lay Executive Secretary serving without remuneration, and hereby authorizes our officers to cooperate with the officers of other Laymen's Associations in the area, the Bishop and Director of Lay Activities in the formation of such an association.

Episcopal Supervision Abroad

We rejoice in the forward movement in Episcopal supervision in foreign fields inaugurated by the last General Conference and we are of the opinion that bishops stationed in the missionary fields in 1920 should be continued in and made responsible for those fields during their active service in their high office, for the patent reason that by appointing new bishops for missionary supervision each quadrennium such supervision would be rendered less efficient.

Resolved, That the secretary of this Association is directed to send a copy of this resolution to other laymen's associations with the request that they consider and act upon this important matter before the next General Conference.

Lay Representation in Annual Conference

In the matter of Lay representation in the Annual Conference we believe the best results will be obtained by electing a limited number of the laymen by each district Laymen's Association, said election constituting membership in the annual conference; we place upon our officers the responsibility of getting this suggestion in a memorial to the next General Conference.

Preparatory Period

We urge upon our pastors the great importance of using the preparatory period of Church membership as a schooling period for all applicants, believing that instruction thus given will result permanently in improved conditions among church members, and will greatly multiply the good results of Church activity.

Law and Order

We are passing through the greatest crisis of American history.

Crime is prevalent everywhere. This always follows in the wake of every great war. We hope and pray that this crime wave has reached its peak. The causes are, doubtless, attributable to different and various reasons.

In the suppression of this crime wave much may be accomplished in the removal of the causes, where such causes may be ascertained. Laws are dead letters unless properly enforced. It is also a difficult matter for our officials to properly enforce the laws of our land without the proper cooperation of the citizens. Law and order must and will prevail.

Resolved Therefore, That we pledge our undivided support in bringing about better conditions by aiding in a stricter enforcement of our laws and thus save our beloved country from drifting into lawlessness, anarchy, Bolshevism and communism.

Disarmament Conference

Resolved, That we approve most sincerely the convening by President Harding of an international disarmament conference and pray for permanent and beneficent results to the Nations of the World from the deliberations of that body.

Death of W. P. McAboy

Resolved, That in the death of W. P. McAboy, one of the Vice Presidents of this Association, the church, as well as this Laymen's Association, has lost a devoted and worthy worker and a man who possessed unquestionable integrity; and also in the loss of him the State has lost one of her best and most substantial citizens. We, therefore, commend his life, and may we emulate his example.

THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Resolved, That we regard it the bounden duty of every official member of our church to be a subscriber and reader of our excellent church organ, The Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, and to that end we pledge our hearty cooperation to our pastors throughout the Conference. Further, we commend the business manager upon his action in enabling our family friend, The Advocate, to lift up its head in modern type.

Bishop McConnell

Resolved, That we consider ourselves fortunate in having for our resident and presiding bishop a man of God of such great mental and spiritual attainments as our own beloved Bishop Francis J. McConnell.

Resolution of Thanks

Resolved, That we extend to the officials of the First Presbyterian Church of Charleston our sincere thanks for the use of their beautiful church edifice in which to hold the sessions of this Association.

Respectfully submitted,

E. T. ENGLAND, Chairman.

WM. B. MATHEWS, Secretary.

Committee on Resolutions.

Bill for $10.50 for printing of programs, and also Mr. Bowen's expenses which amounted to $50 were ordered paid.

At the suggestion of Mr. Bower and on motion of conference, the secretary was instructed to send greetings to the Pittsburgh and Erie Laymen's Association.

Motion that the minutes, including addresses, or a synopsis of addresses, be printed in the Conference Minutes. Carried.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY That the foregoing is a correct copy of the proceedings of the Fourteenth Annual Session of the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, held in the First Presbyterian Church, at Charleston, W. Va., on Friday and Saturday, October 7th and 8th, 1921.

Inasmuch as the Board of Bishops deemed it wise to interchange the presidency of the areas this year; and whereas, Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell, D. D., LL. D., has been assigned to preside over this vigorous, rapidly growing Conference, which as one bishop has said, had scarcely registered 9:00 o'clock A. M.; be it therefore resolved:—

1. That this Conference covering practically all the State of West Virginia and small parts of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, made up of character as sturdy as its hills, hereby most heartily welcomes Bishop Mitchell to our midst as our presiding officer—first because of his high office and eminent character; second because we feel almost akin to him since the first appointment his honored father, Daniel Patrick Mitchell, was assigned, upon entering the Pittsburgh Conference was Kingwood, now of the West Virginia Conference.

2. That we pledge to him as our presiding bishop our utmost help and fidelity in making this Conference pleasant to him and a success to all the interests administered.

3. That because of our faith in the unwritten procedure of this session we do assure Bishop Mitchell that any time the board of bishops may send him this way he shall find a welcome as wide as our hospitality and as genuine as our vast problems.

RESOLUTION—W. M. Shultz presented the following resolution:

To the Trustees of West Virginia Wesleyan College:

Dear Brethren:—In consideration of the vacancy of the President's chair in Wesleyan College, the vital importance of having the chair filled by a man qualified for organization, leadership, and pleasing manner; in consideration of the importance of having a man in the Presidential chair who will rally the support and full cooperation of the ministerial body of the West Virginia Annual Conference, we request the honored Board of Trustees, in filling this vacancy, to seriously consider a man of our own Conference, because we believe that we have a man within the Conference, with the power of organization and leadership such as the College needs at this time and who would be equal to anyone who might be brought in from the outside. We feel sure that one of the men of West Virginia Conference would command the respect, co-operation and loyalty of the Alumni of the school, the ministry and the friends of the College.

We pledge to the Trustees and the man appointed by them our hearty cooperation and support in the working out of the future financial and growing program of the College.

Be it further understood that should the Trustees deem it inadvisable to appoint a man from the West Virginia Annual Conference to the position of President of the College, that we assure the Trustees of our most hearty support to the man whom they may deem it wise to appoint.

Samuel K. Arbuthnot, D. D., from the active management of the campaign that resulted in the accumulation of such funds and their proper investment.

The success of the campaign was due to his ceaseless efforts in that behalf, as well as the diplomatic and tactful method and manner of approach to prospective subscribers.

His retirement was voluntary, the reason impelling and motive assigned being a desire to render active service in the ministry.

In this renewal work we hope for the degree of success which his ability and sound judgment assure us will follow him in whatever field of labor may be assigned him.

RESOLUTION—H. C. Howard presented the following resolution, and upon his motion, it was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Literary Digest is conducting a so-called nation-wide Prohibition Poll, and

WHEREAS, The advertising and all propaganda connected therewith tends to give the general public the impression that this poll is fair and unbiased and based on impartial returns from all parts of the country, and

WHEREAS, We learn upon investigation that only a minority of the members of this church have had the opportunity of voting in this poll, and upon diligent inquiry among our associates, we find that great numbers of representative citizens have not had the opportunity to vote in this so-called national poll, and

WHEREAS, By reading the columns of the Literary Digest we find that great blocks of votes have been cast by factory workers and dwellers in the larger cities of the East, who are at all times largely "wet" in their sentiments, and

WHEREAS, It is evident that a great body of citizenship living in the smaller cities and the rural sections of this country, where the sentiment is largely "dry" and where the ideals and spirit of the church should have opportunity of expression, has not been given the invitation or opportunity to cast its vote in this poll, and

WHEREAS, West Virginia is a Prohibition State by a recorded majority of 90,000 or more.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By this Fourth Quarterly Conference of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Parkersburg, West Virginia, that we strongly condemn the action of the Literary Digest and greatly deplore the prostitution of its hitherto valuable influence for the use of spreading abroad among our citizenship the idea that the Volstead law should be modified and the eighteenth amendment qualified. We recommend to the Annual Conference and to the Laymen's Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church in West Virginia that some action be taken to express the sentiment and state the conviction of the Methodist Episcopal Church in West Virginia, that the influence of a national periodical like the Literary Digest should not be so used.

H. C. HOWARD,
Pastor First M. E. Church.
HERBERT L. SMITH,
Vice-President Laymen's Association.

XI. COMMITTEE REPORTS

ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

Your Committee on Foreign Missions wish to call your attention to the imperative need of the church maintaining the standard of the Centenary among the churches of our Conference. This being the method by which the missionary work is carried on, it is highly important that every effort be made for the payment in full of every dollar which was subscribed. We insist upon this for two reasons: It will enable the Missionary Board to keep all missionaries in the field, and to send out additional ones as the field may demand. In the second place, it is an obligation which can not be discharged except by a full payment of the same. The moral effect would be detrimental to the whole system of giving, if our people are allowed to fall down on this systematic way of giving and disregard for pledges and obligations.

We further insist upon our pastors keeping the missionary spirit alive among our people by frequent preaching on the theme of Missions. The Epworth League, the Sunday School and all departments of the church should scrupulously observe the times set apart for the study and instruction in Missions in these organizations.

The theme of Missions offers one of the greatest in the world for the appeal to the heroic in the life of our young people.

Let us not forget to emphasize the Stewardship of our possessions, and income, for the promotion of the Kingdom and its interest. Line upon line, line upon line, precept upon precept, precept upon precept is the Divine way of imparting to our people the teachings of Bible concerning the law of giving.

L. S. Grose, Chairman,
J. R. BASKET, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

When the district and conference secretaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the West Virginia Conference took the pledge of $18,000 for the women and children across the water who are not so fortunate as they, they felt they had accepted a tremendous task. When they realized the steel mills were starting on their second year of idleness, the mines working only part time, the railroads unsettled and the farmers receiving much less for their products than in previous years—thus demoralizing the entire industrial life of West Virginia, the task seemed almost impossible.

However, the good loyal women of West Virginia determined to work and with the help of Him "Who is able to do exceeding, abundantly, more than ye ask or think", to win the victory. As the year advanced and some were compelled to drop out of the society and others were forced to drop their magazines because of the financial stringency, the leaders were called to their knees, as the only safe place in such times.

Our hearts were made to rejoice, however, as for the first time in the history of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, First Church, Clarksburg, First Church, Fairmont, and First Church, Morgantown, decided to support their own missionary. As time went on the good women took fourteen memorial memberships, at $50.00, instead of eleven, their quota, that our missionaries may have a comfortable and happy sunset. Nor were our Union Colleges forgotten—where leaders for the future of the Orient are being trained. Instead of paying $3200 for which we were asked, our good women again arose to the emergency and payed $5402.12. So it went. As the months passed, after many anxious hours of strenuous work the Lord rewarded the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of West Virginia with a grand total of $26,299.89, or $8,299.89 more than they asked or even thought.

Don't you think they were entitled to make the doxology ring all over the West Virginia Hills? We give you the great privilege of joining with us in Praising God from Whom all Blessings Flow.

MRS. C. FRED ANDERSON,

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We are happy to report the remarkable progress of our General Board of Education. Reports during the past year show an unusual increase in the Children's Day offerings, thus swelling the Student Loan Fund. The demands upon this fund by our young people is increasing rapidly owing to the growing number of students and the ever increasing need of our Life Service recruits. Wherefore we urge our pastors everywhere to do everything possible to increase offerings to this fund. We pledge our loyalty to the Board and our cooperation in all its work.

Theological Schools

We urge all our young men preparing to enter the ministry of our church to seriously consider enrolling in someone of the Theological Schools of Methodism, such as our Boston School of Theology, Drew Theological Seminary and Garrett Biblical Institute. We are pleased to note the large number of students found in these schools at the present time, and we plead for an increase in the number.

Beaver College for Women

We heartily endorse Beaver College for Women with Dr. James M. Thoburn, Jr., as President, and recommend it to any who are looking for such a college to which to send their daughters for their college training. It is in every sense a school worthy our patronage.

West Virginia Wesleyan College

We deeply regret the resignation of President Wallace B. Fleming, Ph. D., LL. D., and desire to express our high appreciation of the fine qualities of his personality and his excellent leadership during the seven years he was with us. We rejoice in the increasing popularity of the college as shown in the steady growth of the student body, the enrollment increasing each year over the preceding one. The enrollment in the last Summer School was unprecedented.

It is gratifying to learn from the Treasurer, Rev. Wm. Coleman, that the finances of the college are in better condition than at any time in the past, this year's balance-sheet breaking almost even. The payments on the subscriptions to the college Endowment Fund have been sufficient to entitle us to receive $25,000 from the General Education Fund.

We find the spiritual tone of the College exceptionally good, the majority of all the classes being definitely declared Christians, as reported by the President at our last commencement.

We commend the action of the college in fostering the work that is being done among our rural churches in the leadership institutes held each summer thru its department of Rural Leadership now in operation.

We recommend as trustees of the College the following for the usual term of four years: Revs. S. K. Arbuthnot, C. Fred Anderson, Jas. W. Engle, S. P. Crummett, and Messrs. J. S. Withers, H. W. Harmer, J. A. Barnes, C. D. Howard, R. R. Smith and Mrs. Anna Hurst Post, and W. T. Williamson for the unexpired term of Luther C. Anderson, deceased, for three years.

We recommend as visitors to the college, C. G. Stater, A. M. Crabtree, S. L. Richards, and George Trainer.

We nominate for membership in the Conference Board of Education for the term of three years, Revs. Claude H. King, D. L. Ash, and J. W. Engle; Messrs. S. T. Spears, S. L. Richards, and W. T. Williamson.

Respectfully Submitted,

H. D. CLARK, Chairman.
J. E. WELLS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE REPORT

We, your Committee on Temperance, submit the following report:

There is a determined effort being put forth by the enemies of the Eighteenth Amendment to our National Constitution and the Volstead Act, to have them repealed, by endeavoring to convince the nation that they are ineffective in the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. These enemies propose to abrogate them by such amendments as will allow the manufacture and sale of what they term "light wines and beer" under government control.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to renewed vigilance in preventing the spread of propaganda, the intent of which is to lessen the force and ultimately repeal our National and State laws pertaining to the prohibition of the liquor traffic.

2. We further recommend that we request our State Legislature not to lessen the penalties now on our statutes in reference to prohibition.

3. We rejoice in the great work of the Board of Temperance and Public Morals of our Church in its efforts for reform, and we pledge our cooperation to it in its large program.

4. We realize and deplore the efforts of the enemies of the Sabbath to break down its sanctity by insisting upon commercialized recreation on that day. We therefore pledge ourselves to resist to the utmost all such efforts, and urge upon our people a greater respect for this holy institution.

5. We understand more than ever the destructiveness of the deadly cigarette, and are alarmed when we consider the great detriment both physical and spiritual which a continued use of the same brings to the youth and manhood of our nation. We therefore pledge ourselves to vigorously discourage the use of the cigarette by pointing out the dangers, and will do our utmost to uphold the law which forbids the sale of the same to minors.

6. There is a fearful use of narcotics in our nation. We deplore this fact and pledge ourselves to secure the enactment of laws to regulate the manufacture and sale of the same.

7. Realizing the laxity on the part of many of our state officials in the enforcement of the statutes pertaining to prohibition and other laws, we urge them to do their sworn duty, and urge our people to heartily cooperate with them in the performance of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. BEDFORD,
JESSE R. JONES,
Committee.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE

We, your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture, wish to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the growing purpose of West Virginia Methodism to supply each pastor with a comfortable parsonage home, and urge that where no parsonage now exists immediate steps be taken to provide one.

We strongly recommend that each new parsonage be so constructed as to provide suitable room for a pastor's study, and wherever practicable be furnished with such heavy furniture as may serve the needs of the pastor's family.

We believe that in most country communities the parsonages could be provided with bath, lavatory, and adequate water supply, so we recommend the same.

And we further urge all our pastor's and their families where there are parsonages and where they are furnished in whole or in part, to take the best of care of such property, beautifying lawns and grounds, making the situation as beautiful and attractive as possible.

W. W. SUTTON, Chairman.
A. C. RIFFE, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE

We believe the Bible to be the revelation of God's will, and the most wholesome companion in the home, both of the rich and the poor, and the best classic for the theologian and the scholar.

We urge upon the pastors the importance of teacher training classes in connection with the Sunday School and the week-day organized Bible classes, and stress the need for our own people to study the Bible.

We urge that the pastors unite with the American Bible Society in giving to all the foreign-speaking people of our country, copies of the Bible in their own language.

We are glad for the emphasis being placed upon Bible study in the colleges and the universities of today.

E. B. MOORE, Chairman.
M. W. CASTLE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Inasmuch as obedience is one of Heaven's first laws in these days when lawlessness and crime is on the increase, and the world is going pleasure mad, in their eagerness to get money and pleasure do not regard either laws sacred or Divine, and Sunday is more and more a Day of Pleasure seeking instead of worship and rest; be it resolved that we as a Conference do hereby place ourselves on record for the maintenance and enforcement of all laws regarding Sabbath Observance and that we will oppose and as far as possible prohibit all Sabbath desecration.

THOMAS M. ZUMBRUNNEN, Chairman.
JOS. VAN SICKLE, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, met and found the Journals of Parkersburg and Buckhannon District Conferences were, so far as we could determine, correctly kept.

COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE

The condition of the West Virginia Conference Epworth League was never more prosperous and never presented a more attractive and promising program. Greater progress has been made, a finer Epworth League spirit is manifested throughout the Conference, and more chapters have been organized and are reporting than ever before. Rallies and District Institutes have been held, have been very largely attended by our representative Leaguers and through the careful consideration given this work by our Conference Epworth League Cabinet many of these young people have been enlisted in definite work for Jesus Christ.

Great enthusiasm has developed for the West Virginia Conference Epworth League Institute held for our young people each August at Wesleyan College. The sixth annual Institute was held this year, was the most largely attended and was equal to the best in the quality of work done. The various departments of League work were emphasized and courses were offered in Bible and Sunday School methods. A large number of the attendants upon the Institute dedicated themselves to some phase of Christian Life Service and the spiritual life of all was greatly deepened.

It is with extreme pleasure that we extend our thanks and commendation to the Conference Epworth League Cabinet, each member of which has given unsparingly and faithfully of time and talent. We also greatly appreciate the many helpful suggestions that have come from the Central office. We were especially blessed and helped in the work of the Institute this year by the presence of Dr. Charles E. Guthrie, our General Secretary, whose class work and addresses will never be forgotten. We commend the splendid work of the Institute Faculty. These men and women who give of their varied talents are doing a work of incalculable value for the future of Methodism in West Virginia.

We concur in the new plan of organization suggested by the General Board of Epworth League and adopted by our West Virginia Conference Epworth League. We suggest that our ministers make a faithful study of these "Rules of Organization" which are as follows:

In case a District has no District Epworth League, the chapters shall be asked to pay dues at the same rate direct to the Conference Epworth League Treasurer.

RULE X. EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTE.

It shall be the duty of the West Virginia Conference Board of Epworth League to continue the maintenance of the Epworth League Institute held annually at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia, and known as the West Virginia Conference Epworth League Institute; and, to this end shall create annually at the Annual Meeting and Institute Commission to be composed of the Conference Epworth League President, Secretary, Treasurer, and four others to be elected in such manner as the Board may determine. The Institute Commission shall have the entire responsibility of maintaining and conducting the Institute, shall elect the Dean subject to the approval of the Central Office, the Dean of Women subject to the approval of the Dean, and the Manager. For the purpose of these elections it shall be the duty of the Commission to meet if possible before the adjournment of the Annual Conference. Failing in this the Commission shall meet within six weeks after the Annual Conference adjourns. The Commission shall work in conjunction with the above said officers in the making of the Institute Program, the passing of Institute Regulations, the selection of the faculty, and, under the leadership of the officers shall be responsible for the execution of the entire Institute Program. The Commission shall determine the date of the Institute, arrange all matters of finance connected therewith, and pay over all monies received to the Conference Epworth League Treasurer, who, out of such monies, shall pay the expenses of conducting the Institute when properly authorized by the Dean, Manager, Conference President, or such other Institute officers as may be authorized by them. The Dean shall be at the head of the faculty, be the executive officer of the Institute Commission in carrying out the Institute Program, have charge of the enrollment of students, the discipline of the Institute, and all other matters pertaining to the religious, educational, recreational, and social features of the Institute. COMMITTEE ON RESPECTS

We note with sad interest the passing to the retired relation of Brothers F. M. Malcolm, J. H. Hess, E. C. Bedford, J. H. Cuppett and Arthur Merrells. We rejoice in their faithful service for so many years and in our most pleasant fellowship with them. We trust that this fellowship may still continue and we believe that though their activities may be diminished they will still be both able and willing to render some service to the church and the work of God.

We are also informed of the transfer of Brother M. A. Workman from this conference. We are sorry that this very promising young man is leaving us but we wish him the greatest success in his new field of labor and assure him of a hearty welcome should Providence ever bring him back again to this conference.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMENS HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE.

"To help win America for Christ" has been the motto that inspired the women of the West Virginia Conference and has aided us to present the best report the Society has ever given.

With each of the seven districts organized and working and a successful District Association held in each, we have succeeded in carrying out greater plans, bringing greater results.

Our house of love, the Holloway Deaconess Home, Miss Mae Strickler, Superintendent, continues its work, sending out its consecrated workers to Ballaire, Martins Ferry, Wheeling and vicinity. The missionaries among the foreign speaking peoples of Wheeling and vicinity-- Misses Emma and Louise Vanek, have been doing faithful and successful work, with their headquarters in South Wheeling. They have also worked successfully in Triadelphia and Moundsville.

The Community House, hereafter to be known as the Engle Settlement House,, has become a reality. Miss Ella Bateman, recently of St. Louis, Mo., a specialist in beginning work of this nature, gave six months of beautiful consecrated service to this field. Stricken with her fatal illness she lingered for a little time, going to Sibly Hospital seeking for relief, she fell asleep in Jesus and so entered into her eternal rest. Miss Elizabeth Jones, who has been serving as Deaconess, First Church Morgantown, was transferred to the Fairmont settlement work, where she still is abundant in labor.

The Engle Settlement House, a large two-story building, with basement, located at 137 Maple Ave., Fairmont, W. Va., has been purchased, repaired and furnished in a manner to elicit the pride of all West Virginia Methodists, at a cost of $9,000.00. Miss Blanche Kinison, formerly of St. Louis, Mo., is Superintendent, and Miss Mary J. Trumbull and Miss Jones constitute the working force of the Settlement House.

The Inter-denominational Summer School of Missions, held at Mt. Lake, Park, Md., under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Leonard Woodruff promises to take on new life and interest. We earnestly advise all who can do so to attend this profitable gathering.

Miss Laura Wincher, 830 Main St., Wheeling, W. Va., Secretary of Supplies, reports again our best year's work in this department.

Miss Grace Metheny of Buckhannon, W. Va., resumes her work as instructor in Bennett Academy, Mathiston, Miss.

The treasurer, Mrs. Walter Furbee, Mannington, W. Va., reports all pledges paid and the total yearly receipts are $24,520.41. A gain of $4,691.07 over last year. With the gain in membership of last year, our total membership numbers over seven thousand.

The officers of the W. H. M. S. desire to express their gratitude and appreciation to the District Superintendents and Pastors for their aid and kindness shown in carrying on the work in the various churches.

With grateful hearts to our Heavenly Father we enter the new year's work with a courage and faith inspired by our National W. H. M. S. motto: "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

MRS. R. B. NAY, President.
MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Secretary.

XIII. PLAN OF EXAMINATIONS

Board of Conference Examiners

1. The movement for a Summer School of Theology developed into a school for the whole Area, Erie and Pittsburgh Conferences co-operating with us. The Commission on Courses of Study took great interest in the matter and provided the money for the general expenses of the school. A number of generous laymen of West Virginia, led by Mr. Chas. W. Evans, raised a fund from which most of the expenses of the West Virginia students were paid. We request that the Conference extend its thanks to the Commission and to Dr. MacRossie and to the laymen for their aid in the matter.

2. The Board of Examiners nominate for the West Virginia members of the "Council" which will manage the school for this year, Frank S. Townsend, D. C. Pickens, W. M. Shultz.

3. The Laymen's Association has very generously assumed for the coming session of the school the raising of the sum of $700, of which $200 may be spent for the necessary expenses of the school and the remainder shall be used to pay expenses of West Virginia students.

4. In view of this generous provision for expenses and the importance of the school the Board of Examiners requests that the Conference make the following orders:

(a). Students shall be allowed Mid-Year Examinations only in connection with this school, except as follows: In view of the importance of the School for Rural Pastors, regularly enrolled students may receive examinations there and candidates for Admission on Trial may be examined in their districts at proper times.

(b). In accordance with the provision of the Discipline, Par. 625, Sec. 5, we recommend that the Conference require all members of the Four Year Classes to attend this Summer School.

5. We request the Conference to instruct the District Superintendents to co-operate with the Board of Examiners in enforcing Par. 625, Sec. 7, of the Discipline, concerning the studies and examinations of Local Preachers employed as supplies.

6. C. A. Snider and R. O. Phillips have been appointed a Committee on Post-Graduate Courses of Study. The expected literature was not received in time to begin the work at this session, but they have now received the literature and those interested in the Post-Graduate Courses may communicate with them.

XIV. PERMANENT TRUST FUND

Report of the Secretary West Virginia Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund

Dear Bishop and Brethren:—

Doctor George Elliott in the last number of the Methodist Review, referring to beneficence, says: "A new note is sounded in religion—that of social service. Holiness henceforth is helpfulness and sanctification means service." How much will be gained when this very wholesome doctrine is not only accepted but becomes the rule of action among us? It is toward this truly high ideal that all beneficent movements help pave the way.

In presenting to the West Virginia Annual Conference my fifth and final report as Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund, may I begin by quoting from a letter received some few weeks ago from Dr. J. B. Hingeley, General Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants. He says, concerning the results achieved in building up our Permanent Fund, "I think you have made a fine record.....The West Virginia Conference is doing well and will continue to do well along the line of endowment."

To any of you who have had anything to do in securing church collections during the last year it will be unnecessary to call attention to the fact that this year has been the hardest year to make such collection thus far recorded. Subscribers owing payments to the Permanent Fund have been very slow in making returns and indeed altogether too large a number have failed up to this time to make any payments at all.

Only $21,338.38 has been collected during the Conference year. The expenses for the same period of time amounts to $4,225.81. As heretofore the detailed standing of each charge is set forth in tabulated form; still it may prove to be interesting and profitable to consider some of the figures which enter into the totals in an individual way.

"The Preachers' Goal" fixed at $25,000.00 was over-subscribed. The total amount reached by the preachers being $28,286.00. The total amount subscribed by the churches is $243,384.76; and the amount paid by the churches is $180,128.21. Grand total subscribed (by preachers and churches equals $271,670.76. Grand total paid (ibid) equals $244,030.21. From which is to be deducted the total amount of expenses, amounting to $24,814.07. Total amount subscribed, but unpaid $47,640.55. These figures are as of September 30th, 1922.

In accordance with Conference action taken at Charleston in adopting my recommendations—especially item 3 (see Conf. Minutes, 1921, p. 75) the office at Buckhannon has been closed and all the properties of the Permanent Fund Association have been turned over to the custody of the Treasurer of the Permanent Fund, the Hon. U. G. Young. With permission of the Conference I shall make final settlement of my accounts after properly recording the amounts received during this session of Conference. It is my recommendation that the Treasurer, Mr. Young, be authorized to send out statements, receive remittances and receipt to the pastors for the same and in general carry on such part of the secretary's work as he shall deem necessary to be done until another secretary shall be chosen by the Conference.

The retiring Secretary desires to avail himself of this opportunity to express his gratitude for the splendid spirit of co-operation which has prevailed throughout the campaign. While it is true, unfortunately, that we have not reached our objective of $400,000.00, yet we are truly grateful that more than half of this sum is secure in our treasury and that the yearly income derived from this sum shall continue, throughout all time, to lighten the financial burdens of the retired Ministers of our Conference.

XVI. IN MEMORIAM

DAVID S. HAMMOND

Rev. D. S. Hammond D. D., was born at Fairview, near Moundsville, W. Va., October 10, 1850, and died March 30, 1922. He was converted in early life and soon felt the call of God to the work of the ministry, and went to Mt. Union College, Alliance, O., to prepare for his task. This college later conferred upon him the degree of D. D. Dr. Hammond filled some of the more im-important charges of the West Virginia Conference; was Presiding Elder of the Charleston District six years; also a member of the General Conference of 1896, and a member of the Book Committee. He was Superintendent of the Boys Industrial School at Pruntytown and a member of the Board of Directors of the Asylum at Spencer, W. Va.

Dr. Hammond was a strong, forceful, and earnest preacher of the truth. His preaching was always edifying, interesting, and instructive; strongly evangelical and he was very successful as an evangelist. When in the pulpit he resorted to none of the tricks of the mountebank, nor sought any cheap notoriety, but proclaimed the Word as a real ambassador of Christ and as a true prophet of God. As a pastor he was kind, sympathetic and soon won his way into the hearts of his people; though coming as a stranger they readily recognized he was their friend and brother. He was a safe counselor, a strong leader; devout and consecrated to the work of leading his people to love and aspire after the better and higher things of life. Men had great admiration for him because he mingled as a man among men, companionable, genial, ever looking on the bright side; strong to resent any injustice and ever ready to defend the weak; more than once did he go to the rescue of those who were being unjustly abused. He leaves two brothers and one sister, besides a large company of friends to mourn his departure.

A short service was held at the home of his brother, T. G. Hammond, in which Brothers S. J. Cotton and Paul Flanagan took part and at the First M. E. Church Dr. W. E. Craig read the scripture, Arthur Lazenby made the opening prayer, Drs. L. E. Resseger, M. F. Compton, J. H. Hess, C. E. Leatherby made short addresses; Dr. C. E. Allen made the closing prayer. The further services at the grave were in charge of Dr. J. E. Scott, pastor of First Church, Moundsville.

C. E. LEATHERLY.

IRA F. RICKETT

Ira F. Rickett, the son of William H. and Lucy A. Rickett, of Fincastle, Va., and pastor of Trinity Church, Point Pleasant, W. Va., had just passed his fifty-fourth mile-stone when his chief commander, on Sunday, February 12, 1922, called him after a brief illness from a task to which he had assigned him more than twenty-eight years ago to a well deserved promotion for which he was eminently qualified. Through all the years of his apprenticeship he proved himself an apt student and a faithful and diligent servant.

During the twenty-eight years of his ministry he served eight charges. While I am sure it can be truthfully said that he loved and served to the best of his ability all of them, Trinity was nearest to his heart. Here he found that which brought out and fostered his best, and in response to his efforts he felt that his endeavors were appreciated and reciprocated by the good wishes and willingness of his people to help to carry out his wishes and plans.

His ministry was not confined to the Trinity Church alone. He had a kindly word for every one, and the civic welfare of the town was near to his heart.

He goes in the midst of his years, and sometimes we wonder at what seems to us the untimely going of valuable and useful men, but it is not a question of how long but how well we have wrought.

On May 28, 1890, he was married to Miss Jennie V. Sarver, of Montgomery county, Va., who survives with six of their eight children: Mrs. Lucy Faulkner, of Swiss, W. Va.; Mrs. Donald Morrison, of Charleston; Mrs. C. S. Smith, of Point Pleasant, and Nellie and Callie and Robert, at home. Those who preceded him were Mrs. J. B. Tinsley, of Akron, O., and a five-year-old daughter. Four brothers also survive. We join in deepest sympathy with the stalwart brothers, the bereaved family and his many relatives and friends in his going.

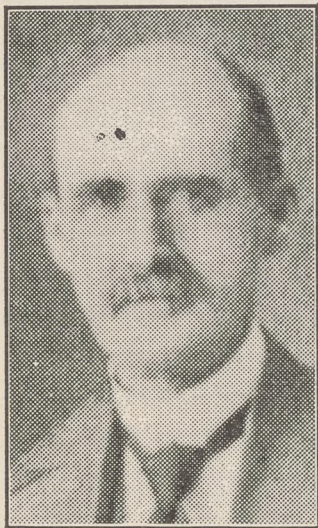

Funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. C. E. Goodwin, J. B. Workman, J. C. Sleeth and E. O. Elkins, and by the pastors of the local churches.

R. A. BACKUS.

ELMER CARLTON CONAWAY

Elmer Carlton Conaway was born in Hocking County, Ohio, October 5, 1863. Departed this life at Limon, Col., December 21, 1921, in his 59th year.

He was converted at the age of 18 years and had a clear call of God to the work of the ministry. He at once made preparation for that work and his first charge was in Mississippi. He not having his health good decided that he would come to West Virginia and join the Conference which he did, and after serving four charges he was united in marriage to Ocie A. Brown of Nicholas County. To this union were born Mrs. Blanche Ellis, of Denver, Col.; Jessie, Mable, Carlton, Grace and James.

He then served the following charges two years each: Matril, Charleston Circuit, Clay Court House, and six months after he had been appointed to the Winona charge he was advised by his physician that he should change climates, and moved to Edgemont, South Dakota, where he served ten months. He then resigned the work and went to Colorado, where he took a homestead and while there his health improved very much, and he again went to work, supplying the San Lewis Valley Charge for one year and the Vernon Charge for one year. Desiring to spend his remaining years in his home conference he came back to West Virginia and was appointed to the Glenville charge, where he served two years, and was then appointed to the Hendrix charge, but after six months his health gave way, and in May, 1921, his daughter, Mrs. Ellis, took him to Denver where he staid until September, when he entered the Methodist Hospital at Colorado Springs. In November the wife and the children who had remained at Hendrix, W. Va., went to Limon, Col. He then left the hospital and went to be at home with the wife and children. He seemed to be getting along well until just a few days before the end he was taken suddenly worse and received his appointment to the better world.

Brother Conaway was a sincere, conscientious, loyal and devoted man. He was always ready to go where the church sent him and did faithful work.

His funeral service was conducted by Rev. Hall, the pastor of the church at Limon, Colorado, and his body laid to rest in the cemetery nearby amidst a beautiful display of flowers.

J. S. THORNBURG.

LAURA J. JOHNSON

Laura J. Cramblett was born in Pleasant county, W. Va., in 1879. At the age of sixteen years she gave her heart to the Lord, united with the Church, and remained a faithful Christian the rest of her days on earth.

In 1897 she was united in marriage to the Rev. C. D. Johnson, of the West Virginia Conference. To this union were born nine children, all of whom, with their father, are left to mourn the early translation of a loving mother and devoted companion.

Mrs. Johnson talked to her family concerning her departure, which she realized was near at hand, and expressed herself as being fully reconciled and ready to go. After months of suffering, on the morning of January 27, 1922, her face became radiant with glory and she passed into the presence of her Saviour.

Her body was laid to rest at Long Reach, W. Va., to await the resurrection morning. The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. H. M. Riddle.

H. M. RIDDLE.

MATTIE A. T. BOWDEN

Mattie Ayers Taylor Bowden, wife of Rev. H. B. Bowden, was born at Zanesville, Ohio, the daughter of Thomas and Martha Taylor.

She was converted in childhood and at once became a working member of the church. In August, 1891, she became the wife of Rev. H. B. Bowden and together they wrought faithfully for years in the ministry of the West Virginia Conference. Sister Bowden was always active in all the societies of the church, and was a well-informed worker in every line of church activity. She was a woman of unusual strength of mind and character and constantly kept informed on all the movements of the church. Owing to ill health she could not continue in the work during the last few years of her life, and because of this fact Brother Bowden has for the past several years sustained a supernumerary relation to the church. After months of patient suffering Mrs. Bowden received her promotion to the Mansion Above on March 13, 1922.

The funeral service was held in the city of her birth, Zanesville, Ohio, and her body sleeps beside the loved ones who had preceded her. A good Christian worker, a faithful wife, a hospitable friend, a sister beloved, has gone from our ranks, and we extend to the sorrowing husband and adopted daughter our tenderest sympathy.

J. B. WORKMAN.

To the Committee on Episcopacy of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled at Springfield, Mass., 1924.
Dear Brothers:

Whereas, Bishop Francis J. McConnell, who has presided over the Pittsburgh Area for the past four years, has so endeared himself to the Ministers and Laity of the Area by his fair and impartial dealing in all matters related to the interests of the church, and by his wise counsel and judicial management of the work of the area as well as by his congenial and brotherly spirit; and in recognition of the great tasks of the church now before us and not as yet finished, and because of his knowledge of the needs and conditions of the area such as would require considerable time for a new man to acquire, and because of his earnest zeal and strenuous effort to bring to a successful completion of all of the work undertaken,

We, the District Superintendents of the Pittsburgh Area, humbly, yet earnestly request that if it be possible in the working out of your plans for the whole church that you return Bishop Francis J. McConnell to the Pittsburgh Area for another quadrennium.

Be it resolved, that this resolution be sent to the Erie Conference, to the Pittsburgh Annual Conference and to the West Virginia Conference for endorsement.

XI. COMMITTEE REPORTS.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The women of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the West Virginia Conference, come to the close of this year with mingled feelings of joy and sadness. Last year the women were so thankful for the blessings and successes of the past year, that they felt they wanted to say "Thank You" to Him, the giver of all the blessings, by doing all He was asking of them for the coming year.

The Conference and District Secretaries felt very much encouraged as they met in district and group meetings. Enthusiasm was abroad and each woman seemed anxious to do her part. This enthusiasm led sixty women to take extremely early trains, pay their own expenses and travel in total 5,944 miles to attend a district meeting. This does not include the more than fifty women who attended in their own town. This enthusiasm spread to the auxiliaries, as is shown by an auxiliary making a 300 per cent gain in membership and almost as striking increase in finances. The district in which this auxiliary is located, Huntington, gained 10 per cent. in members and money. Our largest district in area, Elkins, which is 300 miles long and 150 miles wide, delighted our hearts by overcoming many difficulties, such as distance, mud, dust, sparsely and scattered population, by gaining 10 per cent. in members and money. How Morgantown District encouraged and cheered us when she not only paid her apportionment, but practically doubled it. Wheeling District almost paid treble her apportionment. How we rejoiced when one of our weaker districts last year carried the enthusiasm from the Branch Meeting to the district meeting and on down to the auxiliaries, until at the close of this year Parkersburg District went clear over the goal with 10 per cent. increase all along the line.

How soon the clouds follow the sunshine. When the reports came in our spirits dropped to find instead of saying a big "Thank You" for all our blessings, many of us were not willing to live up to the new meaning of "W. F. M. S.—World Friendship Means Service—Sacrifice and Salvation—consequently, instead of having 10 per cent. increase in auxiliary members, we only had 5 per cent. Our extension members cast a ray of sunshine through the clouds with more than 10 per cent. increase. Being Juniors' year, we were especially anxious to accomplish splendid results along this line. Our spirits dropped many times when we found children waiting anxiously to have a share in this great work, but we mothers were not willing to accept our responsibility and lead them. But in spite of all discouragements the Lord gave us the victory and our work shows a substantial and gratifying increase.

Although fewer of our women are reading than formerly, as is shown by our decrease in magazine subscriptions, those who are reading are reading better, thus getting a broader vision of the opportunity and responsibility that is theirs. We are gratified at the results of our stewardship campaign, as evidence in our financial report. Although we are not able to report a 10 per cent. increase in members or magazines, we did say "Thank You" in deep, rich tones, when instead of paying our pledge of $20,927, we freely and gladly gave $27,366 for the coming of the Kingdom.

MRS. C. FRED ANDERSON,

Corresponding Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

At the close of twenty-five years of organized W. H. M. S. work we bring this latest report. With thankful hearts to a loving Father, who has marveously blessed the plans made and put into action by the group of women, who met on a stormy day, March 2nd, 1897, in historic mother church, Fourth Street, Wheeling, W. Va. From that first auxiliary, of less than a dozen members, there has evolved 76 Auxiliaries, 50 Young Peoples' Societies and 37 Junior Societies, with a total membership of 6,328.

The closing year marks an advance in the strengthening of the work and broadening vision of what is next to be done throughout the entire Conference.

We are indebted to Mrs. D. B. Street for giving so liberally of her time and strength, helping in laying the foundations and perfecting the plans of our Conference work. Miss Grace Packer, deaconess, Wichita, Kansas, has given faithful and profitable service throughout the Conference. She has organized eleven new societies and has also stimulated and revived several old societies. Miss May Strickler, Supt. of Holloway Deaconess Home, together with her corps of seven deaconesses, has rendered helpful service, for which we record our gratitude.

The work of the Mary Kacmar Mission (among foreigners of the Wheeling vicinity) has been faithfully carried on by Misses Ethel and Louise Vanek. A new work has been started at Scott's Run—near Morgantown—under Miss Fuller, deaconess.

The Engle Settlement work at Fairmont, under the guidance of Miss Blanche Kinison and Miss Jennie Trumble, deaconesses, has made wonderful progress during the year. Classes in Americanization, kindergarten, sewing and Sunday School have been organized and are working successfully. They have also proved to be most successful in their work among boys and have organized boys' clubs, which are being carried on with much vigor. A five weeks' Vacation Bible School is perhaps the outstanding feature of the year's work in the splendid institution. Four teachers, two deaconesses and two girls, graduates of W. V. W. C. '23, gave their time and skill in instructing the large number of foreign pupils who enrolled for the course. Almost the entire foreign population of Fairmont crowded into the Settlement House to witness the Commencement exercises, which are said to be one of the best amateur entertainments ever given in Fairmont.

Miss Laura Wincher, Secretary of Supplies, reports money and supplies given to 21 ministers and a total of supplies and cash amounting to $4,031.68 distributed throughout the year. This makes a gain over last year of $277.53.

Our treasurer, Mrs. Walter Furbee, has received $28,720.16 during the year.

The Women's Inter-Denominational School of Missions, Mt. Lake Park, Mrs. May L. Woodruff, Chairman, which met Aug. 1-7, was the most enthusiastic yet held. All who attend this missionary educational conference feel very hopeful for still better results in the future.

The "Love Gift," an offering of $25,000.00 to celebrate the 25 years of W. H. M. S. work in W. Va., has been auspiciously launched and at this time about two-thirds of the amount asked for has been pledged. Each Methodist woman and child is invited to share in this beautiful service in bringing a Thank-Offering—a Love Gift—that we may fittingly show our gratitude to our Father for the gift of His only Son, the Christ Child, who has given his life in love for us.

“Stir me, O Lord! Thy heart was stirred
 My love's intensest fire, till thou did'st give Thine only Son, thy best-beloved One,
 E'en to the dreadful cross that I might live;
 Stir me to give myself so back to thee,
 That thou can'st give thy self again through me.”

MRS. R. B. NAY, President.

MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Corresponding Secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Foreign Missions congratulates the Conference on the fact that the contributions to the Centenary show a splendid increase over last year. It is very important that the closing months of the Centenary period keep the generous spirit of benevolent giving on the highest possible plane, even exceeding that of the Centenary. This will require line upon line, precept upon precept, on tithing which we believe to be the Biblical ideal and the proper solution of our financial problems. We urge our pastors to keep the giving of one-tenth of their income before the Church as its binding duty and obligation to the promotion of the Kingdom of Jesus among men.

We earnestly recommend, that the pastors give special attention to the cultivation of the Missionary spirit among the young people's societies, the Sunday Schools, and any other organized societies of the church. Every Sunday School should be properly organized into a Missionary Society.

The call to the Missionary Field is great and the fact that the Foreign Missionary Society this year had a greater demand for workers than they had supplies, would indicate that much attention should be given to Life Service work among the young people. The appeal to the heroic will make its appeal to the life of the church, with wonderful returns if properly kept before it.

We recommend that special effort be made to collect the overdue pledges before the end of the Centenary period. Let us insist that this be done for two reasons: First, to meet the great need of the world. Second, to maintain a high sense of obligation by meeting in full all pledges made.

W. E. LOWTHER, Chairman.

J. R. BASKET, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

We are glad to report the remarkable progress of our General Board of Education. They report to us an increase in building and equipment in our Southern schools for white children. The work of the Wesley Foundation reaches to fifty institutions with thirty-five full time workers, and in these institutions there are ten thousand students attending services in Wesley Foundation churches, and more than five thousand attending Sunday School classes. We learn with gratitude that the Children's Day Fund totaled more than $164,000 the past year, an increase of $2,778 over the previous year. Yet the demands upon this fund are so greatly increased, owing to our increasing number of students and life service recruits that all pastors should do everything possible to rapidly increase this fund. We pledge our loyalty to the Board, and record our appreciation of the great assistance given to our work.

West Virginia Wesleyan College.

We are more than pleased with the splendid manner in which our new President, Rev. Elmer Guy Cutshall, A. M., B. D., Ph. D., is taking hold of the duties of his high position. Its influence is already manifest in the response of the student body. Its effect is noticed in many particulars, from the more devout spirit manifested in the chapel exercises, and the more quiet conduct on the part of the students in the halls in passing from one class to another, as well as to and from the religious exercises of the chapel hour, to the increased interest in studies and other student activities, bespeaking at once higher standards of scholarship and the life work of the individual. We bespeak for our College a continued prosperity under the direction and leadership of Dr. Cutshall, pledging to him our loyalty and support.

The enrollment for the present year has already reached the four hundred and twenty-five mark, a promising increase over previous years. We anticipate a better patronage, too, of the Methodists of the West Virginia Conference in sending their sons and daughters to Wesleyan College for their life work preparation, and especially so on the part of those honored with membership on the Board of Trustees, on the part of some of whom an indifference has been only too conspicuous. We are gratified in noting the gradual increase in the finances of the College, new and voluntary subscriptions coming to its treasury, anticipating the contemplated financial campaign set for two years hence.

We recommend as Trustees for the term of four years the following: Ministers, H. D. Clark, C. E. Goodwin, J. E. Wells, F. S. Townsend. Laymen, L. C. Beerbower, C. O. Law, W. B. Mathews, S. V. Woods, Herbert L. Smith.

We recommend as visitors to the College, Rev. D. C. Pickens, Rev. A. M. Barlow, and Messrs. C. W. Evans and Peter Silman.

As members of the Conference Board of Education we place in nomination for the term of three years, Hyre D. Clark, J. E. Wells and Arthur Lazenby. Laymen, L. G. Beerbower, E. W. Howard, W. H. Newcomb.

Theological Schools.

We commend Boston University School of Theology, Drew Theological Seminary and Garrett Biblical Institute to our young men seeking preparation for the ministry. We rejoice in the large number of students enrolled in these institutions, and in the thorough preparation they are receiving for the work of the ministry. We plead that in greatly increased numbers our young ministers will seek a complete theological course in some one of these institutions.

JAMES W. ENGLE, Chairman.

J. E. WELLS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Resolved, That this Conference recognizes the need of strenuous enforcement of the Prohibition laws and that we pledge our earnest support to the Anti-Saloon League, and all officers, Federal and State, in their arduous labors to uphold the same.

Resolved, That this Conference approves the efforts of the National Reform Association to secure the use of the Bible in the Public Schools of this and other States; to unify the marriage and divorce laws of the States, and to lead this and other Governments to a recognition of the necessity for the application of the principles of Christianity to international relations.

Resolved, That we commend the Association as worthy of support, and nominate Dr. C. E. Allen as the representative of this Conference upon the officary of the National Reform Association.

C. E. GOODWIN, Chairman.

G. D. SMITH, Secretary.

BOARD OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

The Conference Board of Sunday Schools and Religious Education has held two meetings during the year, viz: at Fairmont, W. Va., January 22nd, 1923, and at Wheeling, W. Va., September 28th, 1923.

The Board was organized by the election of S. C. Jones of New Martinsville, W. Va., as Chairman, and W. C. Strohmeier of Bridgeport, W. Va., as Secretary-Treasurer.

At the January meeting the School of Religious Education planned for Mountain Lake Park the latter part of August was endorsed. This School not being under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal Board of Sunday Schools, was, therefore, not official, and there was no particular urging our workers to attend.

We desire to submit the following as the suggestive plan of work for the West Virginia Conference Sunday Schools:

(a) Observance of Children's Week, October 7th to 14th.

It is the desire of your Board that Children's Week be more faithfully observed by our Sunday Schools. Information and Literature can be secured by writing to Dr. Roger Albright, Superintendent of Children's Work, 58 Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois.

(b) Observance of Father and Son Sunday, November 11th.

In line with the wish of the General Conference Board of Sunday Schools, it is our recommendation that Armistice Sunday, November 11th, be observed as Father and Son Sunday. It is the hope of the Board that the Sunday preceding Armistice Day each year will in future be thus observed. Our workers this year are urged to invite young men to attend and unite with some Bible Class on that Sunday, and that our ministers solicit the co-operation of the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, and other civic clubs for a great Father and Son banquet to be held on a convenient evening during Armistice week.

(c) Bible Study For High School Credit.

Last year 1,500 high school students in West Virginia availed themselves of the privilege of high school Bible study for credit. So encouraged were the members of the Commission that a new High School Bible Text was ordered prepared. This work was done by Miss Katy Belle Abney of Charleston, and S. C. Jones, Chairman of this Board. The book is now ready for distribution by James and Law of Clarksburg, and becomes the official text book in Bible for West Virginia High Schools.

It is the prayer of the Commission that at least five thousand students be enrolled in the Bible courses this year in West Virginia, and that as early as possible after adjournment of this Conference as many of our ministers as can qualify at once for the teaching of the Bible in our High Schools. Write to Dr. E. W. Halpenny, 508 Moore Bldg., Charleston, W. Va., for further information.

(d) The Sunday School Council of West Virginia.

During the past five years, first under the Secretaryship of Dr. Blake, now Bishop, and continued under Dr. Bovard, our General Conference Board of Sunday Schools took a large and aggressive part in perfecting the reorganization of the Sunday School forces of North America, through the merging of the Evangelical Council of Sunday Schools representing denominations, with the International Sunday School Association, thus forming the International Council of Religious Education.

A part of this process was the preparation of a basis of reorganization of States known as "Exhibit B". Your Conference Board of Sunday Schools following this lead, and with the advice of Dr. Bovard, took action endorsing this reorganization, and suggested the following as members of the West Virginia Council of Religious Education as representing the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Samuel C. Jones, New Martinsville; Prof. J. D. Green, Buckhannon; W. C. Strohmeier, Bridgeport; A. S. Thomas, Charleston. Your Board respectfully request the approval of this action.

(e) Religious Education Defined.

In addition to the activities of the Sunday School, Religious Education has come to mean those activities of our times known as Week Day Schools for Religious Instructions, Bible Study in High Schools, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, Night Classes in Church training and several other phases.

(f) Plans for the Future.

It is imperative that our West Virginia Conference employ a Director of Religious Education as soon as possible. It is therefore our desire that preparations be started at once looking to the appointment at the next Annual Conference of a man trained for this important task which challenges each of us. Our plan of procedure is.

First—That an amount equalling two cents per enrolled member, be asked from our West Virginia Conference Sunday Schools, exclusive of Cradle Roll and Home Department. Charges are asked to report not later than January 15th, 1924. It is suggested that the offering to be taken on the first Sunday in January. This money is to finance the work of the West Virginia Board of Sunday Schools in seven or more Institutes to be held in strategic centers of our Conference, where large groups of Sunday Schools are located, and where the most workers might be reached at minimum expense. The plan now calls for an afternoon and evening sessions. In these Institutes our leadership problems will be discussed, and the emphasis laid on the needed training for service.

It is possible that one of the collateral books of the Standard Teaching Course will be discussed by a specialist, credit being for note books reported to the lectures. Our ministers in the various centers are asked to co-operate with this plan.

Words of Appreciation.

It is with great pleasure that we heard Dr. Wilson of the Institute Department of the Board of Sunday Schools. He came to West Virginia at the request of the Conference Board, and he brings the message of faithful co-operation by his Board in the above plans of the Conference Board. We also welcome Dr. Halpenny as one who will bring us great help as a Conference in our Religious Educational service. He is at the service of any minister or district for addresses.

(h) The members of the Board of Sunday Schools for this Conference is at the service of each of our ministers as far as possible. It is with a sincere desire to help our brethren in the ministry that we have consecrated ourselves to this work. West Virginia boys and girls are entirely worthy of the best, and the pleasure is ours to serve them.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice in the progress of Temperance and Prohibition in the State and Nation. We also record our protest against any slacking of interest in the enforcement of the Prohibition Law. In the name of over 80,000 members of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the boundaries of the West Virginia Conference, we declare against any change in the Volstead Act, or the Legislation of the Manufacture or sale of light wines or beer for beverage purposes, or official action that nullifies our Prohibition Laws.

While much favorable progress has been made in the enforcement of the Prohibition, still much remains to be done. The forces of iniquity and every form of wrong have formed an alliance to defeat the law, and by insidious propaganda are attempting to secure its repeal. Where ever they can, they use the press to publish false and misleading articles and to distort facts concerning the enforcement of the law and attack its officers in the faithful discharge of their duty. They attempt to control elections by electing officials who will wink at the nullification of the law and shield offenders against it. To the enforcement of the law we somenly pledge our honor and support.

Therefore, Resolved, That we will use our best efforts to aid in the organization and work of non-partisan Law Enforcement Societies throughout the State to aid all officers in the destruction of Moonshining and every form of violation of the liquor laws of the State and Nation.

1. That the Law requiring the teaching of the effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human body, that was repealed when our School Law was re-written in 1908, be again placed upon the Statute Book so that our children may have the benefit of scientific instruction in temperance.

2. That our Sunday Schools return to the teaching and study of practical lessons in temperance at least once a quarter, and that our pulpits constantly impress the solemn obligations of Christians citizenship upon our people.

3. That our Prohibition Laws should be amended to forbid and punish public drunkenness, and to provide for the removal from office of any public official found guilty of such offense.

4. That we commend the Federal Court and the District Attorney's office of the Northern District of West Virginia, and especially commend Judge W. E. Baker and Hon. T. A. Brown, District Attorney, the Department of Justice Agents and the Prohibitions Officers for their effective work in the prosecution of violations of the Volstead Act, and while we desire a fair and impartial trial of those violating the law, we favor vigorous prosecutions and the imposition of such penalties as will effectually prevent such utter disregard of Law as recent developments have disclosed.

5. Resolved, That we tender our thanks to Hon. W. G. Brown, Prohibition Commissioner of West Virginia, for the faithful manner in which he had conducted the work of his department and pledge to him our earnest support in every effort to enforce the Law.

6. Resolved, Further, That we pledge our faithful co-operation to Rev. O. M. Pullen, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, in furthering the interest of temperance along all lines in this State and ask his appointment to office which he now holds, for the coming conference year.

7. Resolved, That we pledge our co-operation to Hon. J. H. Gadd, recently appointed Federal Director of Prohibition for West Virginia, in his efforts to enforce the Volstead Act.

WESLEY FOUNDATION COMMITTEE.

The Committee on the Wesley Foundation submits the following report: The past year has been one of progress along several lines. For the first time since the Wesley Foundation work has been begun, have students and parents been solicited for financial support, to which a generous response was made.

A local Executive Committee of the Wesley Foundation, made up of business and professional men of Morgantown, was organized and the following officers elected: President, Dr. Robert A. Armstrong; Secretary, Dr. J. R. Trotter; Treasurer, Mr. Harry Sanders. Furthermore, it is our purpose to perfect as soon as possible a similar committee for the State of West Virginia.

The Methodist Student Council wishes to go on record as having made the first start toward the actual realization of a Wesley Foundation Building by resolving to set apart ten per cent of the financial campaign among students and parents for the current expense fund of the academic year, for a Wesley Foundation building fund.

The Conference Wesley Foundation Committee wishes to report that the matter of incorporation has been begun, but because of some legal technicalities has not been completed and that efforts will be made to bring this to pass during the coming year.

The committee wishes to recommend that the West Virginia Conference stand ready to support in every way the program of the Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University to the end that in due time a Wesley Foundation Building may be erected for the purpose of adequately ministering to the religious and social needs of the Methodist young people who are students at our State University.

BOARD OF NEGRO EDUCATION.

We, your Committee, respectfully submit the following report:

The Negro race is in America to stay. We are convinced from the past progress the race has made, both religiously and industrially, that the prospects are bright for advancement.

We commend the work of the Board of Education for Negroes. The work accomplished is of a permanent character. The Schools established by the Board are so helpful that a well defined program has been inaugurated for their development and the establishment of others. Certain high standards are the aims of the Board, and the results of past efforts justify all that is contemplated.

The church of Jesus Christ is responsible for the advancement the Negro has made. He owes all he is to Christian enlightenment. The need for uplift is still great, the work is vast and intricate. The exigences of the race demand that every effort be put forth for the "black brother."

We are glad that so much valuable information is found on this subject in the recent book called "The World Service of the Methodist Episcopal church.

We recommend that this information be given to our people, and that our pastors pledge themselves to do this.

We recommend that this Conference pledge its hearty support to the Board in its work.

Signed,

A. M. CRABTREE, Chairman.
JESSE R. JONES, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The summing up of the service of the Epworth and Junior Leagues of the Conference brings to mind the splendid accomplishments of our young people. It has been our custom for several years past to think of our Epworth League as capable of rendering great service to our Church, and this year we are glad to report that such is the prosperity of the work that our leaders are greatly encouraged.

The following items will be of interest to the Conference and we take the liberty of making them the body of this report.

Sub-District Organizations.

Your Committee approves the plans of the Conference Cabinet for sub-district organizations. In several centers such organizations have done very effective work during the past year, and we request the co-operation of the pastors in all such efforts to organize along this line.

District Rallies.

Mid year district rallies have been held throughout the Conference and hundreds of our young people have attended these inspirational meetings. The programs have been good and the fellowship most helpful.

Visit of the General Secretary.

We are happy to report that under the leadership of our Conference President, our General Secretary, Dr. Charles E. Guthrie, was secured for a week's series of engagements, during which time he was able to visit each District of our Conference. Rallies were held in central places and during the week at least two thousand of our young people had the pleasure of hearing his addresses. It was a week of great inspiration and encouragement and very definite results are already seen in the work.

Twenty-four Hour Day Leagues.

Our Pastors are urged to secure literature explaining the Twenty-four Hour Day plan of finances of the Epworth League. There is no service more worth while than this and more appealing in challenge to our young people. It is the only final solution of the financial problems of the Epworth League.

Junior Leagues.

There should be more Junior Leagues organized this year. The Conference cabinet has set the aim at a Junior League in every chapter. Your Committee urges that we assist our young people in the realization of this aim for we feel that no training for League membership is quite so good as that of the Junior League. The new courses as outlined for the fall and winter months will appeal to every thoughtful minister. Miss Emma Robinson, of the General Office at Chicago, Ill., will be very glad to supply explanatory literature to anyone who will write for it.

Mid-Year Institutes.

A mid Year Institute was held last winter in St. Andrew's Church, Parkersburg District, with such success that your committee suggests a consideration of the claims given to it by our District and Conference Officers. We know of such plans already for Mid-Winter Institutes in Parkersburg, Wheeling and Elkins Districts and hope that it may be worked out in the other Districts of the Conference as well.

Conference Epworth League Officers.

We submit the following for the approval of the Conference as officers for the ensuing year:

President, Denver C. Pickens, of Elkins.

First Vice President, Ralph C. Brown, of Buckhannon.

Second Vice President, Vernon B. Harris, of Elkins.
 Third Vice President, Mrs. C. E. Kingsbury, of Parkersburg.
 Fourth Vice President, Edward F. Koch, of Logan.
 Secretary, E. Vernon Smith, of Clarksburg.
 Treasurer, Lewis McPherson, of Huntington.
 Junior Superintendent, Romanna Rowley, of Clarksburg.

West Virginia Conference Institute.

The usual large attendance at the Conference Epworth League Institute held at Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, August 6th to 13th, indicates the popularity of this splendid work among the young people and its great value to the League life of our chapters. Three hundred and eighty-seven were enrolled and the Conference Epworth League Board are under deep obligations to Dr. Daniel L. Marsh of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. John Horsley of Central Office and many others who gave their best to make the Institute worth while.

J. E. WELLS, Chairman.

S. C. JONES, Secretary.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

In view of the fact that the organized interests which control the commercialized sports and recreations of the United States, such as the theatres, motion picture shows, baseball, etc., are most largely composed of Jews and others to whom the Christian Sabbath means nothing.

That it is their deliberate purpose to destroy every legal safe guard which our forefathers placed about the Sabbath, and to transform it into a mere National Recreation Day for their own profit.

That step by step and with increasing rapidity they are accomplishing this deadly purpose to say the least.

That no state legislature assembles but what a "feeler," if not a carefully prepared measure to this end is also at hand to ascertain if the time is ripe.

That this movement has behind it millions of dollars, and that no cost will be held dear, if it will accomplish the desired end.

That even now with and according to a carefully answered questionnaire sent out by the Lord's Day Alliance, only half of the southern states have adequate legal protection for the Sabbath and that in fourteen out of fifteen of these states there are clear evidences of an increasing demand to legislate the Sabbath out of existence.

That the end of this day is death to the conquering progress of the Church of Christ, and

Whereas, we have an able representative and ally in the Lord's Day Alliance as has been practically proven, therefore,

We, the Committee, on Sabbath Observance, of the West Virginia Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, do recommend to the Conference the following resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED: That, the Conference approve and endorse the establishing of a West Virginia Auxiliary and approve the work thus far done.

BE IT RESOLVED: That, the Conference appoint four representatives to act on its Board of Managers.

BE IT RESOLVED: That, the Conference instruct the individual pastors to recommend specific financial support from the members of their respective churches.

BE IT RESOLVED: That, the Conference request the pastors of the individual churches to permit the Lord's Day Alliance of West Virginia to present this cause in their churches to their people. These resolutions are respectfully submitted,

D. B. ORR, Chairman.
BERNARD GIBBS, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND BOOK ACCOUNTS.

We, your Committee on Periodicals and Book Accounts, desire to register our conviction that intelligent understanding of facts is an essential basis for the progress of the kingdom of God. Information is prerequisite to inspiration.

Public life is flooded with an uncensored literature which is having a powerful influence on the shaping of public opinion, and in view of the fact that this vast character forming force is actually determining the ideals and motives of our people, and effecting the faith of men in God and his great purposes, it has become imperative that we lead our people to read only that literature which will furnish Christian ideals, and moral motive power in private and public life.

From the days of the Wesleys, the Methodist Episcopal Church has been a producer and distributor of such literature, and today we have the largest publishing interests in the world. The preachers of Methodism have the high privilege of bringing their people into contact with the biggest and best literature in the world, by taking advantage of the opportunities furnished by our Book Concern. Its wide awake force will get for you any book or periodical published, and in addition to this the profits of the organization, instead of going to make a few men rich, goes to the support of the most worthy men God ever called to his service—the retired preachers and their dependents.

Our depository at Pittsburgh sold $251,000 worth of books and supplies in the past year, an increase of $26,000 over any previous year. This speaks well for the loyalty and appreciation of the preachers and membership of the church. Pastors are urged to take greater advantage of this means of Christian service and purchase all their supplies through the Book Concern.

The Pittsburgh Christian Advocate represents the best among the great periodicals of the church and is our own official paper. No Methodist can be efficient in the service of his church if he be not informed of its movements and present day purposes. This information can only be secured officially and with certainty through the official paper. Our own Advocate occupies a unique position in the family of denominational papers in that it is so well managed as to pay its own expenses. It is therefore the judgment of your committee that the following things be done in behalf of a larger circulation of our church periodicals.

1. That we observe Good Literature Day November 18, and secure the greatest possible number of new subscriptions as well as to renew the present ones.

2. That we reaffirm our slogan, "An Advocate in every Methodist family" and where this seems impossible to secure a minimum of an Advocate for every five members of the church.

3. That we heartily commend the Editor of our Advocate for his able editorials, and helpful interpretation of "the present age," and congratulate the business manager upon his success in securing so large a subscription list, as well as making it pay its own way. Co-operation of preachers and people will enable the Advocate management to make it a still larger influence in producing Christian understanding and active public opinion in the right direction.

Respectfully submitted,

OTTIS R. SNODGRASS, Chairman.
NELSON S. HILL, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Believing as we do that the Bible is the Word of God, and the only infallible guide to individual and national life; therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we urge upon the pastors the importance of a more thorough training for teachers in the Sunday School and week-day Bible classes in our Conference.

Second. That the pastors are hereby admonished to spare no pains in bringing to the attention of the people the great need of a renewed interest in the reading of the Bible in the homes by the parents and heads of the family.

Third. That we join the National Reform Association in its purpose of putting the Bible on the desk of every teacher of the public schools of the land.

J. A. SHULTZ, Chairman.

E. G. HUTCHINSON, Secretary.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

It is gratifying indeed that the Methodists of the West Virginia Conference are providing parsonages for their preachers.

It is also much to their credit that heavy furniture and modern conveniences are being provided.

The committee most heartily approves of the work done but would recommend that a committee be appointed by the Conference to secure a uniform architectural plan for both parsonage building and furniture for the future.

E. B. MOORE, Chairman.

T. M. McCARTY, Secretary.

REPORT OF EVANGELIST NANNA.

Conference Evangelist V. A. Nanna submitted his annual report, as follows:

This closes up eighteen years as evangelist in the West Virginia Annual Conference.

During the past year about 1000 souls bowed at the altar of prayer in the different meetings in which I assisted, and many of these professed conversion.

I baptized sixty-eight persons during the year. I also conducted nine funeral services, and supplied the pulpits for several ministers during their absence.

For these different services I received about $1400. I am now ready to continue in this work and to march onward in the name of the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

V. A. NANNA.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' PERMANENT FUND.

Report of Secretary of the West Virginia Conference Claimants' Permanent Trust Fund Association, for Conference Year 1922-23.

When I entered upon this office a year ago I found that our books bore the names of over 3000 subscribers to the Permanent Fund whose subscriptions were not paid in full. These unpaid pledges amounted to over $40,000. But the list included a large number of names of persons who were dead or had disappeared; of those who denied that they had ever subscribed or claimed that they had paid; of many who claimed that they were unable to pay, at least at present, even though they had made their subscriptions in good faith.

It did not seem advisable to put on an immediate campaign for the increase of the Fund and I determined to spend the year in an effort to collect all that was possible of the old subscriptions, in stimulating general interest in the subject and in preparing for a vigorous campaign in the coming conference year.

In accordance with these plans I have travelled as much as possible over the conference during the year. I have visited every large city within our borders and also many of the smaller towns and a number of country circuits. I attended six district gatherings, presenting my cause at each one. In this field work I spent 26 Sundays and many week-days in my visits to the churches and people, speaking in 48 different churches and delivering sixty sermons or addresses. I travelled about 5000 miles in this official work, apart from all other travel.

In office work I sent out two complete sets of "Statements" to all subscribers and to a considerable number of persons I sent three and even four statements. I have also written a large number of personal letters and made hundreds of personal calls, though it was impossible to see all delinquent subscribers in person. I estimate that in this work I have sent out about 7000 pieces of mail, all without any assistance.

I have not directly solicited new subscriptions, as I felt this would be injurious to the coming campaign, but a number of persons have made voluntary subscriptions. And free-will gifts for the expense accounts were made at almost every church I visited. These gifts and new subscriptions have more than paid all the travelling expenses of the year. I have also occasionally helped a pastor to raise the annual apportionment to his church for Conference Claimants.

After the efforts made this year to collect the old subscriptions I feel that most of them who have not paid are either unable or unwilling to pay. But there are a number who have paid in part, or paid interest for the sums pledged, and are planning to pay up before very long. Possibly a number may do this but I do not look for any very large payments from those who have not yet settled. We can work more profitably for the future in the effort to secure new gifts.

In the list of subscriptions there are nominal pledges from various churches or Official Boards, which amounted to well toward $10,000 in all. But most of these churches repudiated the subscriptions, declaring that they had never voted the pledges. But one little church on a circuit has paid in full and several churches of various grades have made partial payments and expect to complete the whole payment in time. First Church, Morgantown, acknowledged a subscription of $2500, has paid $600 this year and arranged for a complete payment, with interest for all delays, probably during the coming year.

I have an offer from a member of the conference to give one thousand dollars to the Fund during the next five years, provided that 20 men in all will make such a pledge. An effort will be made to find those men.

I must state with regret that the year's receipts are much smaller than we all wish but I am glad for what I have been able to collect. The receipts are as follows:

Payments of old subscriptions.....	$8099.45
Interest for delayed payments.....	623.64
New Subscriptions	224.00
Gifts from churches for expense account.....	212.76
From the Haymond Estate	100.00
Miscellaneous receipts	7.95
Total	$9267.80

I have tried to keep down the expenses of the year as much as possible. They amount to a total of $3290.62.

The financial items of this report are corrected to Sept. 30, 1923, when the accounts for the year were closed.

A Plan of Campaign, for the vigorous prosecution of the work during the coming conference year, will be presented to the conference during the session.

FRANK S. TOWNSEND.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Plan of Campaign for the Increasing of the Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund to at least a Half Million Dollars.

1. The object of this campaign shall be the increase of the Permanent Fund to the sum of a Half Million Dollars at the least. The active Campaign shall be put on as soon as possible after the present session of the Conference. If conditions will not permit the work to be simultaneous over the whole conference the Campaign shall be put on by districts, but an effort shall be made to cover every district during the winter and the spring. If any charge is for any reason omitted from the general Campaign, special campaigns shall be put on for such charges and the work shall be continued until every charge in the Conference has contributed to this Fund.

2. The minimum sum asked for in this Campaign shall be Four Hundred Thousand Dollars, to be paid in from one to four annual payments as subscribers shall indicate in their pledges. This sum is about the same as the cash salary of the pastors for one year, or about Five Dollars for each member of the church in the Conference. Every pastoral charge shall be expected to reach one of these standards as the minimum of its gifts.

3. Every effective member of the Conference and every preacher on trial shall be requested to pay to the Permanent Fund a sum at least equal to one-tenth of his cash salary for the Conference Year 1923-24. This payment may be made in four annual installments, of which the first shall be due on July 1, 1924.

4. There shall be a Campaign Committee for each District, consisting of the District Superintendent, three preachers and three laymen. This Committee shall prepare the plans for the work of the District, organize working committees for groups or for individual churches and aid in providing both ministerial and lay speakers and solicitors for the putting on of the Campaign in the separate charges of the District.

5. The general management of the Campaign shall be in the hands of the Secretary, who shall give as much time as possible to the work in the churches. He may therefore employ such assistance in the office as will be necessary in order that he may do this work in the field.

6. Proper literature shall be provided for circulation in each church as a preliminary to the intensive work upon a pastoral charge.

7. Special workers from outside may be secured when approved by the Commission on the Permanent Fund and the District Committees but the great reliance shall be upon the members of our own Conference who shall be brought into the field. Therefore all members of the Conference are most earnestly exhorted to stand by this work, which means so much to the future of the Conference and to the welfare of us all.

Presented by Frank S. Townsend, Secretary, and adopted by unanimous rising vote of the Conference, Oct. 1, 1923.

REPORT OF AUDITOR.

Your committee for auditing accounts wishes to submit the following:

We have examined the District Superintendents' accounts as they appear in the report of T. J. Lewis, Chairman of District Superintendents' Accounts and find the same correct, each District Superintendent having received $4500, and leaving a balance on hand of $1534.50.

We find the accounts of O. A. Kelley, Conference Treasurer for the Conference year of 1922-1923, correct, with a balance on hands of $268.

We have examined the accounts of F. S. Townsend, Secretary of the West Virginia Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund, and find that he has turned over to U. G. Young, Treasurer of said fund, $3,000, and that he has a balance on hand of $2938.12.

The account of Claude E. Goodwin, Treasurer of Conference Board of Stewards, was approved with a balance on hands for the year ending Oct. 1st, 1923, $224.

The Missionary accounts of the Districts were also examined and approved.

We, the Auditing Committee, recommend that in the future all accounts and exhibits be submitted to the Auditor for the privilege of investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

GREGORY BLEAKLEY, Chairman.
G. M. CONNER, Secretary.

XVI. IN MEMORIAM.

REV. JAMES M. KINDER.

James M. Kinder was born May 22, 1851, in Boone County, West Virginia, and died very suddenly at his late home in Madison, W. Va., Jan. 27, 1923. Interment was made in Teay's Cemetery, St. Albans, W. Va.

He was converted in early life, and hearing the call to preach the gospel, like the great apostle of the Gentiles, "was not disobedient to the heavenly vision," but obeyed the voice and entered the work.

He was received into the West Virginia Conference at Wheeling in the fall of 1891. For twenty-five years he rendered very effective services. At the end of his pastorate he was given the retired relation which he held to the end.

Brother Kinder was twice married, his first wife being Miss Ellen Javins, who preceded him several years to the Glory World. To this union five children were born, three of whom survive. They are: A. L. Kinder, of Washington, D. C.; W. H. Kinder, and Mrs. J. L. Ingram, of Charleston, W. Va. His second wife, Mrs. Louisa Sowders, also survives.

Brother Kinder was denied the advantages of thorough training in the schools in his early life, but by patient application and perseverance in reading and study he became well informed in the doings of the world, which made him an interesting companion. His untiring study of the Bible and devotion and love to God and the Church made him a preacher of power and acceptability. His quiet and unassuming manner and character made him a friend and pastor beloved. "He rests from his labors, and his works follow him." Many lives and communities are richer, sweeter and better because Brother J. M. Kinder served and lived.

S. P. CRUMMETT.

REV. C. E. BISSELL.

The West Virginia Conference lost a valuable member when, on July 25, the Rev. Clarence E. Bissell was transferred from his home here below and given his triumphant appointment in the skies.

Born of sturdy New England stock, a direct descendant of Mayflower ancestry, in the substantial little Massachusetts town of Southampton, this little New England lad gave early promise of success and efficiency in whatsoever line of activity he might devote himself.

Always of a studious and reflective nature, it is not to be wondered at that early in life he gave attention to the great virtues of religion and experienced what in those days was called "a sound conversion" when he was sixteen years of age. He at once joined the Church and ever continued a lively member of the same.

Young Bissell attended the Williston Seminary, Northampton, Mass., but because he was not very strong or robust at this time, he was compelled to forego his cherished ambition of going to college. However, under the handicap of ill health, he continued his studies under tutors. He began the study of Greek at the very early age of six years and until the end of his ministerial labors, continued to make practical use of his Greek and Hebrew in the preparation of his sermons.

For years Brother Bissell felt the call to preach the gospel, but he was thirty-two years of age before he found he could take up the high and holy calling. His ministerial record is one of great faithfulness and rare fidelity to duty. Beginning his ministry in the Troy Conference, where he rendered very acceptable service, he felt compelled after a few years, on account of the health of one of the members of his family, to transfer to the Alabama Conference. There in the Southland also his noble record is well set forth as "faithful and honest," and we felt sure the Great Head of the Church will pronounce upon it all, "Well done."

In 1908 Brother Bissell was transferred to the West Virginia Conference and continued in active service and in labors abundant until 1921, when he sought the retired relationship and removed to Aberdeen, Md. After a little season of rest, he felt the urge upon him to preach the gospel and became a supply preacher for a year in the Baltimore Conference.

But at last exhausted nature had reached the limit of endurance. More and more frequently he complained of being "tired, oh! so tired." For almost a month he was confined to his bed, and finally God granted him the great boon of entering into the rest which remains for the people of God.

Funeral services were held at the late home in Aberdeen, and interment was at Peekskill, N. Y.

Brother Bissell is survived by his devoted wife, a daughter, Mrs. Frances Decker (widow of a minister), and a son, Rawlins, also a brother who lives in Massachusetts.

REV. C. R. SHACKLEFORD.

Rev. Charles Richard Shackleford was born at Tishemingo, Miss., May 12, 1847, and died at his home in Parkersburg, W. Va., April 5, 1893. He was licensed to preach in 1869, admitted to the West Virginia Conference in 1876 and served continuously in the effective ranks for forty-one years. On account of failing health he took the retired relation in 1916, and since that time has resided in Parkersburg.

He was twice married, first, in 1868, to Miss Martha Smith, of Roane county, who died December 21, 1889. To this union the following sons and daughters were born, who survive: C. W. Shackleford, of Standing Stone, W. Va.; J. K., of Divide, W. Va.; J. W., of Akron, Ohio; W. G., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. C. H. Forest and Mrs. V. L. Cottle, of Mount Hope, W. Va. His second marriage was in 1891, to Miss Anna V. Fitzwater, and to this union were given a son, Franklin Joyce, of Besoco, W. Va., and a daughter, Elsie, who resides with her mother in Parkersburg.

Brother Shackleford was a strong gospel preacher and served some of the important charges of the West Virginia Conference, among them First Church, Fairmont, and Central Church, Charleston, and was for six years presiding elder of the New River district, to which he was sent in 1889. During his long and faithful ministry he saw several young men converted who went into the ministry. His one controlling ambition was to preach the gospel, from which he never turned aside. As a presiding elder he was a faithful and wise administrator, and as a pastor he went to every charge, whether it was a hard circuit or a station, without raising a question.

During the years of his retirement he was regularly in the services of the St. Andrews Church, until too feeble to attend. In this church his funeral service was conducted by the pastor, Dr. W. B. King, assisted by the writer, and interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

H. C. HOWARD.

REV. T. R. FAULKNER.

The Rev. T. R. Faulkner, a superannuated minister of the West Virginia Conference, was born in Greenup county, Ky., January 9, 1844, and died at his home in Albright, W. Va., August 30, 1923.

In early life he lived with his mother at Ironton, Ohio, and attended school there. As the father had died before the son was born, the latter depended on his mother for his early care and training, and it seems that she did her part well. Later in life he attended school at Mount Union College. During the war between the States he served for almost four years in the Union Army.

Soon after the close of the war, he began to study for the ministry and was received into the West Virginia Conference in 1871. He served the following charges: Brandonville, Morgantown Circuit, Rowlesburg, Williamstown, St. Mary's, Hartford City, New Martinsville, Letart, Nicholas Circuit, Medaryville (Indiana), Albright, Aurora, Grantsville, Bruce-ton and Freemansburg.

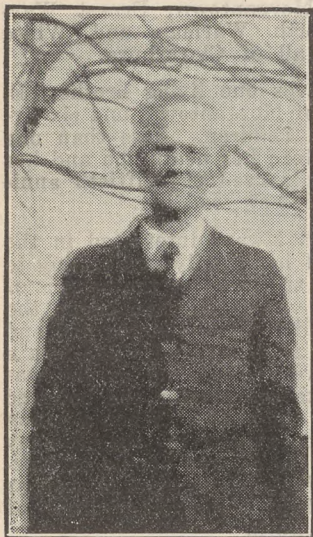

On April 29, 1875, he was married to Miss Martha V. Bishop. Three children have blessed the home.

Brother Faulkner was a true minister of the gospel, and was much appreciated and greatly beloved by all who knew him. His suffering was brief, he bore it patiently and rests from his labors.

O. U. MARPLE.

REV. L. N. COFFIELD.

Rev. L. N. Coffield was born in Marshall County, near the city of Wheeling, W. Va., in the year 1847. He died at Fort Smith, Ark., April 15, 1923. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1886, and continued in the effective relation in the West Virginia Annual Conference for thirteen years. At the close of that period of service he took the retired relation because of a serious throat trouble, and went to reside at Fort Smith, Ark., where the rest of his earthly life was spent.

Brother Coffield was a true minister of Jesus Christ. But for the affliction which seized him at so early a time of his ministry, his influence would have been far-reaching. Being of a deeply spiritual disposition, he added to it an intensity that made the message he delivered effective in carrying conviction to his hearers, and securing the conversion of many.

As the end of his earthly journey drew to its close, this servant of God was found ready for his coronation.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Harvey James, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Fort Smith, and his body laid to rest in the cemetery of that city.

S. B. HART.

REV. H. V. KINGSLEY.

Rev. H. V. Kingsley, the subject of this sketch, was born in the State of Pennsylvania, October 14, 1851. He died in the town of Handley, W. Va., December 2, 1922. Thus he was in the seventy-second year of his age at the time of death.

Brother Kingsley joined the West Virginia Annual Conference in 1896, and gave to the effective ministry fifteen years of service. Due to failing health he took the supernumerary relation after these years of service and continued in that relation until the end of his earthly journey. He was always an aggressive worker, and much of his ministry was spent in the harder fields of the Conference, but in these places to which he was sent he devoted himself to the work with such physical and spiritual abandon that the bodily strength gave away prematurely, but the spirit continued willing. There are places of worship in the West Virginia Conference made possible as such because of his self-sacrificing devotion to the cause to which he gave his life.

He leaves to mourn his going away a widow and five children. Of him we believe it can be said,

"Servant of God, well done."

S. B. HART.

MRS. CLEMMER WARMAN.

Martha Ellen Wells Warman was born February 22, 1849, and passed away Sunday morning at 12:30, May 27, 1923, at her home in Clarksburg, W. Va. May 7, 1873, she was united in marriage to the Rev. Clemmer Warman. To them were born six children, Mrs. G. W. Redfox, of Clarksburg; H. H. Warman, of Weston; W. C. Warman of Morgantown; Ernest Warman, Worth Warman and White Warman, all of Clarksburg.

She leaves one living brother, E. C. Wells of Morgantown, and six living grand children. Less than one month before her death she and her husband observed the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding.

She was always interested in the welfare of her family and willing to make any sacrifice for the benefit of the home. Mrs. Warman began the Christian life when a young girl and continued unto the end. She was a faithful worker as long as she was able. Like the Master she believed in helping the needy. When a young woman she taught in the Sunday school of the colored people of Morgantown for several years as well as helping them along other lines of Christian work.

Her main work in the Sunday School was among the small children. She liked to work among the young people in the Epworth League and was prime factor in organizing several Epworth League chapters and was very successful in that work. She was very successful in evangelistic efforts and won many to the Christian life. She was very attentive to the sick and ready to give all the aid she could to their comfort. On Mother's Day two years ago at the Stealey Heights M. E. church she recited the "Old Arm Chair," which was her last public effort and was so impressive that she was requested to recite it again this year.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Workman, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Engle, Rev. R. D. Hall and Rev. J. H. Funk. Her body was borne to its last resting place by her five sons and her son-in-law.

MRS. MOORE McNEILL.

On Sunday, November 26th, 1922, there passed to her reward from the home of her son, F. C. McNeill, at Smithville, W. Va., one of the choice spirits of the Church, a faithful and beloved wife, a devoted mother—Jane Caldwell McNeill, wife of the Rev. Moore McNeill. She was the daughter of John and Jane Poole Caldwell, and was born near Moundsville, W. Va., April 8, 1845.

She was converted at the age of ten and rendered more than sixty years of faithful, effective service as a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In her eighteenth year she became the wife of the Rev. Moore McNeill, of the West Virginia Conference, and was a true companion and helpmeet to him through the years of his active ministry, always at his side in sacrifice and service. Kingwood, Harrisville, Mannington, Spencer, Dallas and Smithville are the charges they served, and at each she will be very kindly remembered.

Through the years of her husband's retirement she has been a loving comforter. Their great devotion to each other in the evening of life has been beautiful to see. After the terrible tragedy which resulted in her death—the burning of the family home from which her death resulted. Through the years of their retirement the preachers always found a gracious welcome at their country home near Smithville.

She was the mother of twelve children, ten of whom survive her: Cloyd T., Kellerton, Iowa; William K., near Harrisville; Frank C., Smithville; Burleigh, at home; Mrs. George M. Clammer, Fort Collins, Colo.; Mrs. Gus J. Shaffer, Kingwood; Mrs. Albert L. Ireland, Buckhannon; Mrs. H. H. Cochran, Lost Creek; Mrs. Stanley J. Morrow, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Kenney P. Wright, Washington, D. C.

MRS. EMILY CATHERINE JENKINS.

Mrs. Emily Catherine Jenkins, wife of our brother, the Rev. J. S. Jenkins, was born in Sissonville, W. Va., December 28, 1836, and died at Charleston, W. Va., December 14, 1922. She was well-born; her parents were David and Mary Shirkey. They were known and honored for their rugged integrity. They were lovers of the Bible and the Sabbath; having small regard for the merely garish virtues, they were plain and reserved, almost puritanic in their devotion to conscience. Such was the inheritance, and stimulating atmosphere, in which she was born and grew up. No wonder that she was steady, true and tireless and put the best of herself into the Master's work. She knew no other way. Her religion dominated and permeated her entire life. Thus we find that she was richly dowered in the home of her childhood. By inheritance she received the gospel of cheerful living; so that she entered upon life believing:

a number of things,
I'm sure we all should be as happy as kings."

On June 7, 1870, she was married to the Rev. James W. Grose. At once, with efficiency and wisdom, she entered upon the glorious work of a consecrated service for her Lord. After five fruitful years in the ministry together, Brother Grose was not, for God took him. She next married John S. Guthrie, who departed this life in 1900. On January 18, 1910, she was united in marriage to Rev. J. S. Jenkins. For twelve years these friends of God labored in love together in the Master's vineyard. With a cultured mind, a keen personality, a deep and abiding religious experience, she gave herself with a beautiful devotion, to every interest of the Kingdom of God. Converted in her twelfth year, she loved her Lord all the days of her life. For seventy-four years she was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The sick knew her well. Like her Lord, she went about doing good. Whenever the twilight deepened into darkness anywhere for anybody, she graciously went into the darkness with the light of her sympathy and love. She felt the pain of others in her own tender heart. In her home God dwelt, not as a guest, but rather as One whom her soul loved. Religious talk was natural in her presence; she delighted to speak of the things that shall not pass away. The writer is thinking now of the family altar around which Sister Jenkins met God daily; there she received the strength, the comfort, the sympathy, the love that filled her heart with light and peace and faith that kept her faithful until death. She knew her sunset would be coming soon; that her day's work was fully done; but the love of Christ constrained her. On December 14, God's hour arrived; the time of her departure was at hand; the Angels were there. A slight dizziness came to the body and brain and she made the transit from mortality to immortality.

An impressive funeral service was conducted by the Rev. William Shultz, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, Charleston, W. Va., assisted by Rev. C. B. Graham and Rev. C. R. Havighurst, after which the body was borne by loving hands to the Spring Hill Cemetery, to await the coming of that morning when death shall have lost its sting and the grave has lost its victory.

"She walks in soft white light,
And summers high in bliss,
Upon the hills of God."

T. HOWARD JONES.

MRS. E. C. WOODRUFF.

Mary Ellen, the daughter of William H. Chapman, was born in Somerset county, Pa., May 9, 1853. She was reared in Grantsville, Md., where she attended school, Sunday School and church.

In her sixteenth year she was converted and received into the Church, by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Woodruff, and continued faithful and steadfast to the end. She entered into rest March 12, 1923.

As the wife of a Methodist preacher, the Rev. E. C. Woodruff, of the West Virginia Conference, to whom she was united in marriage March 5, 1871, she endured the toils and privations incident to the itinerancy for about forty years, and also entered into the very real pleasures and joys of God's service.

Funeral services at the home were held by the pastor, Dr. G. D. Smith, assisted by District Superintendent J. B. Workman, and interment was in Hanover Cemetery, Buckhannon.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five daughters: Mrs. Anna V. Freeland, of Terra Alta, W. Va., and Mrs. M. Blanche Frame, Mrs. Edna M. Lorentz, Mrs. Edith L. Fowkes and Mrs. Ruth H. Hoffman, all of Buckhannon, and one sister, Mrs. Amanda Kellar, of Cumberland, Md. Three sons preceded her to "the undiscovered country from whose bourn no traveler returns."

We cannot bring her back to us, but we can go to her.

MRS. AMBIZETTE LOVETT.

Mrs. Ambizette Lovett was born December 7, 1839. She married Rev. W. E. Lovett, August 26, 1857. For thirty-six years she shared the burdens and joys of a Methodist minister's wife, ministering not alone to those of her own household, but as a good angel of the Lord, making the road easier for all those whose privilege it was to know her. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when she was nineteen years old and continued faithful and loyal to her church and her Master throughout her long journey here on earth. She finished the earthly part of her journey December 12th, 1922, and quietly and peacefully slipped away from her home on Pike street, Belington, and went to her mansion yonder, long since prepared for her. "Mother Lovett," as she was lovingly called, was always spoken of as having such a sunny disposition. As one of her pastor's put it, "She always seemed like 'a bottle of sunshine'." Who can tell what the harvest of this worthy life will be? Sixty-four years as a servant of the Most High, is distinction which might well be coveted by all, but is granted to but few.

Sister Lovett is survived by two sons, Porter L., of Belington, and Clark, and one daughter, Ida, of Belington. Two sons, Fred and Lloyd, preceded her to the great beyond.

Services were conducted Thursday, December 14, 1922, and her body laid to rest by the side of that of her husband, in the family plot at Belington.

"She climed the steep ascent of heaven
Thru peril, toil and pain;
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in her train'."

MRS. JENNIE ENGLE.

Mrs. Jennie Engle, who departed this life in Fairmont, West Virginia, on May 1, 1922, was born on August 21, 1845, in Wayne County, Virginia. She was a member of a prominent southern family, living part of her early life in Kentucky and Virginia. Her marriage to Captain Jeremiah Engle took place on February 19, 1867. To this union were born five children, one of whom died in infancy. The four remaining are: Harry E., of Fairmont, W. Va.; Talton W., of Grafton, W. Va.; Mrs. H. M. Dobson, of Wheeling, W. Va., and William N., of Fairmont, W. Va.

In 1871 Mrs. Engle united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and was a faithful and active worker in it the remainder of her life. As a preacher's wife she was a helpful, sympathetic, and willing partner and gave untiring service to the churches which they served. Rev. Engle served prominent pastorates and was three times appointed to Fairmont, twice as pastor of the different churches in Fairmont and once as Presiding Elder of the District.

The temperance cause found an ardent supporter in Mrs. Engle. She began working for this cause in the pioneer days of the Crusaders and later when the Woman's Temperance Union was organized, was one of its prominent leaders in the community in which she lived, devoting years of service to the cause, being active in local as well as in wider circles throughout the state. For many years she was vice-president of the State W. C. T. U. and at the time of her death she was holding the office of vice-president at large.

Mrs. Engle was deeply interested in missions and especially devoted to the missionary societies of her church. Because of her zeal, the Engle Settlement House was named in honor of her. The Woman's Home Missionary Society also honored her with a perpetual membership. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society honored her with a memorial membership. She was an inspiration to both societies and equally loved by each. Her memory in the First Methodist Episcopal church is cherished by many who knew her as friend, neighbor, co-worker and teacher.

MRS. EUNICE CATHERINE BOLTON.

Mrs. Eunice Catherine Bolton, aged seventy-eight years, passed away on February 28, 1923, after an illness of a prolonged nature. Mrs. Bolton was the widow of the late Rev. James W. Bolton, formerly pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Fairmont, West Virginia. The family was among the pioneers of Fairmont and they were prominent in the early activities of the city and community.

Mrs. Bolton was born April 4, 1844, and she was a daughter of the late Harrison W. and Eliza J. Buckley, of Parkersburg, W. Va. Mrs. Bolton leaves two daughters: Mrs. John M. Harris, of Huntsville, Ala., and Mrs. Della B. Hassler, of Wilkesburg, Pa. There are three grand children: Mrs. Claude H. Layman, of Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. Elizabeth Daniels, of Newark, N. J., and B. Earl Linn, of San Antonio, Texas.

Residing in Fairmont the greater part of her life, Mrs. Bolton had an extensive acquaintance and had many devoted friends. She was a faithful member and had been very active in the work of the First Methodist Episcopal Church before her health became impaired. She was a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, of which latter organization she was honored by being made a perpetual member.

MRS. G. W. MARSTON.

Eliza Maryland Irons was born in Wayne County, W. Va., Nov. 7th, 1866, and departed this life in Williamstown, Sept. 21, 1923, aged 56 years, 10 months and 14 days. She was a descendant of two Maryland and Virginia families, a daughter of Solomon and Susan Irons and granddaughter of Wiley and Eliza Hatten, of Wayne county. In her girlhood she professed religion and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she remained a faithful member all the years since.

On Sept. 9th, 1885, at her childhood home in Wayne county, she was married to Rev. George W. Marston of the West Virginia Conference and for thirty-eight years has been the devoted wife of a Methodist minister. To this union there were born three daughters: Mrs. James A. Gay, of Huntington; Mrs. K. S. Weiford, of Pocahontas county (deceased several years ago), and Mrs. W. H. Hogue, of Washington, D. C. Until a few years ago, when failing health made it no longer possible, she was active in the work of the Church on the various circuits and stations served by her husband as pastor. Her husband, two of the daughters and two grandsons survive her, besides one brother, three sisters and many other relatives.

Through the joys and sorrows of these many years she proved a faithful wife and mother, a Christian woman, a good neighbor, always loved by all who knew her. For the past nine years she was a mother to her little grandson, the child of her deceased daughter, on whom she lavished to the utmost her affection and care.

Her funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 23, conducted by Rev. J. W. Dowds, Cambridge, Ohio, and Rev. C. A. Snider, of Williamstown. The fine address, excellent music, many floral offerings, and large attendance made it very beautiful and impressive. Burial was in Riverview cemetery. In the mystery and agony of their sorrow they will miss her, but hope to meet her again in that world that has no pain or tears.

MRS. PERSIS ORWEN.

Stricken with pneumonia, Mrs. Orwen, widow of Rev. E. H. Orwen, passed on to her eternal home on December 22, 1922. Mrs. Orwen was born on June 14, 1840, at Elk Creek, New York. She was united in marriage to Rev. E. H. Orwen in 1859. Rev. Orwen was then pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Schenevus, New York.

Mrs. Orwen was a devout Christian and the church, its activities and interest, was very dear to her heart. She was an interested and faithful reader of the Christian Advocate and a regular attendant at the church services. She took delight in recalling the days spent with her husband in the West Virginia Conference.

Her nearest relatives who survive her are: One sister-in-law, Mrs. R. D. Hubbard, Mankato, Minn.; four nieces, Mrs. T. M. Richter, St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Jeanette M. Harper, Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. Mora Jenkins and Miss Clara Hubbard, of Schenevus, N. Y.; two nephews, J. Hubbard of Texas, and Robert S. Brown, of California.

The funeral services which were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Aberdeen, Maryland, where she had resided since her husband's death, were conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. A. Duren.

The acting secretary therefore declared a quorum present, and called for election of officers of the conference.

Judge Charles W. Lynch, of Clarksburg, was nominated and elected temporary chairman, and Roy Reger, of Charleston, was nominated and elected temporary secretary of the Conference. On motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

The chairman announced that election of six delegates and three reserves to the General Conference was the next order of business.

A motion was made and carried, that nominations be made by handing to the chairman the names of the candidates in writing, and that such names be written in alphabetical order on the black-board.

It was further moved and carried that only the blank ballots furnished by the Methodist Book Concern be used in voting for candidates.

The chairman on motion appointed the following tellers:

O. G. Arbogast, Robert A. Armstrong, W. G. Brown, J. R. Cole, E. T. England, C. W. Flesher, L. E. Hess, Mentor Metzger, William S. O'Brien, Peter Silman, S. A. Wallace, W. W. Wertz.

The following named brethren were then placed in nomination for delegates to the General Conference of 1924:

Buckhannon District	S. L. Richards
Charleston District	W. T. Williamson
Elkins District	C. D. Howard
Huntington District	W. H. Newcomb, W. H. Rardin
Morgantown District	C. W. Evans, A. G. Hughes
Parkersburg District	W. S. Speece, T. E. Vineyard
Wheeling District	W. R. Cooley, W. G. Cunningham, C. M. Hood, R. B. Nay, L. S. Schwenk

Thereupon four ballots were taken, with the following result:

Candidate	Ballots
W. T. Williamson	135
C. D. Howard	119
C. W. Evans	98
R. B. Nay	84
S. L. Richards	82
W. H. Newcomb	80	56	52	84
W. H. Rardin	73	33	38	35
T. E. Vineyard	57	13	10	3
A. G. Hughes	53	18	13	6
C. M. Hood	44	11	7	4
L. S. Schwenck	42	8	12	9
W. G. Cunningham	39	4	3	3
W. R. Cooley	33	7	—	—
W. S. Speece	25	2	3	—
Total Vote Cast	162	152	139	144
Necessary to Elect	82	77	70	73

Thereupon the chairman declared W. T. Williamson, C. D. Howard, C. W. Evans, R. B. Nay, S. L. Richards and W. H. Newcomb duly elected as delegates to the General Conference to be held in 1924.

Upon motion it was ordered that the three candidates having the next highest votes after the last delegate elected, viz, W. H. Rardin, L. S. Schwenck, and A. G. Hughes be declared elected as reserve delegates.

Upon motion a recess was taken until 1:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Lay Conference was called to order promptly at 1:30 by the Chairman.

The following resolution was presented and, on motion, adopted:

Whereas, during the past quadrennium H. P. McGregor, W. P. McAboy, and L. C. Anderson, former members of the General Conference from the W. Va. Conference have died, therefore be it Resolved, that G. W. Atkinson, Charles W. Lynch and William B. Mathews, also former members of the General Conference, be and they hereby are appointed a committee to prepare suitable memorials for these, our deceased brethren.

The memorial of Gulf Conference was presented, proposing that the constitution be so amended as to admit lay delegates as members of the Annual Conference, and after discussion the memorial was approved by a vote of 79 to 0.

President Elmer Guy Cutshall, of W. Va. Wesleyan College, and Hon. W. G. Brown, State Prohibition Commissioner, addressed the conference.

James M. Crump introduced the following resolution, which upon motion, was adopted:

Resolved: That we oppose dancing and card playing and instruct our delegates to vote and use their influence in the General Conference to keep this provision regarding these evils in the discipline.

The following resolution was introduced and read, and, on motion, was adopted:

We rejoice in the progress of temperance and prohibition in the state and nation. We also record our protest against any slacking of interest in the enforcement of the Prohibition Law. In the name of over 80,000 members of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the boundaries of the West Virginia Conference, we declare against any change in the Volstead Act, or the legalization of the manufacture or sale of light wines or beer for beverage purposes, or official action that nullifies our prohibition laws.

While much favorable progress has been made in the enforcement of the prohibition, still much remains to be done. The forces of iniquity and every form of wrong have formed an alliance to defeat the law, and by insidious propaganda are attempting to secure its repeal. Wherever they can, they use the press to publish false and misleading articles and to distort facts concerning the enforcement of the law and attack its officers in the faithful discharge of their duty. They attempt to control elections by electing officials who will wink at the nullification of the law and shield offenders against it. To the enforcement of the law we solemnly pledge our honor and support.

Therefore we will use our best efforts to aid in the organization and work of non-partisan law enforcement societies throughout the state to aid all officers in the destruction of moonshining and every form of violation of the liquor laws of the state and nation.

Resolved, therefore,

1. That the law requiring the teaching of the effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human body, that was repealed when our school law was re-written in 1908, be again placed upon the statute book, so that our children may have the benefit of scientific instruction in temperance.

2. That our Sunday Schools return to the teaching and study of practical lessons in temperance at least once a quarter, and that our pulpits constantly impress the solemn obligations of Christian citizenship upon our people.

3. That our prohibition laws should be amended to forbid and punish public drunkenness, and to provide for the removal from office of any public official found guilty of such offense.

4. That we commend the Federal Court and the District Attorney's Office of the Northern District of West Virginia, the Department of Justice Agents and the prohibition officers for their effective work in the prosecution of violations of the Volstead Act, and while we desire a fair and impartial trial of those violating the law, we favor vigorous prosecutions and the imposition of such penalties as will effectually prevent such utter disregard of law as recent developments have disclosed.

5. Resolved that we tender our thanks to Hon. W. G. Brown, Prohibition Commissioner of West Virginia for the faithful manner in which he has conducted the work of his department, and pledge to him our earnest support in every effort to enforce the law.

6. Resolved, further, that we pledge our faithful cooperation to Rev. O. M. Pullen, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, in furthering the interest of temperance along all line in this state, and ask his appointment to office which he now holds for the coming conference year.

7. Resolved that we pledge our co-operation to Hon. J. H. Gadd, recently appointed Federal Director of Prohibition for West Virginia, in his efforts to enforce the Volstead Act.

MEMORIALS

Brother William B. Mathews presented the following memorial of L. C. Anderson, which was read, and adopted by a standing vote:

L. C. ANDERSON, A. B., LL. B., LL. D.

By William Burdette Mathews.

The religious life of Luther Colfax Anderson was neither an obsession nor an incident. It was not spasmodic or spectacular. Christian activities with him were simply a part of the day's work, of every day's work. As a child, he was trained up in the way he should have gone, and he did not depart from it. He remembered his Creator in the days of his youth, so when his maturity came, as a matter of course and as the logical outcome of truth and faith, he performed his religious devotions and individual worship, enriched by Christian service to those with whom he came in personal contact and even to those in the ends of the world.

Mr. Anderson always found time in the course of an exceptionally busy life to render faithful service to the church. He was as painstaking in the discharge of commonplace duties in the Sunday school and prayer service as he was in meeting the responsibilities of important legislative functions in the General Conference. He squared his life by his conscience and profession, with the consequent result that he was recognized by all of his associates as chaste in thought and deed. With such a life and with such efficient capacity for utilizing it for the extension of the kingdom of God among men, it is easy to appreciate his influence and power for good. His example, private conversation, public address, written page, constant demeanor, all made for righteousness. Likewise he gave liberally of thought, time and money to every movement for moral, civic and community welfare and betterment. As a champion of the right he was as uncompromising as he was aggressive. The soul of honor, he was incapable of doing a little or mean thing, but co-operated with others in every good work with a broad and sympathetic appreciation of their better traits and charity for their weaknesses.

His influence was as potent in his own home as in the community and in the State. He was a home builder and home lover. The parental efficiency of Mr. Anderson and his talented wife is amply attested by three worthy sons of these worthy parents. The pardonable pride of the father in these sons inspired in them the self reliance and ambition to emulate his character and strive toward his high plane of intellectual and religious life, and under no circumstances to bring reproach upon the family name. Luther Anderson was a modern knight of the faith, to-wit, a sane, earnest Christian gentleman.

Mr. Anderson was a public official in all three departments of government: in the executive as a school officer, in the judicial as an assistant attorney general, in the legislative as a member of the House of Delegates. Being thoroughly educated himself, he was deeply interested in the education of others and served as assistant State Superintendent of Schools, member of the State Board of Regents, trustee of West Virginia Wesleyan College and president of the local board of education. In every office he held he gave the public the full measure of his large ability and as faithful and loyal service as he would have given his clients or his own personal affairs.

Essentially, Mr. Anderson was a lawyer and when he died in the prime of his life the professional career of one of West Virginia's best lawyers was at an end. He did a phenomenal amount of important legal work in State and Federal Courts and even when he knew he was stricken with an incurable malady, he cheerfully continued in the face of grim pain and suffering to labor in behalf of his clients. On this occasion it is not necessary to review his professional achievements, or to analyze further his personal character. He was an observing traveller and a practical philosopher whose life has taught as clearly and conclusively as the poet has sung to

"So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon; but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

The committee appointed to prepare a memorial for William Presley McAboy not having been able to do so, the Secretary requested W. H. Newcomb, of Huntington, to prepare such memorial, which here follows:

WILLIAM PRESLEY McABOY

Born September 12, 1858, died January 4, 1921.

By W. H. Newcomb.

Mr. McAboy was born at Rutland, Ohio, where his early boyhood was spent until his parents moved to Putnam County, West Virginia.

Early in life he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and his whole life was lived ever true to the teachings of his church and his Savior.

He taught school in Putnam and Cabell Counties. In 1900 he began his public career with his election to the office of Sheriff of Putnam County. He lived in that county about twenty years and during that time he organized the Putnam County Bank at Hurricane, with which bank he was actively connected for several years.

In 1904 he moved to Huntington and was one of the organizers of the Twentieth Street Bank. He was cashier of this bank from the time of its organization until his death.

In 1914 he was elected to the State Senate from the Fifth Senatorial District on the Republican ticket. He was one of the outstanding dry men of the Senate and was Chairman of the Committee on Prohibition and Temperance in the session of 1917.

He was a member of the Seventh Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church in Huntington and took an active part in the work of the church as trustee and Sunday School teacher. His sterling Christian character made him a leader in religious and social affairs of his community. As a tither his contributions to his own and other churches and to charity organizations did much to further the work of the church and to better social conditions in Huntington.

He served as a lay delegate in the General Conference of the church which was held in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1920.

His death followed an operation for appendicitis, his vitality not being sufficient to withstand the shock of the operation.

Respected and trusted by all who knew him, he was successful in business, faithful to his church and its teachings, and his death made us realize that a good man has gone from among us.

He is survived by his widow, one son and two daughters, all of whom reside in Huntington.

No further business appearing, the lay conference adjourned.

LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Official Journal and Minutes of the Sixteenth Annual Session of the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference, Held in the Second United Presbyterian Church at Wheeling, W. Va., September 28-29, 1923.

The Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference convened in its sixteenth annual meeting in the Second United Presbyterian Church, at Wheeling, W. Va., on September 28, 1923, at 2:15 P. M., with the President, Charles W. Evans, presiding.

Devotional services were conducted by Mr. Herbert L. Smith.

The following vice presidents then made reports concerning their districts: Mr. S. L. Richards, Buckhannon District; Mr. John Raine, Elkins District; Mr. Herbert L. Smith, Parkersburg District, and Mr. L. S. Schwenck, Wheeling District. These reports indicated that advancement had been made during the past year in all branches of the church as to these particular districts. Mr. Richards, of the Buckhannon District, pointed out a method of organizing the Ladies' Aid, which had proved very successful in the First M. E. Church, Weston, W. Va. It was divided into three divisions, namely, Pipe Organ, Budget and Parsonage. By this method every member of an otherwise unwieldy organization was given something definite to do. He also reported that each division had measured up to the responsibilities placed upon it, a fine pipe organ being the accomplished objective of the Pipe Organ Division.

The following telegram from Major C. R. Morgan, President of the Charleston District, was read:

"Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 28, 1923.

Chas. W. Evans,

President Laymen's Association, W. Va. Conference,
Wheeling, W. Va.

Greatly regret inability to attend meeting today. Trust God's richest blessing may attend your effort and that meeting may sound strong chord of militant Methodism in West Virginia.

C. R. MORGAN."

The following report of the secretary-treasurer was then submitted and ordered to be filed:

The activities of the secretary-treasurer for the conference year of 1922-23 were limited to an effort to raise the pledge of $700.00 voted at the last annual meeting of the Association to be applied toward the payment of the expenses of the young ministers attending this year's Bible and Training School at Mt. Lake Park, Md.

This pledge was apportioned equally among the seven districts in the State and the President of the Association addressed a letter to each District President, reminding him of the pledge, its purpose and the amount of his district's quota. In addition to this preliminary letter from the President, a total of thirty-five letters, one telegram and one long distance call cover the secretary-treasurer's efforts as to the districts in regard to the matter.

The following table itemizes the results:

District	Amount Raised
Buckhannon	$100.00
Charleston	55.00

Elkins	100.00
Huntington	100.00
Morgantown	100.00
Parkersburg	48.50
Wheeling	100.00
	$603.50

Fortunately the expenses did not reach the amount expected, and Dr. Frank S. Townsend, who was in charge of the school, notified the treasurer that $545 would suffice to discharge the laymen's self imposed obligation.

It might be well to refer here to Dr. Townsend's repeated kind expressions relative to the assistance given this meritorious cause by the laymen, contained in each letter received from him, as well as to the resolution adopted by the young ministers in which they evidenced their appreciation. It is as follows:

"MT. LAKE PARK,

"SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

"The West Virginia students of this school are anxious that the laymen of our Conference should know how much we appreciate the interest they have taken in us, and the help they have extended toward us financially; and we trust that we shall prove our worthiness by becoming valiant and true in our calling to the Ministry and the Church which we all love."

Judge Charles W. Lynch of Clarksburg, W. Va., then addressed the meeting on the subject, "Lay Representation in The Annual Conference." The following is a synopsis of Judge Lynch's address:

Again ministers and laymen face the apparently ever recurring and always deferred hope of an Annual Conference constructed upon the plan of equality of representation. It is the same right, pressed for years, without success, for like representation in the General Conference long contended for and finally approved; first, with unseemly restriction, and finally upon the basis of numerical equality. No disastrous consequence has resulted or is likely to result from this association of the minority with a majority of the Methodist constituency. The same General Conference proportional composition obtains in all the details of its organization; that is, each committee is composed of an equal number of ministers and laymen.

Several propositions are now before the Annual Conference for approval or disapproval. Perhaps the one most favored by the clergy proposes separate conferences to be held at the same time and place under different organizations. The adoption of this plan is equivalent to a rejection of all proposals, and, if approved, its obsolescence will inevitably begin with the date of its ratification. It will be an entity without jurisdiction, a conference in name only.

As members of our own Annual Conference have not ventured to discuss it in public and have merely expressed their opinion by ballot, we must of necessity resort to conjecture in order to ascertain the grounds of objection to a joint participation in a conference having either equal or unequal representation. The General Conference has submitted no plan that has not excluded laymen from engaging in the discussion and decision of questions affecting the character of ministerial members of Annual Conferences as now or hereafter constituted. The same reservations run through all such proposals as also upon the right to vote upon the selection of the courses of study. Laymen have greater opportunity to know ministers and all that such knowledge implies than members of the ministry. The latter meet and mingle with each other occasionally, only, or sometimes merely casually; the former throughout the entire year. Which of the two classes then is the more competent to judge as to character? Is competency to be adjudged a disqualification? Or if not a disqualification is there an implication then that the knowledge so acquired might be misapplied to the detriment of the person whose character is involved? Neither of these assumptions rests upon a sound basis. Laymen, as a general rule, have at least as much sympathy for ministers as the latter have for each other. Also the Annual Conference assignment is as much a matter of interest and concern to the laymen as to the ministers, and laymen even now exert an influence in an effort to secure the services of the pastor whose appointment they desire, though not always with uniform success. What urgent reason militates against this activity on their part? They are in a position to know their needs, in that line of work, and can, and sometimes do, adjudge rightly as to the measure of the man needed.

Nor must it be presupposed that laymen are less competent to pass upon the fitness and orthodoxy of the courses of study as to which there is much discussion. To suggest either directly or impliedly the lack of intelligence sufficient to qualify laymen, especially those likely to be called upon for the purpose, to express an opinion upon the books recommended for use in the early stages of a minister's experience, is inconsistent with a just appraisal of the facts. There are in most congregations men and women who can and do form accurate judgments as to questions involving Methodist teachings and whose loyalty to such teachings is worthy of general emulation in these days when there is a tendency to drift in the opposite direction.

Apart from the restrictions discussed, others less apparent, because not disclosed except by secret ballot, are conjectured. Are they due to want of a desire to confer with none other than those who are of the same order and for that cause refuse to admit within the inner circle representatives of the great body of Methodists? If this is an excuse, why not frankly declare it; why suppress it?

Inevitably, there is and must be throughout every year an immediate contact of laymen and ministers. Both meet upon the same level; they act together, work together, each dominated by the desire to advance a common cause among the children of men.

The time will come when the prejudice, if such it be, will disappear, and when it does, Methodists, without discrimination by orders, will confer together in one body and in such conference determine the most promising method for the Christianization of the restless world about us. The Wesleys utilized laymen for the promotion of the cause in which they were vitally interested, nor did they hesitate to confer with their lay-preachers, without the shadow of disparagement. What the Wesleys did then they would probably do now, were they living.

Dr. Frank S. Townsend then addressed the meeting on the topic, "Young Preachers and Old Preachers." He said in part:

I feel greatly honored to be permitted to appear before this Laymen's Association. I have always been a great believer in the laymen and consider that the increased activity of the laymen is one of the most hopeful things in the present condition of the church. If it were not for the laymen we preachers would have nobody to preach to and we would have nobody to furnish our support. Surely we should be appreciative. I will not allow myself to be drawn into a discussion of the laymen in the Annual Conference, save to express my profound conviction that they will eventually get there.

I believe that we should have very high standards for the ministry, both in their intellectual and their spiritual development. Much of my own work has been in connection with the efforts to help our young preachers in their studies and I am honored now in being the Dean of the Pittsburgh Area Summer School of Theology, which for the past two summers has met at Mountain Lake Park. The brilliant success attained by this school last summer would have been impossible but for the generous financial assistance of your Association. Of the 83 students enrolled, 36 were from the West Virginia Conference and they made a brilliant record, which reflected great honor upon our Conference. The other conferences had accepted West Virginia leadership in this school and came into our Conference territory to attend it. They were moved to great admiration of West Virginia methods and work, particularly of the financial arrangements. West Virginia students received their traveling expenses both ways and substantial help toward their board. I explained to the other Conferences that I could do this for my students because your Association was behind me in the matter and they seemed wishful for such laymen in their own Conferences. The students were moved to deep gratitude toward you, which they expressed in the resolution they have sent to you. I earnestly ask that you will continue your support of this school for the coming year.

It is very important for preachers to be well trained and I believe that you will agree with me that their efficiency will also be greatly promoted by their being assured of a comfortable support in their active ministry and also of a reasonable pension in their old age. To me has been committed not only a special care for the young men but also an important responsibility for the Veterans of our Conference. I have never taken the attitude that a Methodist preacher, whether effective or retired, is the object of charity. I ask for him justice and feel confident of your kind and generous acceptance of that basis for his support both in vigor and in old age. A famous dairy farm in the middle west has large numbers of blooded cattle, which are cared for with the very best provision of food, shelter and everything else which will secure health and comfort. A great bulletin board, put where a railroad passes the farm, bears the words, "All the milk from this farm is made by contented cows." It is obvious that such cows will produce more and better milk than poor beasts, half fed and miserably cared for generally. You laymen will get the best service from your pastors when you keep them contented for the present and hopeful for the future.

Our Conference thus far has not been able to pay the disciplinary allowance or pension to its men in the retired relation. Our Permanent Fund is less than half as large as it should be. In the coming Conference year there will be a campaign which will ask for four hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of raising the fund to half a million at least. This will be an average gift of about five dollars for every lay member of the church in the Conference. Of course to attain this average some must give largely but the average ought to be attained. I am confident of your support in this matter and feel that you will respond both with your work and your gifts when the campaign is put on.

I thank you for the honor of addressing you and the privilege of representing to you the causes in which I am so deeply interested.

The meeting then adjourned to enable the delegates from each district to elect representatives on the Resolutions and Nominations Committees. These elections resulted in the selection of the following committees:

Resolutions: E. T. England, chairman; W. B. Mathews, C. W. Lynch, C. D. Howard, J. W. Whittaker, Clyde O. Law, J. A. Boyer.

Nominations: W. G. Brown, chairman; Roy Reger, Luther Fisher, James M. Crump, L. E. Meredith, W. A. Watson, L. S. Schwenck.

7:30 P. M.

Joint Session of the Laymen's Association and Conference Held in the Fourth Street M. E. Church.

Charles W. Evans, President of Laymen's Association, presiding.

After musical numbers rendered by the Fourth Street M. E. Church choir and opening prayer by Mr. E. Dow Bancroft, Urbana, Ohio, Professor W. A. Elliott of Allegheny College, a member of the Commission on Unification, was introduced by President Charles W. Evans, and addressed the Association. Professor Elliott gave a very instructive address on the subject, "Unification from the Laymen's Standpoint," from which the following excerpts are taken:

I am not to discuss the question of Unification exhaustively. I am to tell you how it appears to a "mere laymen." I want to voice what I believe the very great majority of laymen in both branches of Methodism are thinking on this subject.

"Mere laymen" are very impatient with petty criticism of the plan. Suggestions that the plan must be amended in this or that form of phrasing, whatever be the motive back of them, can have but one result, to postpone for another quadrennium, or even longer, the process now so near consummation. Unification or Federation or any other name will be satisfactory to us if the process begins quickly, proceeds rapidly, and results finally in a complete amalgamation of the two churches. It is no time now to be quibbling over words.

We have just as little patience with the cry of "Sectionalism," which is raised if in the discussion some one uses the words North and South. These terms may be used in a purely geographical sense. They are not indicative of a sectional spirit except to one who is supersensitive or who is raising this ghost to frighten the friends of union.

We insist that the critics of the plan should at least read carefully the plan before they start to argue against it.

We insist that a fair answer to the question, "Why Unification?" is "Why Not Unification?" Differences between the Methodists and the Baptists or the Presbyterians or the Congregationalists, are easily comprehended. But why two Methodist denominations? The two are not sister denominations; they are rival claimants for the same great heritage—the name, the traditions, the historical prestige, the unique organization of Methodists. The very intensity of the rivalry shows the value of the heritage. This state of rivalry is especially embarrassing in the foreign fields. Our mission workers in both churches are crying for relief from this needless handicap.

Wherein do the two churches differ?

"We, the Commission on Unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, holding that these two churches are essentially one church, one in origin, in belief, in spirit, in purpose and polity, and desiring that this essential unity may be made actual in organization and administration throughout the world—" So reads the first paragraph of the report of the Joint Commission. Can any one point out an error in that? What differences are there actually except in organization and administration? And even there the differences are so small as to be almost indistinguishable. There are no differences that seem to a mere layman worth talking about except those growing out of the unhappy events of 1844 and 1861-65, and the subsequent results of those differences. We laymen think that it is about time to turn away from those differences and set our faces to the future. It has new problems, new battles. Let there be no more balancing of wrong against wrong and mistake against mistake and claim against claim. Let us take the sponge of forgetfulness and wipe the slate clean. There have been many—too many—examples of littleness, of pure cantankerousness on both sides. It is unprofitable to try to apportion these to their respective sides.

But it is claimed that the proposed plan does not fully unite—it does not weld or fuse the two churches at once into one. There can be no fusion without intense heat, the shriek and hissing of molten metal; no welding without heavy blows. Must we pay the price of furnace fires and far-echoing blows that union may come? There is another and better way. It can be done by grafting.

For the process of grafting three essentials must be present: Life, favorable proximity, time.

The first of these essentials the two churches now possess. The great mass of the membership of both churches genuinely and earnestly desire to exemplify the life of the Master. They possess the spirit.

Favorable proximity is provided by the plan of unification—not neighborhood rivalry and keen competition, as now exists in many places, but ultimate identity of name, of aim, of organization and administration. Churches now jealous rivals will gradually unite. The reasons for separation will have disappeared. The provisions for frequent exchange of presiding bishops and transfer of preachers will speedily result in better acquaintance, truer appreciation, more brotherly relations.

Contrary to what some critics say, not one member or church or preacher or conference will be compelled to change the existing relations. The complete merging of the two churches on the border will not be instantaneous. It will be gradual and unforced and so natural. Friction will be reduced to a minimum. Sore spots will gradually disappear. This will take time, but we can afford to take time provided the process is going on. Let us not be deceived into waiting until the two churches are ready to merge immediately and completely. That time will never come.

A careful reading of the plan will show that it contains the germ of union. It does not provide complete union but it does start a process that will inevitably result in complete union. It does not settle all questions. It makes possible the settlement of them as they come up for settlement. The present status of the negro in our church will continue until it is changed for something better. The Jurisdictional Conferences will inevitably atrophy in time and drop off leaving the General Conference, as now, the center of legislation.

Other advantages that mere laymen see in Unification are:

1. Possibilities of reducing materially the overhead expenses of the church organization.
2. Decreased cost and increased efficiency of the publishing activities of the church.
3. Elimination of duplication of effort and expenditure in many places.
4. Removal of a multitude of instances of local jealousy and irritation.
5. An example of true Christian unity—much needed by all Protestant denominations in these days when all the resources of the church must be used to combat the powers of evil.
6. Very many good people believe that they see signs of a dangerous resurgence of the power of Romanism in education, in politics, in government. Such a danger can not be met only by an alert, far-reaching organization, animated by genuine Christian spirit and administered in ways consistent with American democracy. Such an organization will be at hand in United Methodism. God speed it!

Mr. Evans then introduced Bishop Edgar Blake of Paris, France, who addressed the meeting on "Our World Service Program." The Bishop's remarks were confined almost entirely to the subject as it pertained to the church's duty in Russia, and he gave some very vivid and interesting facts touching his experiences during a recent official visit to that country. Based on the press dispatches, Bishop Blake stated that he expected to find conditions in Russia extremely chaotic, but, on the contrary, he was very much surprised to see Moscow and other important centers enjoying almost perfect order.

He also stated that the masses of the Russian people are not ready to take any hand in the Russian government because they are illiterate, but he added that they are now being educated and within a couple of generations will be able to think for themselves. He pointed out that those in control of the Russian government today are atheists and hate the Christian church and Christian people. The Bishop's presentation of his impressions, experiences and findings served to impress upon those present the great need for the church to give the matter of Russian reconstruction its immediate attention.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 9:30 A. M.

After prayer by Mr. Roy Reger, Mr. J. M. Scott, General Superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, Wheeling, W. Va., spoke on "Organization for Effective Service." Mr. Scott referred to the hand full of men and women who do all the work in the church when there are so many who could shoulder some of the responsibilities if they only were of a mind to do so. He gave an example of the manner in which a great corporation organizes when it seeks to put over some important matter and mentioned the fact that as a result of thorough organization 85% of the 13,000 employees in the West Virginia district of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad subscribed for Liberty Bonds for a total of one million dollars. He then remarked that the work of the church, which is of the greatest importance, should surely receive no less attention. He suggested that the laymen in attendance at this meeting go back to their respective churches determined to do their part in seeing that every member is set to doing some effective work in one of the branches of the church.

Dr. Appleton Bash then spoke on the subject: "The Emergency and How to Meet It." In the course of his address the needs of the Centenary Movement were clearly pointed out, and the fact that there is no difference between Home and Foreign Missions was stressed.

Rev. John D. Green, head of the Department of Rural Leadership of the West Virginia Wesleyan College, spoke on "Laymen and Rural Leadership," from which address the following extracts are taken:

The solution of our rural church problems depends largely upon our securing better leadership. So long as the country circuits are as large as they are at present, the rural church cannot serve the needs of the people adequately. With a work consisting of from four to ten churches, the pastor becomes only a sliver of a man. So small a part of a man cannot do a man's work.

Laymen can lend material aid in improving this deplorable situation. This can be done during the time which must necessarily elapse before circuits can be made smaller. Our rural churches would profit from lay preaching and lay leadership. Many of our men in the large towns and cities could help with the work of near-by rural churches which receive at present only an occasional visit from a preacher. Many an able laymen is enjoying two good sermons every Sunday who would be better off spiritually were he to give part of his time in helping a small church. Scores of rural churches with only a monthly preaching service could have a lay speaker once a month, alternating with the regular preacher. The work of laymen in Gospel Team work is too well known to need discussion.

Laymen can help provide a real remedy for our present rural church difficulty. We have too many rural churches. Too often preachers of an almost identical faith meet each other or pass one another's churches as they travel over the same territory to preach the same Gospel to the same sort of people. Where there are not too many denominations in any given territory, the long trips of preachers could be obviated by a better division of territory among the churches. This is not a vain fancy. Such states as Ohio and Massachusetts are doing it. My request is that your organization appoint a committee to co-operate with an equal number of preachers in taking the preliminary steps looking toward the formation of a State Council of Churches whose purpose would be an attempt to secure maximum denominational co-operation in the rural field.

"The Laymen's Part in Religious Education" was the subject of an address by Rev. E. W. Halpenny, General Superintendent of West Virginia Sunday School Council of Religious Education, Charleston, W. Va. He spoke in part as follows:

The greatest moral discovery of modern time is the intimate relation that exists between national welfare and individual righteousness. What we familiarly call secular education stands for "social sufficiency." It prepares a person to be equal to the difficulties and problems of life. It sharpens his wits.

The grave question is, "What will he do with his sharpened wit?" It is this important answer that "Religious Education" aims to afford. Religious education stands for social efficiency. It seeks to saturate the soul, which is "the governor" of the individual, with sufficient truth and right principle to motivate or guide the life. So vital is religious education that Theodore Roosevelt used to affirm: "A man educated in mind (secular) and not in morals (religious) is a menace to society." Francis G. Peabody also says: "A man is educated when he is master of himself and of his task."

Where the Layman Comes In.

Our first duty as laymen is to ourselves. What are we good for anyhow? Too many of us just do church work. We need to fit ourselves for "worth-whileness." We are not functioning until we are reaching and helping others.

Our second real job, and job it is, is to meet the demands of our young people. Owing to our effort to introduce educational evangelism, which, by the way is only fulfilling our baptismal vows, we have brought children into the church, and to Christ too, whom we have not properly held and developed. It is our great responsibility now to see that they are "revived again." This is a great and co-operative task.

To the children, in the third place, we owe the attention of leadership, but more still the protection of a right atmosphere in the community. We must help the homes. This is our task in brief.

Rev. B. F. Lawrence then gave a very interesting account of mission work in China.

Brief, but very pointed and interesting talks concerning the work for the coming year were made by Mr. Charles W. Evans, Mr. S. L. Richards, Mr. John Raine, Mr. C. S. Howard, Mr. L. A. Thomas and Mr. J. C. Layman.

A resolution suggested by Rev. John D. Green was adopted unanimously and is as follows:

"That the seven vice-presidents of the Association be constituted a committee to act with the committee of ministers appointed by the Annual Conference for the purpose of taking such preliminary steps as may be necessary to secure the co-operation of our sister evangelical churches for the formation of a State Council of Churches."

The following resolution suggested by Dr. Charles H. Keesor of Wheeling, W. Va., was then adopted:

"That whereas, during the years past and gone, but not forgotten, men have made the supreme sacrifice of their lives and their all for the church, the home, the nation and the world, that we might enjoy the privileges and blessings that today are ours, be it therefore resolved that we show our honor, love and appreciation of their labors and sacrifices, so nobly done, by setting apart and dedicating the second Sabbath in November of each year, Armistice Sunday, as Father and Son Day, to be observed as are Mother's Day and Children's Day.

And, further, be it resolved that we use our every effort to the end that fathers and sons throughout the length and breadth of the land shall avail themselves of the privilege of attending worship on this day, thus making it not only a national but an international Sabbath observance of the day nearest the anniversary of that on which the great treaty of peace, The Armistice, was signed.

And, further, be it resolved that we show our patriotism and love for our home and our lands by wearing on that day our Country's emblem, The Stars and Stripes, or the flag of whatever country is ours.

Honorable W. G. Brown, Chairman of the Nominations Committee, then submitted the following report:

We nominate:

For President, Charles W. Evans, Fairmont, W. Va.

For Secretary-Treasurer, Ronald F. Moist, Clarksburg, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Buckhannon District, S. L. Richards, Weston, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Charleston District, C. R. Morgan, Charleston, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Elkins District, John Raine, Rainelle, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Huntington District, S. A. Wallace, Huntington, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Morgantown District, J. C. Gibson, Kingwood, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Wheeling District, L. S. Schwenck, Mannington, W. Va.

For Vice-President, Parkersburg District, Herbert L. Smith, Parkersburg, W. Va.

The above named persons were then unanimously elected as such officers for the ensuing year.

The following resolutions submitted by the Resolutions Committee, through its chairman, Honorable E. T. England, were then adopted:

Resolved by the Laymen's Association of the West Virginia Conference assembled in the City of Wheeling, September 28th and 29th, 1923, as follows:

First: We pledge our united support to the Pittsburg Christian Advocate. It has been a powerful factor in the development of Christian character, and, as an aid to our church in the fields of Christian endeavor, we continually feel its potent influence.

Second: The West Virginia Wesleyan College has been doing a wonderful work. In this school mentality is not only developed, but purity of heart and character as well, thus its students are trained along all the essential lines, which makes of them good citizens and useful men and women. We shall use our best efforts to advance the interest of this institution, in order that greater results may yet flow therefrom.

Third: Our appreciation and thanks are extended to the people of the city of Wheeling for opening their homes and caring for the delegates to this association and for the many other courtesies shown, all of which have made our stay here most enjoyable.

Fourth: To the trustees and membership of the Second United Presbyterian Church, we extend our heartfelt thanks for the use of their church in which this association met.

Fifth: We thank the press of the city for the publicity accorded the proceedings of this association in their columns.

Sixth: That it is the sense of this association that the number of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church should not be increased above the number fixed by the last General Conference.

Seventh: We express our great pleasure in the brilliant success of the Pittsburg Area Summer School of Theology at Mt. Lake Park, Md. We rejoice in the credit won by the West Virginia management and in the splendid record made by the West Virginia students. These numbered nearly one-half of the students in attendance. In addition to the benefit they received for themselves, they won honor for their Conference and greatly increased the reputation of West Virginia. We renew our promise of support to this school and pledge for the coming session the sum of $700.00, of which $100.00 shall be apportioned to each district of the West Virginia Conference. Of this sum $200.00 may be used for general expenses of the school, if necessary, and the remainder for the traveling expenses and board of West Virginia students.

Eighth: We declare our approval of the effort to be made during the coming Conference year for the increase of Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund, to at least a half million dollars. We promise to the Secretary of the Fund, Rev. Frank S. Townsend, D. D., our sympathy and help in the work. We urge that churches be open to him and his associated workers, and we urge the laymen of our churches to co-operate in the work by serving upon committees of management, by speaking at services held in the interest of the campaign and by aiding in the soliciting of subscriptions, knowing that to attain an average of $5.00 per member some must give large sums. We urge upon all the importance of giving freely according to their means, and of making every effort to attain the desired goal.

Ninth: That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the press of the State and to the Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Tenth: That our State Prohibition Department, under the leadership of Honorable W. G. Brown, State Prohibition Commissioner, is doing effective work in the enforcement of our prohibition laws; that the Federal Prohibition Department of this state, under the leadership of Honorable J. H. Gadd, Federal Prohibition Director, is accomplishing splendid results in the enforcement of these laws; and that Mr. J. Walter Bee, Manager of the Field Agents, of this department for this state, has, through his good judgment, experience, tact and skill, devoted his time to this work in such a way, that great results have been accomplished.

The motion of Mr. W. A. Watson, that the delegates to the Lay Electoral Conference be requested to co-operate with the seven vice-presidents in carrying on the work of the Association, was carried unanimously.

Ordered, that the secretary-treasurer be authorized to pay the necessary printing and other bills and the janitor of the Second United Presbyterian Church for his services during the period of this session.

On motion, the meeting was adjourned, sine die.
